NECK RISKED IN NIAGARA

Man Inside Ball Rides Falls

Plunge Over Precipice Seen by 150,000 Crowding on Both Sides of Gorge

Dare-devil Saved by Boat as Rubber Device Threatens to Drift Into Rapids

NIAGARA FALLS (N. Y.) July 4. (AP)—For the third time in history man conquered the mighty [illegible] today when Jean A. Lussier of Springfield, Mass., 36 years of age, went over Horseshoe Falls on the Canadian side in a specially constructed rubber ball while 150,000 persons lining the river banks on either side cheered and applauded him.

The start was made from Cayuga Island about three miles above the falls at 2:30 p.m., standard time, and Lussier was rescued from the eddy below the falls at 3:20 by William (Red) Hill, daredevil river man, alone in a rowboat.

GREETED BY SISTER

At first it was feared the giant ball might be carried down stream into the rapids. Lussier plunged over the brink at 3 o'clock. When Hill reached the ball it was right side up. When it was towed ashore and opened the first to greet Lussier, with a resounding kiss on his cheek, was his sister, Mrs. J. P. Cuatiere of Sherbrooke, Que.

Lussier suffered only minor bruises. There was a small mark on his right temple, another on his left shoulder and a spot on his shoulder blade, all received, he said, in the terrific bouncing of the ball as it passed through the rapids above the falls.

Describing his sensations while going over the precipice, Lussier said:

"I didn't even think. It all happened too fast."

It had been announced that Lussier would make his daring plunge into the river from an airplane, but he was unable to make the necessary arrangements he engaged [illegible] to tow him into the [illegible]

TWO OTHERS DID IT

The two other persons who made the trip over the brink of Niagara and lived to tell their experiences are Annie Edson Taylor in 1901 and Bobby Leach ten years later.

Mrs. Taylor never realized anything from her exploit and died several years later in an infirmary at [illegible]

Leach went into vaudeville and met death in New Zealand by slipping on an orange peel.

The ball used by Lussier is about six feet in diameter and made of layers of rubber and canvas over a superstructure of steel. His body, arms and legs were fastened to padded parts of the framework with tape and another cushion protected his head.

After cutting loose from the boat that towed him out from Cayuga Island, about seven miles above the falls, Lussier said, a weight designed as a ballast to keep him in upright position while afloat, broke loose and the ball rolled over and over throughout the trip.

BELGIAN CROESUS DROWNS IN FALL FROM AIRPLANE

Capt. Loewenstein, Reputed Third Richest Financier in World, Victim of Weird Accident

LONDON, July 4. (AP)—Capt. Alfred Loewenstein, Belgian financier whose fame was world-wide, was drowned today in one of the strangest fatalities in the history of commercial aviation.

The plane in which he was a passenger was crossing from Croydon, near London, to Brussels when the financier disappeared. His valet and two stenographers, as well as the pilot and mechanic of the plane, were present but did not notice the incident and it was not until arrival at Brussels that it was learned that Capt. Lowenstein was gone.

The British Air Ministry announced he had been drowned.

It was assumed that Capt. Loewenstein had opened the wrong door from his compartment and fallen into the sea.

OTHER PLANE ACCIDENT NARROWLY AVERTED

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—Alfred Loewenstein, wealthy Belgian financier, who dispatches say was killed in a fall from an airplane in Europe today, narrowly escaped death from a whirling airplane propeller when he was in this country earlier this year.

He arrived here in April to make trips around this country and Canada on business and bought a giant trimotored Fokker to travel in, having brought his personal pilot with him from abroad. He was overcome by the publicity his action caused and became exceedingly "camera shy." At one stopping-place he tried to slip away from photographers as he alighted from his plane and walked directly between two of the propellers.

Someone shouted "duck" and he saved himself, but he had been so near to death that one of the whirling blades knocked his hat from his head.

On one of his trips from this country to Canada certain customs regularities were not complied with and his plane was temporarily "seized." Everything was satisfactorily explained, however, and the ship returned to him. He left fo. Europe on May 18, last, saying that he would return here in October.

Loewenstein was Belgium's richest man and in some quarters it was thought that he was the richest in the world. The size of his fortune is not known, but its magnitude is indicated by the fact that in 1926 he offered his government the free loan of $50,000,000 for two years. Several years ago, $450,000 worth of jewels were stolen from his villa in Biarritz and European operatives came here in the hope of tracing the thieves.

Teeth Blasted Away in Prank

CAMDEN (N. J.) July 4. (AP)—William Ingram, 40 years of age, of this city, is in a hospital tonight with his teeth blasted away, the victim of a Fourth of July prank.

While he sat asleep on the porch of his home, presumably with his mouth agape, a practical joker thrust a large firecracker between his teeth, lighted the fuse and fled. Police have no clew as to the identity of the joker.

SMITH PATS TIGER FUR

Tammany Hall Defended

Governor Lauds Ideals of Society as Based on Patriotism

Hope for Wider Influence in National Affairs Set Forth

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—Replying to "a great deal of very caustic criticism" of Tammany, he said he had heard, Gov. Smith lauded the patriotic principles of the society in an Independence Day address at Tammany Hall today and attributed the society's long existence to "its great human appeal to everybody who is true to America."

The Democratic candidate for the Presidency was the principal speaker at the annual Tammany celebration as he was later in the evening at a gathering at City Hall.

"Can anything live in this country 139 years that is not all right?" he asked, in detailing virtues of Tammany. He then read a public announcement of today's meeting in which "all citizens and lovers of Americanism" were invited to unite in the celebration. This invitation, he said, was in strictest conformity with what the Declaration of Independence has to say about the equality of man.

"We do not care," he said, "whether he is rich or whether he is poor, whether he walks up to Tammany Hall or whether he comes up to it in an automobile. We care not what his station in life may be, we care nothing about his religious beliefs."

At this point the audience, which jammed the old hall that was once used for a national convention, broke into prolonged applause and the Governor mopped his flushed face.

PATRIOTS WANTED

"We only want to know one thing," he continued, "and that is that he is a lover of America and in sympathy with the aims and purposes of the society to perpetuate the memory of Jefferson, the memory of Washington, the signing of the immortal document that gave America her freedom, and that he stands behind the Constitution that gives life and vitality to the Declaration."

The Governor made no mention of politics and only passing comment on his nomination for the Presidency. When he ascended the rostrum John R. Voorhis, grand sachem of the society, 89 years of age, placed about his neck the green and gold insignia of a member of Tammany and then recalled that three years ago the chairman of a similar meeting had predicted Smith's nomination in 1928. He said that the Governor's reply to the

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, July 4. [To the Editor of The Times:] I got to figure some way of laughing Mr. Hearst out of that $5000 that I lost on Calvin. I don't know just how 5000 bucks worth of jokes is going to strike him; he don't need the money and on the other hand he may say he don't need the jokes. I will repeat to him the nominating speeches made at both conventions. The Republicans and the Democrats paid a couple of hundred thousand for them so they ought to be worth five. By rights Coolidge should be made to pay half this bet. He layed down on me. If he will pay half, I will pay half in money, or here is another way out: I will bet the five I owe that Mr. Coolidge will "choose" to run in 1932 in case Al or Herb (whichever one gets in) don't turn out to be what they are cracked up to be, so I hereby go on record as being the original "Coolidge for 1932" man.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

G.O.P. LOOKS EASTWARD

First Fire Aimed at Seaboard

Hoover's Office Calls Chiefs of New England and Atlantic States

Both Parties Expected to Center Campaign Fight on Wet States

WASHINGTON, July 4. (Exclusive)—The Republican party is going to launch its initial attack in behalf of the Hoover-Curtis ticket in the eastern seaboard States where Gov. Smith and his allies think they have the best prospects of winning.

This was indicated today when a call was issued from Secretary Hoover's office for a conference Saturday to be attended by Mr. Hoover, Senator Moses of New Hampshire, probable eastern campaign manager, and national committeemen from New England States and New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland.

COUNTING ON WETS

It is acknowledged that Gov. Smith's greatest strength in normally Republican territory lies in the wet sections along the Atlantic, and he must carry them, particularly New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts, to win.

Gov. Smith is counting on the wets in these States to put him over after he has held the "solid South," carried off the border States and picked up a few other nominally Republican States. Both sides plan to unlimber their heaviest artillery and put forth their best efforts on the eastern front. The Hoover forces are not worried, but are not going to lose any time getting under way.

The Saturday meeting, which came out of a clear sky, indicates that the Republican campaign in the East may be launched considerably earlier than the September 1 date set by Chairman Work for the opening of the general campaign.

Later, it was stated by aides of Mr. Hoover, similar conferences will be conducted—it has not been decided where—to draft plans for the campaign in the West and South.

DENIES NORRIS STORY

Secretary Hoover today, through a spokesman, emphatically denied dispatches from Omaha, Neb., declaring that on two occasions during the progress of the Republican convention at Kansas City he personally asked Senator Norris of Nebraska to take the Vice-Presidential nomination and become his running-mate. The stories were based upon information said to have been obtained from sources close to Norris by a representative of the Omaha World-Herald. The reply authorized by Mr. Hoover was that he made no such request of Norris, either directly or indirectly, and at all times kept his hands strictly off the matter of a Vice-Presidential selection, leaving this entirely to his friends and managers at Kansas City. Incidentally, it was pointed out there were several vigorous Vice-Presidential candidates among Hoover's close supporters at the convention, and for the Secretary to have attempted to dictate would have caused ill feeling in his own camp.

"The story is simply preposterous," the spokesman for Mr. Hoover declared.

WORKS' STATEMENT AMAZES

The nominee also let it be known again today that he is surprised, if not amazed, at the statement by Chairman Work at the summer White House in Northern Wisconsin, that Mr. Hoover is going to remain indefinitely as Secretary of

GOLD EAGLE LEADS MINT PRODUCTION

Twenty Million Dollars Worth Turned Out to Meet Export Demand

WASHINGTON, July 4. (AP)—The United States mints were forced to produce more than $20,000,000 in gold eagles this year because of the large gold exports requiring both coin and bullion.

This brought the unusual result of the mints turning out 43,233,749 fewer coins during the fiscal year 1928, than the year before, but with an increased valuation of $21,209,670, the national minting for 1928 being 252,776,335 pieces valued at $262,356,797, against the 1927 production of 296,010,084 pieces, with a valuation of $141,147,127.

Production of silver coins decreased with a 1928 output of 44,652,085 pieces against a 1927 production of 56,361,334 pieces, and nickels and pennies dropped to 195,305,000 pieces this year from 233,027,000 last year.

Holland Storm Fatal to Three

THE HAGUE, July 4. (Exclusive) A great lightning storm during the night struck a large granary in the town of Woert in the Dutch Province of Limberg, destroying 200,000 kilograms of corn and killing three persons.

Many Injured by Fireworks Blast in Crowd

LAMAR (Mo.) July 4. (AP)—At least twenty-five persons were injured, fourteen seriously, tonight when a truck load of fireworks exploded prematurely in a crowd of 5000 persons assembled in the public square.

In a stampede that followed the blast many persons were trampled. Several children were injured.

The blast occurred when someone tossed a lighted firecracker under the truck just as the display was about to begin.

Fatality Laid to Firecracker

SEATTLE (Wash.) July 4. (AP)—When a firecracker jarred a shotgun left standing against an automobile this afternoon, the gun toppled over, exploded and the charge of buckshot killed Mrs. Vilma Cappiello, 22 years of age, of this city. A baby she held in her arms was unhurt. The accident happened near Renton, where Mrs. Cappiello had gone with friends to spend the Fourth of July.

BENTON (Me.) July 4. (AP)—Irwin W. Gray, 35 years of age, of Waterville, was killed today when his five-foot home-made cannon exploded as he attempted to ram in a shell.

Vessel Floated After Grounding

BOSTON, July 4. (AP)—The submarine S-6, which grounded yesterday on Moosebeck ledge, off Hardwood Island, near Jonesport, Me., was at the latter place today, participating in an Independence Day observance, according to a report received at the navy yard here.

After being aground for more than twelve hours, the submarine was floated without any apparent damage at 10:05 last night, and proceeded into Jonesport Harbor.

Mother Told of Hopwood Death

NICE (France) July 4. (AP)—A tragedy of real life was enacted at the railway station here today when Mrs. James Hopwood of Cleveland, Avery Hopwood's mother, arrived expecting her son to meet her.

Instead she was told he had died while in swimming at the beach at Juan Les Pins last Sunday. It was her first information of her son's death. She was prostrated.

Dublin Greets Bremen Flyers

DUBLIN, July 4. (AP)—A state welcome was given the trans-Atlantic airmen, Maj. James Fitzmaurice, Capt. Herman Koehl and Baron von Huenefeld today.

HEAT TAKES TOLL IN EAST

Drownings and Prostrations Numerous Before Sudden Storms Bring Relief and Damage

NEW YORK, July 4. (Exclusive)—Terrific heat and efforts to escape it were responsible for eight deaths today before a merciful storm brought relief on New York's sanest celebration of the Fourth.

While three of the deaths alone were directly attributed to high temperatures, four drownings and an automobile fatality were indirectly attributable to it and to the traffic jam and beach crowds created by the general desire to escape the sweltering city.

Dazed by the heat, James Wood, 37 years of age of Bayonne, N. J., was killed when he drove his car off the highway at Port Washington, L. I. Two men were injured with Wood, and two serious automobile accidents were reported.

Those who died from heat prostration were Mrs. Jeanette Swithin, 52; James Kennedy, 70, and Mrs. Hannah Stein, 82.

Heat prostrations were numerous throughout the East.

ELECTRICAL STORMS CAUSE DAMAGE IN BOSTON

BOSTON, July 4. (Exclusive)—A quick series of severe electrical storms reaching cyclonic proportions in many localities swept Boston today, uprooting trees, unroofing a few small buildings on the north shores and sending hundreds of thousands of holiday pleasure seekers scurrying to shelter from crowded pleasure resorts.

Nine drownings, five of them in the metropolitan area, were reported tonight, all of them attributed to the population's efforts to escape the heat at the water resorts. The mercury officially reached 91 deg., 1 deg. lower than yesterday, the first day of the present heat wave. Late tonight no fatal motor accidents or deaths from explosives had been reported.

THREE KILLED IN STORM AT TORONTO

TORONTO (Ont.) July 4. (AP)—The most severe electrical storm of the season which struck late yesterday afternoon left in its wake three persons killed and five injured, as well as extensive damage to power, light and telephone circuits.

Several buildings, including a church, were struck by lightning. The precipitation of nearly an inch of rain filled cellars, choked the sewage system and caused it to overflow in some sections.

Two men, Dale M. Scott and Fred Campbell, Canadian Pacific Railway bridge workers, were killed, and four injured at Leaside, where twenty-five men took refuge in a shack, which was struck by lightning. Noel Howe was killed and one man injured by lightning in this city.

CHILD KILLED AS STORM SWEEPS EASTERN NEBRASKA

OMAHA, July 4. (AP)—One child was killed and four persons were injured in a violent windstorm which swept Eastern Nebraska early this morning causing thousands of dollars of damage by wrecking houses and tearing down trees and telephone poles.

CRASH KILLS AUTOMOBILE RACE DRIVER

Two Others Injured as Three Cars Pile Up on Milwaukee Speedway

MILWAUKEE, July 4. (AP)—Bruce Miller, Detroit race driver, was almost instantly killed this afternoon when three cars piled in an automobile race at the State Park. Mike Bellas of West Allis crashed into the fence and was seriously injured and the driver of a third car piled against a fence and was slightly hurt.

The 100-mile grind had proceeded without mishap until the ninth lap, when the car driven by Bellas skidded at right angles to the track on a turn. Miller, closely following, banged into Bellas's car and overturned. Miller was spilled clear of his machine and lay for an instant inert on the speedway.

Just as the dazed man made an effort to crawl clear of the wreckage another car, driven by Tudy Marchez of Milwaukee, roared into view. Some spectators close to the scene declared his car passed directly over Miller's body. Meanwhile Bellas's car hit the inside fence and John Radke, the next to reach the spot, also drove into the fence in trying to avoid the wreckage.

Four Drown in Lake Mishap

ESTRAL BEACH (Mich.) July 4. (AP)—Four men were drowned and a fifth had a narrow escape from a similar fate here today, when a boat in which they were rowing was overturned in the back wash of a speeding launch.

Persons who witnessed the accident from the beach were able to rescue one of them. He is unconscious tonight and unable to reveal his identity or that of his companions. Bodies of two of the men were recovered and police are dragging the waters for the other victims.

FLIGHT FATE IN DOUBT

Italians Sighted at Cape Verde

Experts Compute Speed of Gigantic Plane as About 135 Miles Per Hour

ROME, July 5 (Thursday) (Exclusive)—Based on their flying time between here and the Cape Verde Islands, it was estimated early today that the Italian flyers should have been over Pernambuco, Brazil, about 5 a.m. Greenwich time (9 p.m. Wednesday Los Angeles time.) That hour passed, however, without word of the airmen.

LONDON, July 4. (AP)—The steamship Ionic Star radioed to the Associated Press at 10:15 p.m. Greenwich time that it had received a message from the Savoia plane in which Capt. Arturo Ferrarin and Maj. Carlo P. Del Prete are attempting a nonstop flight from Italy to Brazil saying that all was well.

ROME, July 4. (AP)—Two Italian airmen were tonight believed to be somewhere over the South Atlantic, more than two-thirds of their flight behind them, in an effort to fly from Rome to Pernambuco, Brazil, on the mainland of South America.

Capt. Arturo Ferrarin and Maj. Carlo P. Del Prete were sighted at 5 p.m. Greenwich time, (9 a.m. Los Angeles time) above the Cape Verde Islands, radio dispatches from that place to Buenos Aires, Argentine, said.

PERILOUS LAP

St. Vincent, Cape Verde Islands, is approximately 3000 miles from Rome, and is 1600 miles from Pernambuco. But the 1600 miles to Pernambuco is regarded as the most dangerous lap of the flight, though just about one-half the distance already traversed. It is over open water, while comparatively little of that already traveled was not over either European or African coast line.

The sighting at Cape Verde saw the two airmen twenty-two hours out of Rome with the remarkable average of better than 135 miles an hour speed in their plane from this city behind them. Should they maintain this speed and keep to their course, they would reach Pernambuco about 5 a.m. Thursday, Greenwich time, or 3 o'clock Pernambuco time.

There is no certainty of the airmen landing at Pernambuco, however, if they still have fuel and can obtain their bearings. It was said prior to their departure they might continue further south, possibly to Rio Janeiro or other Brazilian coastal cities. This was regarded as particularly apt to happen since the aviators are intent on besting the long-distance flight record of just less than 4000 miles now held by the Americans, Chamberlin and Levine.

Thus far the airmen have kept consistently to their course, being sighted first at Gibraltar, at 5:15 this morning, and later at Villa Cisneros, Rio de Oro, at 3 p.m. Greenwich time. A St. Vincent's dispatch said they were sighted again 350 miles north of Cape Verde Islands, the radio dispatch to Buenos Aires later setting the time of their passage over the island group at 5 p.m. G. M. T.

COURSE CHANGED

In leaving the African coast at Villa Cisneros or near there for the open ocean, the flyers abandoned what had been variously said to have been their original intention of flying to Bolama, Portuguese Guinea, and heading for Pernambuco from there. The route actually taken is some shorter than if they had gone on to Bolama though the ocean hop itself is longer.

Although their large Savoia plane is equipped with wireless there have been no reports from them through this medium. The plane is that which attained an endurance flight record of more than fifty-eight hours recently under the handling of the two aviators.

PRESIDENT HAS BIRTHDAY

Coolidge Celebrates With Newspaper Men and Photographers as Guests

SUPERIOR (Wis.) July 4. (AP)—President Coolidge celebrated today, his fifty-sixth birthday, on the sunny Brule with newspaper men and press photographers as his only guests. With them he shared his birthday cake and allowed them to follow him on a fishing trip and partake of his triumph in a plentiful catch.

Newspaper men and photographers had been told to be at Cedar Island Lodge early. President Coolidge was waiting for them, wearing a ten-gallon hat, red-striped mackinaw, khaki breeches and high-laced boots. Canoes had been provided for all, John Larock, Mr. Coolidge's Indian guide-keeping guard over one reserved for the choice of the Executive.

GOES WITHOUT FAMILY

Losing no time after the arrival of his guests, Mr. Coolidge waved good-by to Mrs. Coolidge and to his son, John, who were sitting on the porch steps, and led the way paddled by Larock, up the stream, across a couple of little lakes into a bigger pool of clear water periodically disturbed by the breaking of trout.

The reporters and photographers, surprised at the unexpected treat allowed them, were slow in getting started. Mr. Coolidge, impatient to get to his fishing, called across the water to hasten and pushed on through the rapids connecting the lakes. Larock, answering to the Chief Executive's wish, paddled vigorously, outdistancing the other canoes and soon losing sight of them in the bends of the stream.

AFTER THE TROUT

When the reporters caught up Mr. Coolidge was seen in the prow of his canoe close to the shore of the

HOPE RISES FOR CREW OF ITALIA

Russian Ice Breaker Nears Six Marooned Men

Fog Hampers Flying Trips to Arctic Castaways

Gen. Nobile's Illness Still Regarded Serious

KINGS BAY, July 4. (AP)—Hope tonight for the quick rescue of the five stranded members of the Italia's crew and their fellow-castaway, Lieut. Lundborg, flamed anew with reports of consistent progress by the powerful Russian icebreaker Krassin.

The Krassin last was reported in the vicinity of Cape Platen, about fifty-five miles west of the camp on Foyn Island, and making about three knots an hour in its progress toward the ice-marooned men. There is hope that another day will see it comparatively within reach of those they are seeking to aid.

Flying conditions continue adverse, with fog holding up trips to those on the ice.

In the meantime the search for Amundsen and those with him is proceeding with the Norwegian aviators Leutzow Holm and Riiser-Larsen awaiting an opportunity to join the sealer Hobby, which has been donated by its American owner for the search.

On board the Citta di Milano it was said Gen. Nobile's condition continues bad, with worry over his comrades and the failure of his expedition preventing as rapid recuperation as his doctors hoped would be the case.

ITALIA FLIGHT MADE WITH WILD DISORDER, SAYS PAPER

LONDON, July 4. (Exclusive)—The Morning Post this morning quoting the Stockholm Dagbladet, publishes a startling story concerning Gen. Umberto Nobile's handling of the Italia flight.

It is stated that the start of the flight to the North Pole was carried out with the greatest disorder and that petrol had to be pumped out of the tanks owing to wrong loading. The crew was detained a couple of hours, the Stockholm paper says, by religious ceremonies, and Dr. Finn Malmgren, famous Swedish scientist, was forced, fuming with anger, to search for his instruments, which had been strewn about the ship. Also, despite the fact that the weather reports were anything but promising, Gen. Nobile decided to start.

After the blessing of the cross which they intended to drop at the pole, Gen. Nobile and his men, according to the Dagbladet, made public fools of themselves, drinking champagne. The general asked one of the journalists to join him in a glass, and when he did so to please him, Gen. Nobile said "Cheerio, the press," and ran behind the crew to hide himself. The journalist threw the glass of champagne at the feet of officers, who were all laughing at his discomfiture.

The only man who did not laugh was Maj. Mariano, who regarded Gen. Nobile's behavior with displeasure.

RUSSIAN FLYER BACK AFTER HARROWING TRIP

MOSCOW, July 4. (AP)—The soviet aviator Babushkin, who left his base ship, the ice breaker Maligin, Friday in search for stranded members of the Italia's crew, returned to the Maligin today after a harrowing five days' experience with wind and icebergs.

Shortly after leaving the Maligin last week Babushkin encountered head winds with which he struggled for some time, but which finally forced his descent in the sea eighty miles north of Hope Island, to the southeast of the Spitsbergen archipelago.

There his fragile seaplane was in constant danger of being crushed by the icebergs before it finally got off the water again and found the Maligin. Both Babushkin and the crew of the plane escaped injury.

According to the Tass News Agency, which is responsible for the story of Babushkin's return, the Maligin now is preparing to proceed from Hope Island to the southeast.

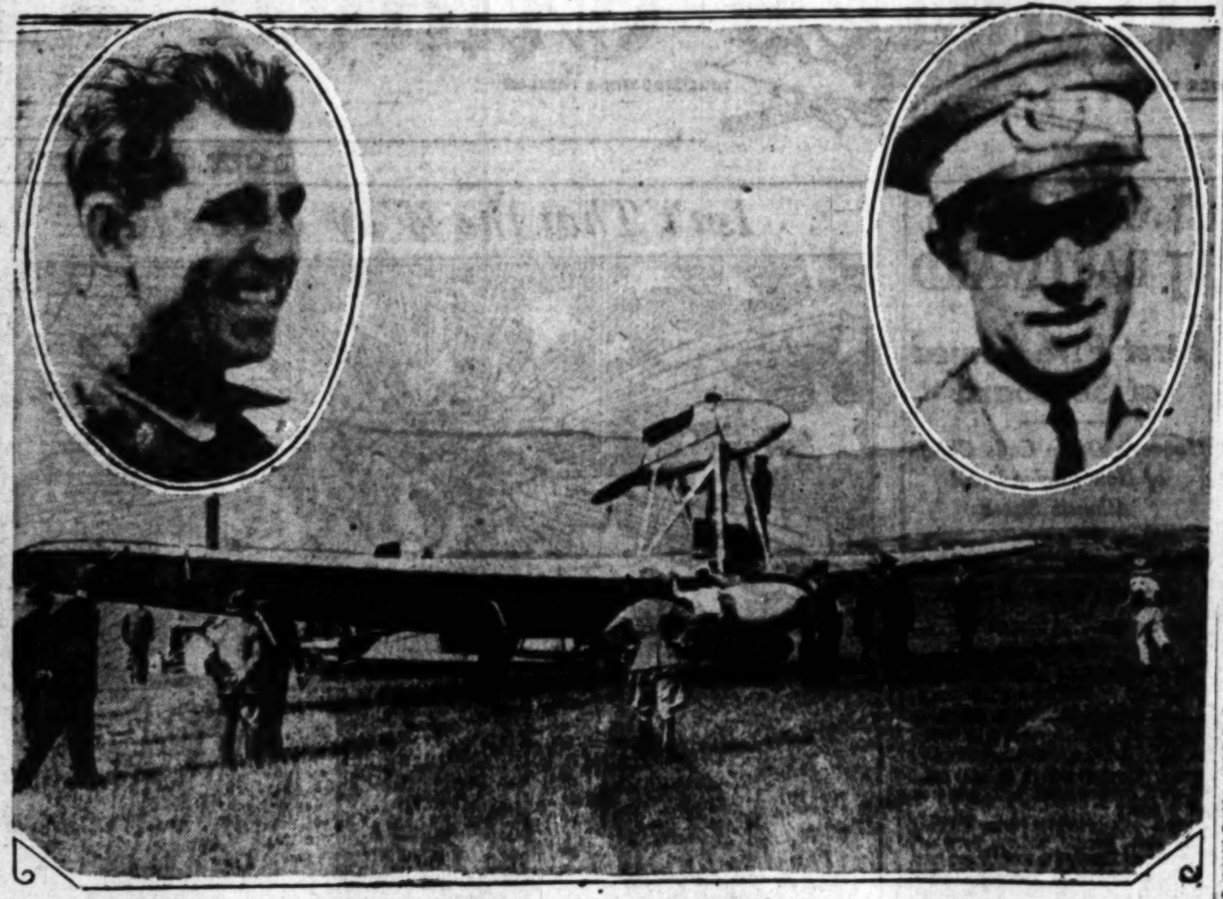
Rome-to-Brazil Plane Nearing Its Destination



Trans-Atlantic Flyers and Their Craft

Murder Suspect Identified as ex-Film Actor

SPOKANE (Wash.) July 4. (AP)—Jack La France, asserted slayer of Harry Warner, 32 years of age, gardener, in a tavern murder, was identified late today as Adolph Rosenau, a former motion-picture actor of Los Angeles and a former member of the Seattle police force, having served with the department in 1919 and 1920, officers investigating stated tonight.

Persons who admitted they had witnessed the slaying told police that while "Warner prayed for his life" Rosenau killed him by plunging a butcher knife through his heart on the lawn of the Colonial Tavern west of the city early today before friends could save him.

The asserted slayer continued to elude officers tonight.

Death Summons British Croesus

LONDON, July 4. (Exclusive)—Sir David Yule, said to be the richest man in Great Britain, died of heart disease last night at St. Albans, a few miles from London. He was 69 years of age.

Sir David is believed to have been worth approximately $125,000,000, and was senior director of Andrew Yule & Co., Indian merchants, in Calcutta and London.

NEVADA CITY CROWDS SEE PATRIOTIC SHOW

NEVADA CITY, July 4. (AP)—Six-horse stage coaches of the "Forty-Niner" era and motor vehicles joined on equal terms here today in the Fourth of July parade. A crowd estimated at 10,000 saw the pageant and voted it one of the most striking seen here in recent years. Senator Inman of Sacramento delivered the patriotic address. Hundreds from other California cities came here for the celebration.

Navy Bans Stunts for O2U Planes

WASHINGTON, July 4. (AP)—The Navy Department issued an order today prohibiting naval aviators from rolling and spinning O2U land and seaplanes, due to several recent crashes in this type of aircraft.

Yesterday an O2U seaplane off the cruiser Concord crashed near Newport, R. I., killing two aviators and making the second accident of its kind of this type plane from this ship within a week. The O2U's are used on all light cruisers.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION OPENS

BERKELEY, July 4. (AP)—A prayer meeting and address by Dr. Daniel A. Poling, international president, informally opened the annual convention of the California Christian Endeavor Union here tonight with more than 3000 young people present. Regular sessions will open tomorrow with Dr. Lewis B. Hillis, A. H. Anderson and Harold Singer speaking. The convention closes Sunday night.

FIFTEEN INJURED IN WRECK

Shore Line Limited Derailed by Towerman to Avoid Apparent Collision With Fruit Cars

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4. (Exclusive)—A Southern Pacific towerman threw a derail in the path of the southbound Shore Line Limited, laden to capacity with holiday excursionists to prevent it from crashing into a freight train in the outer yards today, and wrecked the limited. Five members of the train crew and ten passengers were injured, but none fatally.

The train carried 200 passengers, 147 of whom were booked for Los Angeles. The wreck occurred just outside tunnel No. 3 on the peninsula main line at Bay Shore station, nine minutes' running time from the Third-and-Townsend depot. The train left the downtown station at 8 a.m.

Witnesses said a switch engine was hauling six cars of apricots from a yard track across the southbound main line to the northbound main line as the Shore Line Limited approached.

Accordingly the block was set against the passenger. The engine left the rails, plowing up ties and roadbed for 125 yards, then struck a depression and overturned. A combination mail and baggage car rammed cornerwise into the apricot train, smashing three cars. The front trucks of the first day coach were torn free, skewing the car aside, but the following coaches remained on the track.

As the passenger leaped the rails it became evident, the witness declared, that if the derail had not been thrown the train would not have been wrecked nor would it have hit the apricot train, as the latter was clear of the southbound track.

John Weir, San Jose, the engineer of the passenger, and George Miller, San Francisco, the fireman, were the most seriously injured. They were scalded by steam which escaped from the engine after it toppled over. Both, however, will recover, surgeons said. Injuries to passengers were not serious.

Hoover Holds Lead in Theater

Secretary Hoover holds a slight lead in the straw-ballot election on the Presidential race conducted at the Hollywood Playhouse, with the results 373 for Hoover and 331 for Gov. Smith, it was announced following two days' voting.

The Playhouse management is nonpartisan and is conducting the straw election in an effort to determine how Hollywood will vote in the general election, it is said.

SMITH PRAISES TAMMANY HALL

GOVERNOR REMEMBERS

"I have a distinct recollection of the incident," the Governor responded with a grin, to the grand sachem's introduction. "In the past five years I have been nominated at least three times in Tammany Hall. I was nominated at at least 200 dinners, I have been nominated at weddings, christenings, at the laying of corner-stones, at the breaking of ground for new buildings, at the opening or dedication of new State edifices for various and sundry purposes, but in Texas . . ."

The sentence was interrupted by a roar of applause and the Governor let it remain unfinished. He then spoke of the growth of the country since the society of Tammany was organized.

WAR RECORD

"However," he said, "and I look back over the history of our country I am not so much impressed by growth by power and by strength and by wealth. I am impressed by some other fact and that is that with all the wealth, with all the growth and with all the power from every line and from every page of history you will never have the blush of shame that this country ever waged a war of aggression."

Because of the country's wealth and power, however, he said, it had been a beacon light for the downtrodden and poor of every land, and it had cared for them.

"We surmount this warm and brilliant history," he said, "by the happenings within our own times. The children of today can say they lived in the period of American history when Divine Providence and the power, wealth and strength of this country unite for the preservation of peace and civilization."

Asserting his pride at being an officer of the Society of Tammany, the Governor concluded with the hope that year by year a larger number of people might be brought under its patriotic influence.

The Governor was preceded on the Tammany platform by several other speakers, among them Senator Copeland. The Tammany speech was broadcast by radio station WNYC and the City Hall meeting by that station and WEAF of the National Broadcasting Company.

NEW VOTERS ADDRESSED

In a second address at New York's City Hall tonight, Gov. Smith spoke to several thousand new voters.

Kleig lights played about the nominee as he described the duties and privileges of citizenship to those who will cast their first votes at the November election.

"If is a surprising thing to know," he said, "how many people in this State and in this country are so indifferent to their citizenship and to the welfare of their commonwealth, or union of commonwealths, that they will not take the trouble to vote.

VOTE SLACKER HIT

"The man who goes to a picnic on election day and uses that day as a week-end for entertainment cannot be said to have very much interest in his citizenship because, after all, all officers, large and small, come up from the people."

Citizenship in this country, he said, proves again the old saying that "you never get anything for nothing," for with the privileges of citizenship go certain duties and obligations, the greatest of which he described as the duty of casting the ballot.

Another of its obligations, he said, is to study the doctrines of the great national parties, their platforms and their promises.

REPUBLICANS LOOKING EAST

Commerce. For the second time in two days correspondents were told that Hoover stands on the statement issued just a week ago which said he would ask to "be relieved of the secretaryship at some early date."

Dr. Work is expected back here tomorrow and this mix up may all be explained. But as for Mr. Hoover, it was made plainer than ever that he plans to submit his resignation to President Coolidge very shortly, probably when he visits the summer White House the latter part of next week, with the hope that the President will accept it as soon as convenient so he can be free to give his full time and energy to the business of running for President.

PASSES QUIET FOURTH

The belief in Washington is that Dr. Work may have merely expressed his own preference and that the correspondents at Brule mistakenly took it as a statement of what Hoover himself intended. From the first, Work has held the opinion that not only was there no occasion for Hoover's resigning but that by remaining in the Cabinet he could advance his campaign.

Mr. Hoover remained quietly at home throughout one of the noisiest July Fourths Washington has had in years. He spent most of the time on the rear veranda reading the newspapers and catching up on some personal correspondence. A few neighbors dropped in for brief visits but he had no formal appointments.

ROBINSON ASKS FOR TOLERANCE

Addresses Legion Fourth of July Gathering

Candidate Declares Age of Bigotry Has Passed

Holds Separation of Church and State True Theory

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) July 4. (AP) Making a plea for religious tolerance and complete separation of church and State, Senator Robinson, the Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, in an Independence Day address here, declared "the age of bigotry has passed" and that "no man should be preferred or discriminated against in public authority because of his affiliation with a particular church."

Speaking at an American Legion State-wide celebration in honor of his nomination, the running-mate of Gov. Smith of New York asserted that "the battalions that advance under the black banners of intolerance can never undermine or destroy the fortress of liberty."

DISCUSSES RELIGION

Reviewing the principles upon which independence was founded, Senator Robinson launched into a discussion of the religious issue in politics.

"Religious liberty is now the subject of frequent and sometimes bitter discussion," he said. "Indeed, colonial history reveals disputes and persecutions in almost all the colonies wholly inconsistent with the teachings of any Christian sect. The colonial contests over religious liberty were responsible for the provisions in the sixth article of the First Amendment of our Constitution intended to set at rest forever agitation respecting the subject. . . .

"The true constitutional theory upon the subject, as I conceive it, therefore, is that there should be complete separation of church and State. No man should be preferred or discriminated against in public authority because of his affiliation with a particular church. The age of bigotry has passed. The battalions that advance under the black banner of intolerance can never undermine or destroy the fortress of liberty.

PRAISES LEGION

"Happily the great organization, the American Legion, under whose auspices this celebration is held, is strong in advocacy and defense of these fundamental social and political principles.

"In great national emergencies our people do not waste their energies in fruitless controversies. They do not question the religious sect with which the citizen is allied. They call upon him as a patriot to render service, and thanks to the genius of our institutions there has been no distinction or discrimination on account of sect.

"The white crosses erected on foreign battlefields to mark the graves of our soldiers who fell in the great World War are emblems of that charity and tolerance taught and exemplified by the Christ who bore the cross of Calvary and died upon it."

Turning to the subject of peace, Senator Robinson said:

"Permanent peace can never be brought about by mere treaties of arbitration and disarmament. These are helpful," he said, "when reflective of the spirit of conciliation among the contracting parties.

"International wars are conceived in suspicion and mistrust. So long as peoples misunderstand and hate one another there will exist the dread and danger of war."

Self-Preservation of Ideals Held Vital Task

MINNEAPOLIS, July 4. (AP)—After building a vast school system as a foundation for permanent prosperity, the United States cannot tolerate wholesale destruction of human resources by liquor, crime and drugs, Senator Fess of Ohio told the National Education Association today. Senator Fess, a former educator and the keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention, was principal speaker as the association observed Independence Day at its annual convention.

"The fundamental task in national self-preservation, and a task that lies to a certain extent in the hands of the educators, is to prevent that needless destruction," he said.

He asserted that "the United States as a whole is firmly convinced of the value of prohibition as a means of conserving human energies and turning them into productive channels."

New Zealand in Pact With Japan

SYDNEY, July 4. (Exclusive)—It is reported that a treaty between Japan and New Zealand applying most favored nation provisions to trade, customs and navigation is imminent. The Japanese consul-general, Tokugawa, states that he negotiated the agreement last November and hopes that it will be signed shortly.

There is much interest in the report here, as the agreement is the first of its kind Japan has formed with any British dominion. On the subject of immigration, Japan probably will apply to New Zealand the "gentlemen's agreement," which exists with Australia.

JULIAN UNABLE TO RECALL ROW

He Doesn't "Know of" Any Trouble With Daugherty

Ban on Western Lead Sale Can't Be Remembered

Stock in "Flop" All Bought by Himself, He Says

PHOENIX, July 4. (Exclusive)—Following is a verbatim copy of that portion of the evidence given on the stand by C. C. Julian in the Monte Cristo receivership action in which the Los Angeles promoter testified that he had had no difficulties "that he knew of" with State Corporation Commissioner Daugherty of California in connection with Western Lead, that he did not know whether or not the corporation commissioner issued an order against the further sale of Western Lead stock, that he had no information with regard to either the State official's investigation or the order against further stock sales and that when, as he expressed it, Western Lead turned out to be a "flop," about August, 1926, he called in all of the stock sold, paid for it with his own money and "took the loss" himself.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Mr. Holton:

Question: Your name is C. C. Julian?

Answer: That is correct.

Q.: You are the president of the Monte Cristo Mining and Milling Company?

A.: That is correct.

Q.: Also of the New Monte Cristo Mining Company?

A.: That is so.

Q.: Also of the Julian Merger Mining Company, Inc.?

A.: That is correct.

Q.: Also of the Western Lead Mining Company?

LARGE SUM INVOLVED

Q.: During the entire history of the last three named mining companies you have been president of them?

A.: I have.

Q.: You organized the last three named mining companies?

A.: Western Lead, Julian Merger Mines and New Monte Cristo, yes.

Q.: During the last eight years you have sold in and about Los Angeles in the neighborhood of $20,000,000 worth of stocks; is that correct?

A.: I would have to check my records to confirm that.

Q.: You have made that statement, however, in your letters?

A.: Approximately so.

Q.: Approximately $20,000,000, yes. Prior to entering the mining end of the promotion business you were in the oil-stock-selling business?

A.: Oil-development business.

Q.: Oh, I beg your pardon, oil development, yes, having organized the Julian Petroleum and other companies?

A.: That is correct.

Q.: For how many years were you engaged in the oil-development promotion business?

A.: I have been in the practical end of the oil business for about twenty years.

PROMOTION DENIED

Q.: You have not been engaged in the promotion of it?

A.: No.

Q.: Never have?

A.: Never other than what has already been recited.

Q.: I hadn't noticed you had recited any promotion business in the oil end of it.

A.: You asked if I had organized the Julian Petroleum and my answer was that I did.

Q.: You sold stock in the Western Lead to the extent of several million dollars?

A.: No.

Q.: How many millions?

A.: No millions.

Q.: Never sold any stock?

A.: Under a million.

Q.: There were in the neighborhood of 7700 stockholders in Western Lead, were there?

A.: I couldn't say as to the exact number.

Q.: That—you have made that assertion in your written correspondence, have you not?

A.: I can't recall.

"NO DIFFICULTY"

Q.: You can't recall. Some difficulty arose with the Corporation Commission of the State of California with relation to the Western Lead manipulations?

A.: No difficulty that I know of.

Q.: None whatever that you know of. You and Mr. Daugherty were not what might be termed bosom friends?

A.: We were not.

Q.: Yes, he at that time was the Corporation Commissioner of the State of California.

A.: That is correct.

Q.: He issued an order which did not meet with your approval, namely, that the brokers of the State of California should no longer deal in Western Lead stocks, did he not?

A.: I couldn't tell you. You say he did, he probably did.

Q.: You wouldn't say that he didn't?

A.: I don't know whether he didn't or not. I don't recall that he issued any order or not.

Q.: You do know, however, that the brokers ceased to deal in those securities.

A.: I do not.

BLUE-SKY LAW

Q.: You do not. You know of a law in the State of California known as the blue-sky law?

A.: Very familiar with it.

Q.: And you know that it was the duty of Mr. Daugherty to administer that law as the State Corporation Commissioner?

A.: The act so recites.

Q.: You know that Mr. Daugherty caused an investigation to be made of Western Lead?

A.: I am under the impression that is correct.

Q.: You know that following that investigation that the Corporation Commissioner issued an order to the stock brokers, those having stock brokers' licenses in California, to not deal in that security?

A.: I am not familiar with that, no.

Q.: Have you anything—you have absolutely no information upon that subject.

A.: No information, furthermore I know that the brokers did trade in it regardless of whether he issued an order or didn't issue an order.

Q.: Up to about what time?

A.: Up until the time that I called the whole issue in and took it off the people's hands and paid for it with my own money.

"MINE WAS FLOP"

Q.: Why did you take that step?

A.: I recommended the security. The mine was a flop and I took the loss.

Q.: There are no stockholders in Western Lead today?

A.: Not that I know of.

Q.: Other than yourself?

A.: Not one that I know of. My opinion is that there are none.

Q.: When was that flop?

A.: For the same reason that every prospect does not develop into a mine.

Q.: I mean, when was it a flop?

A.: Along about August of 1926.

Q.: When you say that the mine was a flop, you say it proved to be of no value?

A.: That would be the assumption.

CERTIFICATION

I, C. R. Holton, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true excerpt from the reporter's notes of the testimony of C. C. Julian taken in Cause No. 27668-C, entitled A. Krell vs. C. C. Julian, et al., in the Superior Court of Maricopa County, Arizona.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 2nd day of July, 1928.

YOUNG JOHN D. UNPAMPERED

League Officials Determined to Treat Him Simply as Any Other Worker

GENEVA, July 4. (AP)—League of Nations officials today issued an appeal stating that they are anxious to make the coming of John D. Rockefeller III to hold a temporary job with the League information section entirely simple and natural. It is to be hoped that press and the public will do nothing to embarrass the Princeton student in the fulfillment of his duties.

The officials asked for cooperation to avoid any exaggerated or wrong impression on behalf of a "fine chap." It is stated that his salary will be commensurate with his work and the general League scale.

SYNCHRONIZING TESTS SUCCEED

Radio Stations WAIU and KMOX in Experiment

Use of Same Wave Length by Several Cities Possible

Method Evolved for Reducing Ether Congestion

COLUMBUS (O.) July 4. (Exclusive)—Almost perfect results were obtained in the synchronizing experiment carried out last night by the engineers of stations WAIU of this city and KMOX of St. Louis. Observers posted at regular intervals between St. Louis and Columbus and also at a distance of 500 miles east and west of these cities reported on reception every fifteen minutes to the WAIU and KMOX engineers.

These tests, which have been planned after a period of experimenting which started last January, are to arrange to broadcast the same programs simultaneously from different stations, using exactly the same wave lengths.

REPORTS EXAMINED

Reports turned in by observers and engineers examined today by officials of the two stations cooperating indicated that the test was practically successful. At no time was there distortion. Howls due to heterodyning of off-frequencies were absent, and complete control of beat notes was held by both stations throughout the two hours.

As the synchronizing was attempted while the Columbia network system program originating at WOR, New York, was coming through, certain difficulties were introduced by the fifteen-second break for individual station announcement between numbers.

In order that there would be introduced no distortion in the two stations' announcement, WAIU broke in first, using seven seconds, and KMOX following, taking seven more, allowing but one second for switching.

WILL CLEAR CHANNELS

"I believe that in our method of synchronization we have the only perfect means of radically reducing the number of channels now being utilized by the major networks," said Herbert V. Akerberg, chief engineer of WAIU, who arranged the tests, "and that it will greatly aid the present station elimination tangle in materially reducing the station congestion being experienced now."

GENEVA FAVORS NEW PACT PLAN

League Committee Adopts World-Peace Treaty

So-called Model Fashioned at German Behest

Draft Devised for Purpose of Outlawing War

GENEVA, July 4. (AP)—As the result of Germany's initiative a model treaty for strengthening the means of preventing war was adopted tonight by the League of Nations committee on security and arbitration. The committee adjourned after voting to send the results of its work to all governments in preparation for a general discussion at the September assembly of the League.

The German-inspired treaty, as well as other model conventions touching on security and nonaggression which were adopted yesterday, were drafted with the hope that they will hasten disarmament and the committee's action means that the assembly of the League will decide when and how further attempts will be made to bring about a general conference on the subject of reduction of armaments.

The idea is to induce all states to sign the model treaty. The essence of the so-called German treaty is that the nations will bind themselves in advance to accept the recommendations of the League Council in the case of a threat of war and to refrain from measures liable to aggravate the dispute. Its object is the same as that of the proposed Kellogg pact, namely, the outlawry of war.

A project to establish a scheme of financial assistance for countries victims of aggression was sent to the Assembly to be put in permanent form.

ASSERTED BURGLAR CAPTURED BY WOMAN

SAN JOSE, July 4. (AP)—Mrs. Emma E. Jacobs, wife of the proprietor of the Gum Tree Service Station on the Oakland Highway north of here, captured an asserted burglar this morning. Before daylight she heard some one in the filling station. She took a gun and found a young man there. She held him until police arrived. The man gave his name as Phil Warren. He was placed in jail.

CROWD WAITS IN VAIN FOR HEFLIN

Senator Fails to Address Jamaica, N.Y., Gathering

About 1500 Klansmen Meet, Many of Them Armed

Police, Emergency Wagon and Tear Bombs Ready

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—Elaborate preparations were made by members of the Ku Klux Klan today to insure protection to Senator Heflin of Alabama, who was to address a Klan meeting at Jamaica, but he failed to arrive or to notify the Klansmen that he was not coming.

Early this morning an estimated crowd of 1500 Klansmen gathered in a forty-acre field, many of them armed with pistols, clubs and sabers, which they said were for use in protecting the southern Senator from persons who had sent many threatening letters.

Police reported that nothing could be done about the show of firearms as all the men with guns were deputy sheriffs or had obtained permits to carry pistols from justices of the peace.

Klan leaders announced that they had leased the field and would permit no trespassing by police, but all day about 200 policemen waited at the edge of the field in case they should be needed. An emergency wagon also was on hand with riot guns and tear-gas bombs.

The time was taken up with various ceremonies and it was not until late afternoon that word was received that Senator Heflin was in Toledo and had decided not to attend the meeting. Hhis tardy declination was the second from prominent persons invited to address the gathering. Last week, Gov. Smith, against whom Senator Heflin has launched numerous attacks in public addresses, was asked to be a speaker, but he immediately declined, saying he already had two speaking engagements for the day and that was enough.

HEFLIN DENIES HAVING BEEN BOOKED AT JAMAICA

JACKSON (Miss.) July 4. (AP)—Senator Heflin expressed surprise tonight when he learned that a large gathering of Ku Klux Klansmen had turned out at Jamaica, N. Y., today in the belief he was to speak there. The Senator, who addressed a similar meeting here today, declared he had not been booked for a Jamaica address

"I was booked to appear in Jackson two weeks ago and am at a loss to explain the affair," the Senator said. "I recall having received an invitation to appear today at Jamaica while I was in Albany, N. Y., recently. I told the official who extended the invitation that I was unable to accept as I was booked for Jackson on that date. I had received several other invitations for July 4 addresses, but likewise declined owing to the previous local engagement."

Noted Catholic Prelate Passes

SALISBURY (Eng.) July 4. (AP)—Very Reverend Monsignor Count Francis Bickerstaffe-Drew, Roman Catholic prelate, died here today.

Msgr. Bickerstaffe-Drew, who was born in 1858, was ordained in 1884 and served as chaplain in the British army for many years. He served in the European war in 1914 and 1915 and was mentioned in dispatches. He was assistant principal Roman Catholic chaplain in 1918.

He was private chamberlain of His Holiness, Pope Leo XIII, in 1891, private chamberlain of Pope Pius X in 1903, a member of the pontifical chamber of Malta since 1900 and was made knight of the sacred military Order of the Holy Sepulchre and a Count in 1909.

He held honored degrees from the University of Notre Dame and Marquette University.

GANG CHIEFTAIN WILL HAVE FUNERAL FIT FOR PHARAOH

NEW YORK, July 4. (Exclusive) While detectives stumbled about aimlessly in the fresh welter of outlawry that has burst over New York this week, friends of Frankie Yale or Uale, slain gang chieftain, were busy today preparing a funeral fit for a Pharaoh.

Yale, who became the "Scarface Al" Capone of Brooklyn, will return to dust tomorrow morning amid pomp, mountains of flowers, and the lavish extravagance he loved.

Followers of Yale were openly boasting tonight they intend to outdo the funeral of Dion O'Banion, the Chicago florist "killer" for whose murder Yale himself was held for a time in 1926. O'Banion's elaborate funeral set a record for such ceremonies among gangsters—ceremonies dear to the hearts of the gunning sentimentalists.

As a result the civic pride of Brooklyn gangland is spurred to something even more magnificent. O'Banion had a $10,000 coffin. Frankie Yale's coffin, similarly of silver, but with added decorations, cost nearly $15,000. O'Banion was buried under $25,000 worth of flowers. Yale's mourners already have engaged thirty automobiles to carry floral offerings alone tomorrow morning.

The funeral will be a true gangland holiday. From speakeasies and ornate gambling houses, furtive-eyed men will slip to fill a total of about 250 automobiles. The enormous cortege will roll from the Boyertown funeral parlors in Brooklyn over a circuitous route already formally announced, to the Holy Cross Cemetery.

PRESIDENT HAS 56TH BIRTHDAY

lake under the overhanging bows of the enormous trees, casting his flies now here, now there, according to where jumping trout caused ripples on the water.

Rob Roy, the white collie and Mr. Coolidge's favorite among the White House dogs, had jumped into the canoe as Larock was pushing it away from the lodge's landing. The dog was now barking and rocking the canoe and leaning over the edge in an effort to lap the pool's water. Mr. Coolidge took no notice until he realized that no fish could be caught with so much commotion. A single "quiet" from the Chief Executive was enough to make Rob Roy subside in the bottom of the canoe.

PLENTY OF PATIENCE

Mr. Coolidge continued to cast his line with wide sweeps of his arm. Larock maneuvered the canoe silently to where the trout seemed breaking with greatest frequency but still with no success. Mr. Coolidge tried the other of the two rods he had with him, conferred with his guide and patiently kept trying.

Suddenly the line tautened. Mr. Coolidge started reeling in his line sharply with vigorous splashes at the other end of it. The splashes approached the canoe and just as Larock leaned forward with a net to bring the catch on board the commotion in the water doubled. Mr. Coolidge reeled his line in with doubled energy and the net brought in two fish on the single line.

One of these was caught on the black gnat fly attached to the line's dropper and the other has snapped at the royal coachman fly attached to the end of the line.

PRESIDENT CHEERED

Mr. Coolidge waved his excitement. He held up the biggest of the fish, a large three and one-half pound rainbow trout. Larock was all smiles and the onlookers cheered.

The President stretched his line and cast again. A streak of luck had begun, for within a few minutes, a trout struck and a third fish was brought out of the water. Mr. Coolidge did nothing to hide his jubilation.

Rob Roy, noticing the excitement, began his antics again, only to be restrained by his master.

Two more trout were brought in in the course of the next few minutes.

"That's enough," said Mr. Coolidge. "Let us go back."

HOME AGAIN

Mrs. Coolidge was picking flowers from the beds about the lodge when the long procession of canoes finished winding their way back along the thickly wooded water line to the lodge. John Coolidge, wearing a red sports coat and laced high boots, was watching his mother, who was wearing her usual white costume.

They both came forward to meet Mr. Coolidge and asked what luck he had had. He waved in triumph to the box where the fish were and tilted his ten-gallon hat from his forehead as he watched their interest.

The reporters and photographers got ready to leave, thinking the visit over. "Where is the cake?" Mr. Coolidge said suddenly. A huge seventeen-pound birthday cake with frosted sides bearing fifty-six candles was brought out from the house and set on a table on the lawn. "We need some plates," added Mr. Coolidge, "and a knife."

CAKE IS CUT

Holding John's arm and laughing merrily, Mrs. Coolidge watched all preparations. A huge kitchen knife was brought out and handed to President Coolidge. He hesitated where to cut, and Mrs. Coolidge showed him. He tried, gingerly at first, then with more confidence, placing each slice on a plate. These were handed round.

"What about some cigars?" Mr. Coolidge said, waving to his son to get them. In a few moments all bystanders were puffing away.

Rob Roy suddenly bounded round the corner of the house. He sniffed at the cake then rose on his hind legs and rested his front paws on Mr. Coolidge's hip.

"Well," said Mr. Coolidge, "what do you want? birthday cake is not for dogs."

He nevertheless relented and cut a generous piece for the collie.

PHOTOGRAPHED WITH FISH

Mr. Coolidge went back once more and examined his morning's catch. He took his biggest trout and was photographed with it, explaining to the bystanders how he had caught it. He weighed it and kept at bay Rob Roy who was barking and snapping at it.

The sun became very hot and Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge and John retired to a shady spot under the trees. He was asked a question about his ten-gallon hat.

"Senator Kendrick gave me this over two years ago," Mr. Coolidge said. "It is meant for Wyoming, but I find it suitable to keep off the sun and rain anywhere."

The occasion was finally celebrated by a group picture of Mr. Coolidge with his guests.

NO OTHER GUESTS

No other guests came to the lodge today. It was the quietest birthday Mr. Coolidge has spent in years. Hundreds of telegrams of congratulations and greetings, however, reached the summer White House, but Mr. Coolidge did not go over them today.

Appreciation for the excellence of the cake, however, was conveyed to Mrs. F. L. Cowen of Duluth, who offered it. Seventy-eight eggs, nine pounds of sugar and six pounds of cake flour had gone into it.

President Coolidge hearing that Gov. Zimmermann of Wisconsin was in Superior for the Fourth of July celebrations, invited him to spend tomorrow at Cedar Island Lodge.

MOTHER AND GIRL DROWN

REEDSPORT (Or.) July 4. (AP)—Mrs. A. Yokley of Albany, Or., and her daughter, Pauline, 5 years of age, were drowned at 11 o'clock last night when their automobile plunged from the highway and sank in four feet of water in the Umpqua River near here. The woman's husband was rescued by two men who heard the crash.

YOUTH ON PICNIC DROWNS

Dive Into Cool Water After Hot Ride Believed Cause of Fatal Accident Near Friant

FRESNO, July 4.—A picnic party, composed of 175 members of the Sunday-schools of two West Fresno churches, which started early today under happy circumstances, turned to tragedy within a few minutes after the arrival of the motor caravan at Friant on the San Joaquin River, when Buster Berry, 17-year-old negro boy, one of the group, was drowned.

Diving into the chilled waters of the stream immediately upon arriving at the picnic grounds after a hot ride, the youth disappeared. He was not missed for several minutes, and a search of forty-five minutes was necessary before the body was recovered.

SHIFTING LOAD BRINGS DEATH TO TRUCKMAN

LINDSAY, July 4.—K. N. Nakamura, Japanese vegetable gardener, lies dead at the Webb undertaking parlor here as result of fatal injuries sustained yesterday afternoon when he lost control of his large truck. When a load of cantaloupes shifted the vehicle overturned on the Golden State highway a mile north of Tagus ranch. Nakamura's head was crushed by the heavy vehicle when he fell beneath the body of the truck as it hurtled into a ditch beside the highway.

S. Okzakis, riding with Nakamura, escaped with minor injuries. County traffic officers investigating the accident declared that Nakamura passed another machine and, in swinging back to the right side of the highway, evidently his load of cantaloupes shifted, overbalancing the machine, which lurched across the highway several times, skidded and overturned beside the road. Inquest will be conducted tomorrow morning.

The dogs were taken to the city pound and the owner to jail when Detective Sergeant McCreary and Patrolman Daniels found a small quantity of liquor in the house.

The raid was part of a series conducted by city, county and Federal enforcement agencies, which resulted in the arrest of ten persons and the seizure of a still and several kinds of liquor.

BLUEBEARD MAY ESCAPE GUILLOTINE

French Want to Lynch Asserted Murderer When Law is Understood

MARSEILLES (France) July 4. (AP)—An enraged Marseilles mob made an earnest attempt to lynch France's newest "Bluebeard," Jerome Prat, alias Pierre Rey, when he was landed here from the Algiers boat today.

Police had expected the mob and had taken their prisoner, who is charged with the strangling of three women and the disappearance of fifteen others, from the boat at Cheateau D' If. A small boat took him to a secluded quarter of the port but his identity became known there, too, and it was all the police could do to escort him safely to a cell at the Courthouse.

Today's demonstration is seen as the result of published reports that Prat may escape the guillotine inasmuch as French law decrees no one over the age of 60 may be so executed. A similar law will prevent his being transported to the Devil's Island prison and so, if convicted, he probably will spend the remaining years of his life in a relatively comfortable French jail cell.

Prat today refused to be frightened at the mob and grinned while police battered heads with sticks in an effort to save his life.

"Kill me right away, but leave me alone," is his imperturbable reply to police attempts to question him regarding his asserted murders.

War Victim Goes on Mad Rampage

SANTA ROSA, July 4. (AP)—A shell-shocked war veteran, Martin Cataleni, 30 years of age, was captured by police today after his house had been surrounded. He recently was released from the Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco and returned to his home here. Police said Cataleni attacked his father and brother-in-law with a knife, forcing them to flee.

Then he took a gun and fired at persons passing his residence. He left the house for a few minutes and was captured.

ITALIAN FLYING CHIEF AND TWO MEN BURNED

LOUVAIN QUIET FOR DEDICATION

Gibson Delivers Address at Library Ceremony

Rain of Leaflets from Planes Fails to Upset Calm

Whistling by Some in Crowd Given Scant Notice

LOUVAIN (Belgium) July 4. (AP)—While Hugh S. Gibson, United States Ambassador, was speaking at the dedication of the new Louvain University Library this afternoon airplanes dropped leaflets bearing the Latin inscription which has caused so much controversy.

From the audience itself could be heard shrill whistles, this being the popular medium of expression of displeasure at the entire proceeding. These incidents were hardly noticed and the dedication ceremony took place without interruption.

The inauguration of the new library, which is a replacement by [illegible] of an American gift of the [illegible] building destroyed by the German invasion of 1914, had a distinguished group as its witnesses, among them Prince Leopold and Princess Astrid, Cardinal Van Roy, members of the Diplomatic Corps, American engineers, representatives of Belgium and foreign universities and thousands of students and school children.

Ambassador Gibson in his address turned to the Louvain city authorities and said that he brought a message of heartfelt friendship and good will in the name of thousands of Americans unable to attend.

"For us the building is a pledge of lasting friendship for the Belgian people," Mr. Gibson said, "and for the great university it is a reminder of our love for Belgium and her incomparable spirit, of veneration for the heroic Cardinal Mercier and of admiration for the King and Queen, so steadfast and courageous in the majesty of their service and sacrifice."

FRANCE HONORS ESCADRILLE

Great Stone Monument to American War Heroes Dedicated as Ambassador Speaks

VAUCRESSON (France) July 4. (AP)—In memory of the fallen American heroes who flew for France in the Lafayette Escadrille a great stone monument was dedicated today on the edge of the Bois de St. Cloud. Fifty of the men who died eventually will lie in places prepared for them in the crypt of the triumphal arch which faces a quiet lake in the wooded spot whose trees and fields were made famous by the noted landscape painter, Corot. For a month American graves registration authorities have been moving the bodies from American military cemeteries and the work will soon be completed.

The valorous story of "these first defenders of our country's precious name" in the last war, as Ambassador Herrick described them, was told by him in introducing the French Minister of War, Paul Prudent Painleve. In 1917, then also Minister of War, M. Painleve welcomed Gen. Pershing to France.

Ambassador Herrick told how the first volunteers came to the Embassy at the outbreak of war, seeking his counsel, and how he read them the law on neutrals.

"But just then," he said, "looking into those glowing young faces, I was caught by the fierceness of their own emotions and forgetting all judicial calm I said, as I brought my fist down on the desk: 'That is the law, boys; but if I had your youth I know jolly well what I would do.' At this they set up a shout and dashed down the stairs."

Some of that group were among the organizers of the escadrille and the Ambassador gave the flyers and Americans in the famed Foreign Legion credit for showing the world Americans could fight, during the long months before the United States went into the war.

GERMANS JOIN IN FOURTH FETE

Independence Declaration of United States Read

Radio Carries Words to All Parts of Country

London Hears Suggestion of Joint Celebration

BERLIN, July 4. (AP)—Germany had its chance for the first time today to listen to a reading of the American Declaration of Independence over the radio. The document was read at noon at the American Church by Consul-General Hurst, the reading being followed by an Independence Day sermon in English by the pastor, Rev. Willard Strahl. Special music consisted of the benediction of MacDowell's piano concerto by Edward Weiss, American pianist, accompanied by the Berlin University academic orchestra.

Later the Arion Singing Society of Brooklyn sang patriotic American songs at Tretow Park, an entertainment in its honor by the Berlin Teachers' Glee Club and the Carl Schurz Society following.

Ambassador Schurman this afternoon gave a reception to all Americans residing in Berlin and environs, while this evening the American club gave a special Fourth of July dinner, at which the Ambassador and former Atty.-Gen. Wickersham were speakers.

ENGLISH TAKE PART IN DAY'S CELEBRATION

LONDON, July 4. (AP)—American residents and visitors to London to the number of 1300 celebrated the Fourth of July by a dinner at West End Hotel, which was attended by many persons prominent in commercial and political life. Under American and British flags and to the accompaniment of the English and American national anthems the speakers pledged the two countries to a lasting friendship.

That July Fourth should become an English as well as an American holiday was the suggestion of Irving T. Bush, New York financier. He said that both countries should honor the American Independence Day, because it had inaugurated a new conception of free government. Other speakers were Viscount Burnham, Lord Riddell and Sir John Simon.

Among the guests were Sir Sefton Brancker, British air marshal; Admiral Beattie, Lady Swaything, Viscountess Bryce and Consul-General Horace Lee Washington. After the dinner the English-Speaking Union entertained with a dance.

STATUE OF WILSON UNVEILED IN PRAGUE

PRAGUE (Czecho-Slovakia) July 4. (AP)—Czecho-Slovakia made July 4—which also is the tenth anniversary of its own independence—the occasion today for the dedication of a monument to a man to whom she holds herself debtor, Woodrow Wilson.

The monument is a life-like figure of the American war President in bronze on a massive Czech marble pedestal. The figure stands with arms outstretched in an heroic gesture, and beneath it is the inscription, "Woodrow Wilson, 1918-1928."

It is the work of the Czech sculptor, Albin Palashek, and is the gift to Prague from patriotic citizens in the United States.

An impressive dedicatory service attended the unveiling. The entire Cabinet, presidents of both houses of Parliament, church dignitaries and the entire personnel of the American Legation were present.

PEACE MOVE CREDITED TO GOV. CHANG

Mukden Governor Shifts Men Beyond Great Wall; Unification Urged

PEKING, July 4. (AP) — Foreign Consular reports from Mukden today said Chang Hsueh-Liang, military Governor of Mukden, has sent a circular telegram to Nationalist leaders announcing that he voluntarily is withdrawing his armies to the north of the great wall. He asserted this is a peaceful gesture.

Chang urged the Nationalists to convoke at an early date a national people's conference in which Manchurian representatives should be included to unify China.

The telegram did not mention the acceptance of the Kuomintang flag or the principles of Sun Yat Sen, which the Nankin Nationalists are demanding. But is was interpreted as preliminary to negotiations for unification.

Chang also is sending peace envoys to Peking to confer with Chiang Kai-Shek.

Consul Foresees Mexico Progress

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4. (Exclusive)—Confident that Mexico will enter upon one of the most settled and progressive eras that the country has ever seen was expressed today by D. C. C. Macneill, British Consul at Colima, Mex., who arrived for a vacation.

"When the difficulties that have discouraged enterprises in Mexico are definitely settled, the country will continue the march of progress that started years ago," said Macneill. "I believe that President-elect Obregon is the man to iron out these difficulties and hasten the great development."

Macneill also paid tribute to the American Ambassador to Mexico, Dwight Morrow.

BROTHERS DROWNED SWIMMING IN TEXAS

HONDO (Tex.) July 4. (AP)—August Renken, 11 years of age, and Paul Renken, 9, sons of Paul Renken of Hondo, were drowned while swimming in Medina River here today.

Ship Train Crash Kills Conductor

CAEN (France) July 4. (AP)—The Berengaria boat train from Cherbourg crashed into a passenger train standing at the Caen station today.

No passengers were injured on the trans-Atlantic boat train, but on the other one the French conductor Hamel was struck and killed as he looked out of a car door, and several persons were injured.

The trans-Atlantic boat train carried third-class passengers from the Berengaria. It continued to Paris after an hour's delay.

Rescue Attempt Results in Death

STOCKTON, July 4. (AP)—Frank Jones, 54 years of age, of Oakland, was drowned in the San Joaquin River today in an attempt to save his 4-year-old grandson, Earl Aldrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aldrich, also of Oakland.

The child was rescued by the father, who also tried to save the grandfather, but was unable to get to shore. The authorities believe Jones, an expert swimmer, was seized with cramps.

SCIENCE FINDS NEW FOSSILS

Excavations in New Mexico Yield Trophies

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.) July 4. (Exclusive)—Excavations in Northern New Mexico near the headwaters of the Cimmaron River now under way are expected to reveal a historic civilization which existed 20,000 years ago. Barnum Brown, curator of the American Museum of Natural History, New York, made public here yesterday the first findings of the excavating party, of which he has charge. Fossils of eight bison of an extinct specie and seven spearheads unlike anything used by modern Indians have been unearthed in the first sixty feet excavated.

Mr. Brown pointed out that the spearheads are made of calcedony and paper and that the craftsmanship is equalled only by those excavated in Egypt. The scene of the exacavation is where 20,000 years ago an ancient lake was located, Mr. Brown believes. He bases the time on the accumulation of strata, which varies from four and one-half feet to thirteen feet.

Sandinists Strip German's Plant

MANAGUA (Nicaragua) July 4. (AP)—A German citizen, Enrique Gulcke, has laid a complaint which has reached United States marine brigade headquarters, of the plundering of his lumber plant in the Department of Jinotega by followers of Sandino.

Gulcke declares that the Sandinists carried off everything of value from his encampment at the mouth of the Poteca River and notified him that no lumber could be cut without special permission of Gen. Sandino. Gulcke asks for protection and guarantees.

Moors Capture Mail Aviator

CASABLANCA (Morocco) July 4. (AP)—The air mail aviator Reine is being held for a ransom by Moors on the coast of Morocco, it was announced here today. Reine, who left Dakar Saturday carrying South American mail for Paris, is reported safe.

Negotiations for his release have been started.

CHOICE OF BYNG UNDER ATTACK

Police Fight Gets Hearing in House of Commons

LONDON, July 4. (AP)—The government found itself involved in hot water today over the appointment of Lord Byng of Vimy to succeed Sir William Horwood as Commissioner of Metropolitan Police.

Home Secretary Sir William Joynson-Hicks was heckled severely in the House of Commons by Labor members who refused to accept his assurance that the change in the commissionership had nothing to do with the recent serious charges against the police in connection with the Irene Savidge case. Sir William, in announcing the appointment to Parliament employed the unusual phrase that Lord Byng in accepting the post had responded to "the stern call of duty."

Not only the Labor members of Parliament but responsible newspapers are chafing at the appointment of a man 65 years of age, to such an important post in succession to a man of 60, retiring at a pensionable age.

The Labor party succeeded in inducing the government to set apart next Wednesday for a debate in the House of Commons on the subject.

So quickly served! Punch with orange or grape base—perhaps a dash of lemon for verve and pineapple for body . . . and the orange slices as cool and refreshing as the ice cubes themselves. Truly your Servel is a vital part of hospitality.

Illustrated above: Servel, Model H-5. Food capacity, 5 cubic feet. Dimensions: 56" high; 26¾" wide; 23½" deep. Makes 48 ice cubes.

SERVEL . . . and the modern Renaissance of Color and Convenience

We are on the crest of a great wave of change. More widespread, perhaps than the Renaissance. For the modern vogue of [illegible] does not stop with art, music and architecture. It has invaded the kitchen, with insistent demands for color and convenience.

The Modern Servel Meets Both Demands

Servel is modern in convenience. It is so compact that it can be slipped into the small kitchen without crowding. Yet its food storage space is surprisingly generous in dimensions.

And Servel is modern in color. New multitone color finishes, exclusive with Servel, have just been perfected. You have your choice of Biscay Blue, Silver Grey, Crystal Green, Ivory Tan or White—at no extra cost. One of these color effects will fit in perfectly with the color scheme of your own kitchen. See these new Servel finishes at our store . . . today . . . and decide which one best suits your own home.

Is the Home Any Better When Women Do Needless Work?

There is virtue in work—if it is useful. But the modern view admits of no benefit from needless effort. Household tasks—particularly those centered in the kitchen—should be made as easy and pleasant as possible. The Servel Electric Refrigerator is a distinct contribution to the modern vogue for color and convenience in the kitchen. See the modern Servel today . . . at our salesroom.

Why So Many Women Prefer Servel

Popular as these new color finishes are proving to be, the preference so many women frankly express for Servel goes below the surface. For the cabinets are unusually well built—of steel, with rounded corners, and insulated with generous layers of pressed corkboard. Gleaming white porcelain is used to line the food storage compartment. And the refrigerating unit itself is so quiet and reliable you forget that it is there. We want you to see the modern Servel . . . its pleasing lines, its solid construction—and its new, attractive colors. Why not come in today?

JUGO-SLAVIA'S CABINET QUITS

Broad Coalition Hoped for as Succeeding Ministry

Change Needed to Calm Ill Feeling After Shooting

Early Formation of Stable Government Imperative

BELGRADE (Jugo-Slavia) July 4. (AP)—After a fortnight's vain attempts to stem the rising tide of nationalist indignation that followed the recent shootings in Parliament, the Cabinet of Premier Vulkitchevitch resigned today.

It is hoped that it will be succeeded by a Cabinet of broad coalition, to include leaders of every shade of opinion, capable of calming the existing ill feeling. There were reports late today that the veteran radical leader at Zastanojevitch had accepted the mandate of King Alexander to form a new ministry and that he already had received promises of support from the majority of party leaders. His main difficulty, it was believed, would be with the Democrat and Peasant parties.

Political leaders consider the early formation of a stable ministry of the utmost importance, for the vital treaty of friendship between Jugo-Slavia and Italy expires July 27 and ratification of the no less important Nettuno convention, also with Italy, still hangs in the balance. One hopeful element in the situation is seen in the probability of the inclusion of a number of Croats in the coalition ministry, which may pave the way at last for something like real unit between the Croats and the Slovenes.

The Vulkitchevitch government in resigning admitted the necessity of a coalition that would unite all elements of the country and smooth away the bitter feeling of the last few weeks. It disclaimed the idea, however, that its retirement was in any way an admission of responsibility for the parliamentary disorders in which Stefan Raditch, Croatian peasant leader, was wounded, and his nephew, Paul Raditch, was killed by a government defender.

Fire Crackers Repel Mormons

PROVINCETOWN (Mass.) July 4. (Exclusive)—Efforts of six Mormon missionaries to lay the groundwork for founding a Mormon church in Provincetown, first landing place of Pilgrim Fathers, went for naught when July 4 celebrants laid down a barrage of cannon crackers, shattering the speaking program in front of Town Hall and compelling the speakers to make a quiet, discreet retreat after leaving one pamphlet behind.

Elder Mitchell, leader of the group, said the Mormon church is seeking to become established on the Cape. The speakers stood by their guns until their voices were drowned out by the increasing barrage. They walked away, leaving a pamphlet with a listener, who stood by to the bitter end.

HONOLULU WILL FETE "DOWN UNDER" FLYERS

HONOLULU, July 4. (AP)—A community luncheon is planned for Friday in honor of Harry W. Lyon and James Warner, both of San Francisco, navigator and radio operator, respectively, of the monoplane Southern Cross during its flight from Oakland to Sydney, Australia, recently. A reception committee is to meet the steamer Sonoma when it arrives at Honolulu and invite the flyers to be guests of the city for the few hours they will stop over here.

HETCH HETCHY STORM BREAKS

Mather Holds Out for Rights of Public Use of Lake

San Francisco Vows Attack on Raker Act

Bay City Indignant Over Pollution of Water

YOSEMITE, July 4. (Exclusive)—Bitter words, threats and defis flew here today between San Francisco Supervisors and representatives of the United States government in what was intended to be a peaceable discussion of the Hetch-Hetchy watershed problem.

Stephen T. Mather, Superintendent of National Parks, brought the meeting to a climax after a long and heated discussion when he declared San Francisco will never get "pure" mountain water from the Hetch-Hetchy watershed because the National Park Service intends to throw the entire area open to campers, fishers, hunters and motorists who care to take advantage of it. The waters, he said, "will, of course, be polluted and San Francisco will be compelled to filter and chlorinate. There is no such thing as pure mountain water."

WILL SEEK AMENDMENT

San Francisco Supervisors and health officials immediately replied that San Francisco will go to Congress if necessary for an amendment to the Raker Act, "that will prevent this diabolical attempt of the National Park Service to pollute San Francisco's water."

Dr. Alexander S. Keenan of the San Francisco Board of Health followed with an assertion that he will appeal to the city and State boards of health for measures designed to protect the purity of the water flow.

The conference was considering the road-building program for the watershed, under the terms of the Raker Act, and whose provisions have brought differences of opinion between San Francisco and the national park service.

Prefacing his remarks with the statement that the road-construction program called for by the Raker Act, as interpreted by the park service, will entail a cost of "less than $2,000,000" Superintendent Mather declared:

"San Francisco cannot fence off Hetch-Hetchy Lake at the Spring Valley lakes are fenced off; we will not permit it. We want boats and camps on that lake. San Francisco must allow it. The Raker Act makes that plain. If the water is polluted San Francisco can build the filter, as the Raker Act demands."

MUST FILTER WATER

Dr. Keenan immediately demanded:

"Do you mean to say that the Federal government wants San Francisco to build a lot of roads so people can go to the lake and pollute our water, endangering the lives of 750,000 persons?"

Supt. Mather and Horace M. Albright, his assistant, assured him that is what the situation amounts to if he wishes to interpret it in that light, adding:

"It's up to San Francisco to filter and chlorinate the water."

Dr. Keenan said he had never heard of such tactics and then announced he would appeal to health authorities.

At this point, Supervisor Roncovieri shouted that San Francisco would go to Congress for an amendment to the Raker Act, to which Mather replied:

"The Raker Act will never be amended. Congressman Cramton (Michigan) will protect the interests of the people in Hetch-Hetchy."

"What about the people of San Francisco?" asked Supervisor Havenner.

"The provisions of the Raker Act are specific and final," replied Mather. "They never will be changed."

SKETCHES REQUIREMENTS

He sketched again the things which San Francisco is expected to do in the area, including a new highway from Hetch-Hetchy to Lake Eleanor; a trail around Hetch Hetchy Lake; a highway from Canyon Ranch to Lake Harden to tie up with the Tioga Road, and reconstruction of the present highway from Mather to O'Shaughnessy Dam.

At the conclusion of the session, which had all the participants in an excited mood, Supervisor Havenner declared:

"This is the first time the national park officials have put their cards on the table. Contentions are made here that are all new to San Francisco. We did know about the roads—and on that I want to point out that Mather demands roads that even the government's own program will not hook up with for ten years; but this proposal to let people swim, fish and do anything they like in Hetch Hetchy Lake is so astonishing and unexpected that it seems incredible."

STAY FOR DISCUSSION

Mather, declaring the remarks were almost "adding insult to injury" continued that "such sanitary precautions and regulations as are enforced in Yosemite will be for the protection of the campers and employees of the park."

Although the San Francisco party had intended to continue on to Hetch Hetchy, the developments of the day prompted them to remain over for the night for further discussion.

Those present representing the government were Superintendent Mather, his assistant, Albright; E. C. Sotinsky, assistant superintendent of Yosemite; E. P. Levitt, acting superintendent, and J. V. Lloyd, information ranger.

The San Francisco visitors included Dr. Keenan, Joseph J. Phillips, right-of-way engineer, and Supervisors Shannon, Havenner, Todd, Schmidt, Powers, Hayden and Roncovieri.

HUNT RENEWS FIGHT ON DAM

Governor Demands "Rights of Arizona"

PHOENIX, July 4. (AP)—Basing the keynotes of his speech on the "Rights of Arizona" in connection with the Colorado River, and upon religious and civil freedom, Gov. Hunt this morning addressed the Independence Day celebration crowd at Buckeye. He urged that due to electricity being only on the threshold of its development, Arizona should "at all costs preserve its rights in the Colorado River and its possibilities for development of hydro-electric power."

"The great resources of the Colorado River must be available, in an equitable degree, to all of the States in the Colorado River basin," the Governor declared. "No State should be permitted, because of its wealth, power and prestige, to deprive other States of that to which they are entitled by nature and by every rule of law and equity.

"Arizona needs water to irrigate her lands. Arizona needs revenue from the power resources to help finance irrigation and her government. If we did not need the revenue we would have no controversy. Politics and religion are of relatively small importance in the solution of this problem."

UPKEEP OF AUTOS DECLARED TO AVERAGE DOLLAR EACH DAY

CHICAGO, July 4. (AP)—One dollar a day—$365 a year—is what the average automobile cost the average American motorist in 1927.

At least that is what figures compiled by the American Motorists' Association reveal.

The operation and maintenance of his car cost each motorist $229 while the depreciation was figured at $136. The depreciation was based on the seven-year life expectancy of a passenger automobile and the average retail price of $953 for the year.

Fuel and lubricants represented 44 per cent of the operation bill of $101. The mechanics charged $47 for their time, while replacements parts totaled $41 and the tire bill was $40.

Shipping Board Decides Details of Mail Routes

WASHINGTON, July 4. (AP)—The Shipping Board today certified to Postmaster-General New conditions and specifications governing the awarding of ocean-mail contracts on thirteen routes recently selected by the Postoffice Department.

These routes cover lines operating from Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf ports to Central and South America, Asiatic West African, Scandinavian West Indian, Canadian, East Indian and Philippine ports.

With the certification of these lines, the total certified is twenty, bids already having been asked on five routes. These bids will be received next Monday. Two other certified routes with termini on the Pacific Coast have not been advertised.

Under the Jones-White shipping law, the Postoffice Department is required to designate essential ocean-mail routes and then certify them to the Shipping Board for decision as to the type of equipment needed on the lines. After the decision is made, the Shipping Board notifies the Postoffice Department of the service available, and the latter advertises for bids.

VALUATION OF PHOENIX INCREASES IN SURVEY

PHOENIX, July 4. (AP)—An increase of $19,788,530 in the assessed valuation of real estate in the thirty-four subdivisions comprising the city of Phoenix, as a result of the first reassessment survey made, was reported yesterday to City Manager Griggs.

RUSSIA BUYING WHEAT HEAVILY

Scarcity of Food Indicated by Baltic Trading

LONDON, July 4. (AP)—Huge purchases of wheat on the Baltic exchange by soviet Russia are reported in London, traders here expressing the opinion that the movement indicates a severe scarcity of food in Russia.

The quantity purchased in Liverpool for spot cash amounts to between 150,000 to 200,000 tons, and Baltic-London brokers expect Russia to buy almost as large a quantity again.

The prices agreed to without negotiations thus far have been uniformly as much as 30 cents a quarter above the market rate, which is felt to indicate a tremendous immediate demand for grain. The market today was steady, owing to a sudden stoppage of demand on reports of a good Canadian crop and early selling of American winter wheat.

London brokers say they have reports of long bread queues and a painful shortage of food in Russia, which before the war was one of the world's largest exporters of grain. Russia has not bought such supplies of wheat since the winter of 1919-1920.

To Banks, Insurance Companies, and Other Investing Institutions

To meet the need of institutions and many individuals for a convenient form of investment combining the highest possible degree of protection with adequate yield, the Mortgage Guarantee Company some years ago originated in California its Insured First Mortgage Certificates which have since attained national recognition as an investment of outstanding merit for institutional funds.

Utmost Protection

Not content with the fact that institutional investors had found that first liens on conservatively appraised improved real estate produced a greater income than any other form of investment of comparable safety, the founders of the Mortgage Guarantee Company determined to provide a still higher form of protection than any type of security alone could give. The result of this resolution was the passage of the Mortgage Insurance Act of California in 1913—unquestionably one of the most effective pieces of legislation ever enacted for the protection of Mortgage investors.

Under this act, all appraisals are made by State-approved appraisers, and filed with the State Banking and Insurance Departments. All appraisals are made on a very conservative basis, after a careful survey of all surrounding conditions and contingencies; and under no circumstances can loans exceed 50% of the values thus established.

In addition to this wide margin of security, the loans are insured by this Company as to both principal and interest.

Real Insurance

Investment insurance should be judged by the same standards as other forms of insurance, namely, by the character and strength of the issuing companies. In this connection attention is invited to the record and personnel of the Mortgage Guarantee Company—one of the foremost institutions of its kind in the United States—and to its financial strength as indicated by capital, surplus and undivided profit of more than $7,000,000 and resources of more than $68,000,000.

Widely Purchased

First-lien investments originated and insured by this Company are purchased throughout the United States by banks, insurance companies, trustees, executors, guardians, and private investors whose purchases are restricted to securities of the very highest order; and it is significant that the holdings of 15 insurance companies average more than $1,000,000 each, while the holdings of more than 80 banks average over $100,000 each. Holdings of over 4000 individual investors average approximately $6000.

For Both Institutions And Individuals

Insured First Mortgage Certificates of this Company are issued in denominations of $100 and multiples thereof, and offer the same advantages and conveniences to small investors as to institutions.

They are legal investments for National, State and Savings Banks, Trust and Insurance Companies and other institutions whose investments are restricted by law. These Certificates are also eligible for deposit with the State Treasurer to guarantee the faithful performance of trusts.

They are exempt from all California taxes.

They are issued in registerable form and interest is paid by the check of the Company promptly on due dates, either quarterly or semiannually as the buyer may prefer; hence there are no coupons to clip. Moreover, the holders of these Certificates are entirely free from the cares and responsibilities (such as the collection of interest, supervision of the pledged property, etc.) which are necessarily assumed by the holder of individual mortgages. They are also free from the worries of market fluctuations and the uncertainties of dividends or interest payments which constantly concern the holders of speculative securities.

Yield

Experienced investors know also that the returns from these Certificates are greater than can be obtained from any other form of investment which provides a similar degree of protection against any loss of either principal or interest. Following are the maturities and yields:

One-Year Maturities	5%
Two-Year Maturities	5%
Three-Year Maturities	5½%
Four-Year Maturities	5½%
Five-Year Maturities	5½%

A booklet fully descriptive of these Insured First Mortgage Certificates will be mailed upon request. Simply telephone TRinity 0831 or use the coupon.

American Ace Loses Five-Set Match

Wills Victorious Over Elizabeth Ryan

of 15,000 Britons Sees Wimbledon Event

BY FRANK H. KING
Press Staff Writer

LEDON, July 4. (AP)—By the that youth usually holds in Rene La Coste of France checked the comeback of the veteran American ace, "Big Bill" Tilden, today in one of the greatest tennis battles waged in many a year on Wimbledon's historic turf.

On the American Independence Day the two sons of the ancient allies, France and the United States, it out before a neutral gal- of 15,000 Britons with 5000 clamoring outside at gates and guarded by battalions bobbies. At the end of sensational duel the tall, game Tilden passed from the pionship singles in the semi- as he did a year ago.

The American had victory in grasp a year ago here his game collapsed utter- yielding to the su- steadiness of La Coste, stuck to his guns to win by 2-6, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4, 6-3.

for the fourth time in five there will be an all-French on England's historic turf crown that the Dohertys, Tilden and Johnston have to the rise of Borotra, and Cochet, who have the monoply since 1924. La

Hollywood Has 2-to-1 Lead in Series With Ducks

PORTLAND (Or.) July 4.—The Beavers got themselves into the second half percentage table today by winning the first game of the double - header, a wild and weird affair, from Hollywood, 13 to 9, but the Stars came back and won the second, 5 to 3. Bill Lane's team thus keeps a two-to-one edge on the series and holds its first-division position.

DICK McCABE.

After Tomlin had been mauled for two runs and Shellenback for three in the first game, the Beavers kept adding one at a time until it stood 5 to 2 in the sixth. Then suddenly Hollywood put on a six-run outburst off Tomlin and French, the latter being unable to get a man out after relieving Tomlin. Portland came back with two, making it 8 to 7 for Hollywood, then broke entirely loose in the seventh in a crazy razzle dazzle of hits, errors and walks with the bases full.

This big inning gave the Beavers six runs at the expense of Shellenback, Kinney, Murphy and Mulcahy. Two were on with one out when Shellenback retired. Two hits followed off Kinney, who then walked

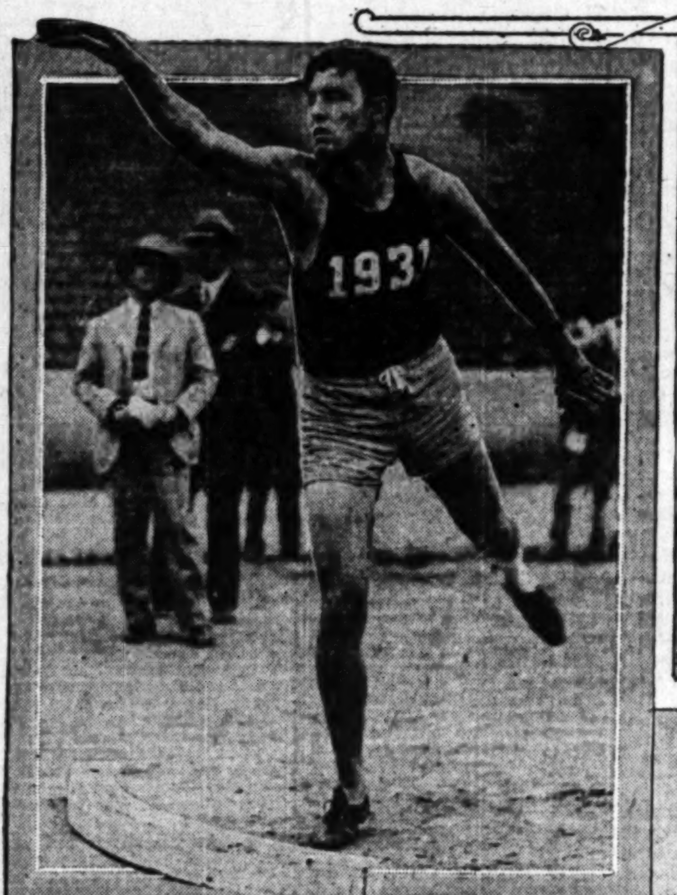
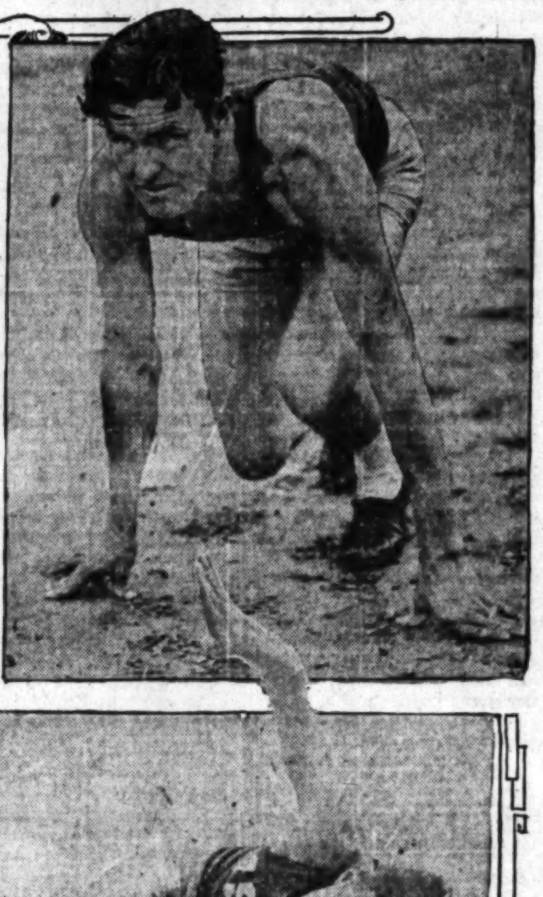
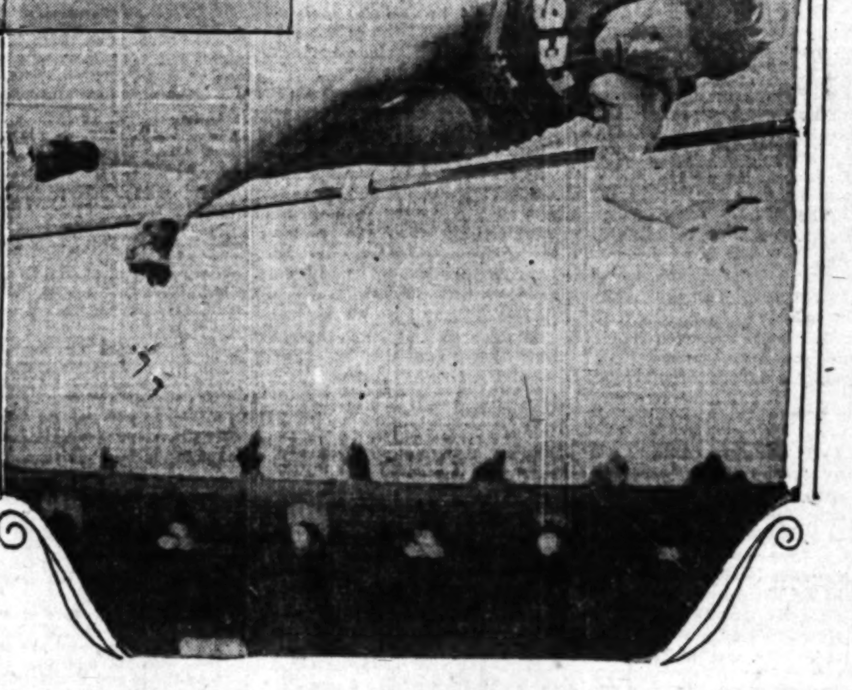
TROJAN GIANT SEWS UP THE ALL-AROUND TITLE

With three events to be run off big Jim Stewart of the University of Southern California appears to have the all-around championship nailed to the mast. When a rainstorm halted the festivities at Philadelphia yesterday Stewart was leading. Three events, including the javelin, pole vault and 1500 meters, will conclude the competition today, the officials having postponed everything until noon today. The photos below by George Watson, Times staff photographer, show Stewart in various poses. At the left he is tossing the sixteen-pound shot, the high-jump pictures shows him in one of his favorite specialties while at the right he is crouched on his marks.







RAY SCHALK THROUGH AS SOX LEADER

Veteran Backstop Quits Job as Chicago Manager in Sudden Manner

CHICAGO, July 4. (AP)—Ray Schalk today joined the long procession of those who have managed the Chicago White Sox.

RAY SCHALK

Before today's double - header with the St. Louis Browns he advised Charles Comiskey, the club president, that he was through. Schalk explained that the team was being built around young men, and for the good of the organization he believed another manager should be named.

Lena Blackburne, veteran infielder, an assistant coach under Schalk, temporarily was named manager.

Schalk succeeded Eddie Collins as manager of the team last year. His team finished the season in fifth place. When the Sox went south to train last winter the South Side fans were optimistic that the team would be in the race this year. Until a few days ago it was in the cellar. Now it is seventh.

After returning to the ranks Schalk went out to catch young Ed Walsh, son of the veteran White Sox pitcher, in his major-league debut. Schalk was one time a battery mate of the youth's father. Young Ed was graduated from Notre Dame last month.

Schalk, the oldest American League catcher in point of service, has been with the Sox since 1912. He came to Chicago from Milwaukee of the American Association.

Morgan Will Defend Title in Bout Today

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—In a fifteen-round bout postponed from today because of Promoter Humbert Fugazy's objections to staging a show on a holiday, Tod Morgan of Seattle will defend his junior lightweight championship against Eddie "Cannonball" Martin of New York tomorrow. The match will be at Ebbetts Field.

KRUG'S FORCES LOOK TERRIBLE

Keating Blanks Home Guard With Three Safeties

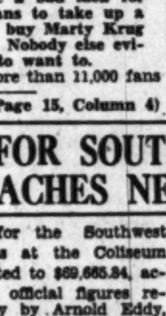
Sheely and Schulmerich Hit Homers With Bags Full

BY BOB RAY

Marty Krug's sinking Seraphs gave a very unpatriotic exhibition of how to spend the Fourth of July yesterday at Wrigley Field where they dropped a couple of highly uninteresting struggles to the snappy Solons from Sacramento. The Angels were outslugged, 11 to 7, in the opener and were then subjected to a 3-to-0 white washing by Ray Keating in the nightcap.



However, it wasn't so much that the Seraphs lost both games as it was the way they looked while losing. The Krugmen looked like a cinch to wind up in the cellar and if that's a nice way to start the second half we'll put in with you. All of which brings up the idea that it wouldn't be a bad idea for loyal Angel fans to take up a collection and buy Marty Krug some players. Nobody else evidently seems to want to.

Spencer, Maxwell Qualify With Dazzling Times

BY BILL HENRY
"Times" Staff Representative

AFLOAT ON THE SESQUI STADIUM, PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) July 4.—Providing all hands don't get drowned in the downpour that is now flooding Philadelphia's concrete soup tureen, it looks as though the decathlon contestants will gather together at Franklin Field tomorrow and settle the argument which started yesterday and got rained out today. You can say what you like about Philadelphia's ability to do some things, but they certainly do know how to put on a rain in this town.

BILL HENRY

Jupiter Pluvius ruined one of the swellest little old track meets that this town has ever seen this afternoon. As a net result of the afternoon's work Bud Spencer of Stanford is on the Olympic squad through a 48-second quarter, Bob Maxwell of the L.A.A.C. is on by means of a 53 flat flights over the 400-meter hurdles, which won him fourth place; Kenny Grumbles has a fighting chance of being named as a 400-meter alternate and Jim Stewart, Jess Mortenson and Al Lefebvre are in the decathlon running.

GATE FOR SOUTHWEST TRIALS REACHES NEAR $70,000 MARK

The "gate" for the Southwest Olympic tryouts at the Coliseum June 16 amounted to $69,665.84, according to the official figures released yesterday by Arnold Eddy, secretary-treasurer of the Southern Pacific branch of the A.A.U.

Of this amount $41,134.99 was paid to the American Olympic committee on Los Angeles' quota. In round numbers it cost $23,000 to stage the meet, including disbursements for programs, publicity, general expense, show expense and exploitation committee. A total of $7625 of this came back in the shape of receipts from sale of programs.

The largest single item of expense was $10,560.64, labeled "general expense" in the financial statement.

The figures were turned over to Eddy by Bob Weaver before the latter left for Boston last Sunday night and no explanation of this rather large item for running off a meet in which even the officials were asked to buy their own tickets is given.

As head of the Southern California American Olympic Committee

RAY KEECH WINNER IN SALEM AUTO CLASSIC

SALEM (N. H.) July 4.—Ray Keech, holder of the world record for the straightaway mile, won the annual Independence Day sweepstakes auto race at Rockingham today before a crowd of 15,000. Thunderstorms held up the race for three quarters of an hour and the run was cut from 200 miles to 185 after the drivers took the track again.

Lou Myer, winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile race, finished second, little more than two seconds behind Keech after flirting with death all the afternoon. On the next to the last lap Myer lost control of his machine coming into the stretch, spun around like a top, shot into the dirt, righted his car and lit off after Keech again after a fleeting glance at his tires. Earlier in the race he blew a tire and slid all over the track before regaining control.

Keech's official time was 1h. 30m. 26⅘s. The officials appeared more or less muddled on other place winners and at 10 o'clock tonight started a recheck. The consensus seemed to be that Norman Batten finished third, Bill Spence fourth, Dave Evans fifth, Leon Duray sixth, Earl Devore seventh, Ben McDonough eighth and Fred Comer ninth. Mishaps forced out the other four starters.

Van Ryn Wins from Jap Star; Gains Right to Meet Gorchakoff Today

GLENCOVE (L. I.) July 4.—The annual Nassau invitational tennis tournament narrowed down to eight net stars, who survived today's third-round contests.

John Van Ryan, seeded No. 1, made his entry into the quarter-finals by a brilliant victory over Teiza Toba, Japanese cup leader, 6-3, 6-2.

Van Ryn faces Ben Gorchakoff, national intercollegiate finalist, tomorrow. Gorchakoff eliminated Louis Thalheimer of Texas yesterday to gain his position in the same half-bracket.

Fritz Mercur, Bethlehem, Pa., who today defeated Watson M. Washburn, New York, former Davis Cup star of America, will cross rackets with Harris Coggeshall, Iowa. Mercur defeated Washburn in two sets of 6-2, 6-4, while Coggeshall eliminated Ned Hernandon, New York, 6-2, 6-3.

Elmer Griffin, former Californian and now of New York, came near scoring an upset when he carried William Aydelotte, national indoor champion, to three sets, losing at 3-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Southern California Junior Championship Golf Tourney Starts at Bel-Air Cl

SOUTHLAND YOUNGSTERS IN FIRST ROUND TODAY

Charley Seaver, Defending Champ, Faces Stiff Battle From Strong Field of Boy Players

BY FRANK ROCHE

Flaming youth steps into the spotlight in Southland golfing circles this morning at the Bel-Air Country Club, where more than 100 young links stars will tee off in the qualifying round of the Southern California Golf Association's junior championship tournament. Charley Seaver, defending titlist, enters the play today a heavy favorite to repeat his triumph of last season. Seaver was runner-up to Fay Coleman in the Southern California amateur championship and at the present writing is playing the best golf of his short but successful career.

CHARLES SEAVER

Seaver's opposition this year will be even keener than last, Southland golf experts point out. Despite this they all agree that Seaver should have little trouble repeating his victory if he maintains the same even pace that he has displayed in recent tournaments. Last Sunday, paired with his Dad, Everett Seaver, Charley helped cop "the father and son" championship at the Oakmont Country Club. The next day he set a new course record at Sunset Fields.

Foremost among Seaver's rivals in the tourney is young Danny Sangster, Los Angeles High School star. Last year Seaver defeated Sangster in the play-off of the tournament that starts today over the picturesque Bel-Air course. Charley will have a decided edge over Danny, the critics declare, due to his tournament experience during the past year. Sangster, because of his age, was barred from many of the events which Seaver played in. Danny is 16 and the champion is 17.

There are a number of dark horses among the boys who will rap the white pill around at Bel-Air today.

Jack Mackey, 16-year-old links shark from the Los Angeles Country Club, appears to be in that class. Young Mackey is an up and coming player and he might upset the dope bucket if he gets going on one of his pay streaks. Mackey rates at a six handicap at the present time.

The medal play will be over the eighteen-hole route. The match play begins tomorrow and will continue until Sunday when the championship round will be staged. With the exception of the championship flight the rest of the play will be on a handicap basis. The starting list for the morning round was announced as follows:

MORNING STARTING TIMES

8:30 a.m.—Roscoe Lyda, 12, San Bernardino; Edwin Lyda, 12, San Bernardino.
9:00—J. F. Miner, 24, Wilshire; Cope Norcross, 24, Bel-Air.
9:05—Bert Honey, 12, L.A.A.C.; Henry Mortimer, 14, L.A.A.C.

Weller Noble was third and Dr. L. W. Ellis finished in fourth position. More than eighty-four entries teed off to start the tourney.

THRANE TAKES RANCHO FLAG TOURNAMENT

H. C. Thrane won the flag tournament held at the Rancho Golf Club yesterday shooting an 86-16. Leon Keller pulled into second place, going around in 72-2. Paul Jones and R. H. Lyons tied for third-place honors, Jones shooting a 74-4, while Lyons's score was 92-22.

EDDY NUNN LECTURES ON GOLF OVER RADIO

Eddy Nunn, Whitley Park Country Club golf instructor, is giving over his evenings to uplifting the duffers these days. Eddie is making a series of talks over the radio on "Golf Stroke Analysis." He will be on the air tomorrow night at 7:15.

CHARLES WYATT WINS LAKESIDE EVENT

Charles O. Wyatt won first place in the Lakeside Club flag tourney yesterday, finishing right in the eighteenth hole. Wyatt shot an 80-10-70. E. J. Schultz took second place, finishing two yards from the eighteenth cup. Schultz's score was 85-14-71. In third place was Huntley Gordon with an 82-8-74. Huntley was on the eighteenth tee.

E. F. BOGARDUS FIRST IN WESTWOOD PLAY

E. F. Bogardus copped the men's prize in the flag tournament yesterday at the Westwood course on the twentieth green with his ninety-second shot. Margaret McIsaac won the women's prize on the eighteenth green with her one hundred and third stroke. Over 200 golfers competed in the tourney.

STARS DIVIDE HOLIDAY BILL

Rego and had three balls on Baecht, the Portland pitcher. Murphy took the mound and finished the walk, forcing in a run. After Kerr's error on Boone's rap, Murphy hit Nixon and forced in another tally. Mulcahy took up the burden then, got one out on a pop fly, then walked Smith, forcing in still another run. He finally settled and struck out Keesey with the bases full—six runs all told.

Baecht, a fast-ball hurler, just imported from that dear Philadelphia, allowed but one run thereafter and Portland won easily.

In the second game the Beavers had the score 3 to 1 in their favor up to the sixth when Yerkes wobbled and walked Lee. Kerr singled and Twombly sacrificed them to third and second. Ernie Johnson juggled Boroja's slow hopper, the latter reaching first but Lee being held at third. Rehg popped out, but just when the side should have been retired on Heath's easy roller to Wuestling, the latter let the ball roll through him and the two tying runs came in.

McCabe was unhittable from then on, while Hollywood banged in one run off Ponder in the eighth on Boroja's single after Kerr had been hit by a pitched ball. Another crossed in the ninth on a walk to Heath, a sacrifice, Keesey's error and Lee's single.

Andy Mitchell Fights Cox in Pasadena Ring

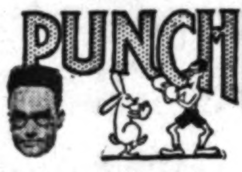
Andy Mitchell, one of the Coast's leading light-heavyweights, will show his stuff tonight at Pasadena Arena, against a tough opponent, Wild Bill Cox, former amateur light-heavy champion of the Coast. They are billed for ten rounds, heading a card that also includes several other big fellows.

Mitchell is quite a sensation at the Olympic and also is a Wilmington favorite, but this will be his first Pasadena appearance. He will be recalled as the promising fighter for whose contract the astute Jack Kearns bid $10,000. Cox showed his stuff two weeks ago at the arena when he licked Jack Haywood of Monrovia in one of the best scraps of the year in Pasadena.

The six-round semifinal may steal the show. It brings Dud Eades, fast-improving Pasadena lightweight, against Frankie Abendino, an Ocean Park favorite. Four-round fights will be: Ernie Stagner vs. Les Kennedy, 160 pounds; Domingo Suzana vs. Laurel Nieto, 120 pounds; Al Chapin vs. Lester Ostrum, 160 pounds.

RABBIT PUNCHES

By PAUL LOWRY



A SHORT-LIVED RECORD

The new world's record of 53 2-5s., which Mr. Frank Cuhel, the corn-fed boy from Iowa, established in the 400-meter hurdle race at Philadelphia Tuesday certainly was short-lived. Mr. F. Morgan Taylor, the Olympic champion, not only skinned it to death but he came within four seconds of the time the boys made in spinning along the track without ten high-hurdles to top.

Taylor's 52s. flat for the long barrier race should stand as a world's record for a long time. It is almost inconceivable that a man can keep his step between the sticks and skip the three-foot bars at such incredible speed.

The best time turned in by the quarter milers was Ray Barbuti's 48s. flat, and the powerful Syracuse flyer didn't have to worry about leaping any barriers.

Without seeming to make any untoward suggestions to the Olympic coaching staff or Mr. Lawson Robertson, its head, I would like to see Mr. Taylor turned loose in a quarter-mile flat race. I am curious to know how fast he can travel in the open with nothing but the tape ahead of him.

It is pleasing to note that our Mr. Robert Maxwell skipped in back of Mr. Taylor, Cuhel and Gibson for a fourth place and a trip to Amsterdam; also that Mr. Bud Spencer of Stanford just made the grade in the 400-meter flat race. Apparently the rumors about Bud's illness were correct. He has not done his stuff in the two days at Philadelphia, and barely made the American team after his season's records indicated he would be a cinch.

With any kind of a break our Mr. Jim Stewart of U.S.C. looks "in" in the decathlon. With three events to go he is leading the field, and the javelin and pole are not his weakest events although the 1500 meters may tear him down.

A GIFT TO THE HECKLERS

If it serves no other purpose Capt. Seth Strelinger's resignation as a member of the State Athletic Commission will at least appease his hecklers. These have beset him ever since early in his regime when, in failing to mold him to thir ways, they resorted to the childish game of mud slinging.

"Cap" Strelinger gave his best to the boxing game in California during the three years and a half he served on the commission, and if his best was wrong it was not from lack of sincerity of effort. A positive character, trained in the stern ways of the Army he entered on his term as a boxing commissioner an idealist who believed so thoroughly in his ideals that he threw aside all opposition.

Strelinger made rules because he believed them right. That they appeared silly to some people was beside the issue. According to his notions he was a man with a mission. He received no remuneration from the State. He got no thanks from the public; little praise from the press. But he carried on with a smiling indifference.

Few people understood Strelinger. But he was sincere and had an abiding faith in his mission to keep boxing clean and above ill repute. If he erred, he was only human. Boxing owes much to Strelinger even if boxing has forgotten. He guided it in this district during the webbly, infant days after the 1925 resurrection. He instituted many a sensible, rational scheme. Better far to have made a mistake here and there than to have been of the type described by Goethe, the German:

"There are men who never err, because they never propose anything national."

TAKES THE RECORD

If boxing takes the count at the polls in November, as many seem to believe it will, Capt. Strelinger will enjoy the distinction, doubtful or otherwise, of having served longer as a boxing commissioner in California than any other man in history.

The original commission, which took office in January, 1925, was composed of Strelinger, Los Angeles, appointed for a term of one year; Bill Hanlon, Sacramento, two years, and Louis Almgren, San Diego, three years.

Strelinger was reappointed for three years and had served all but half a year of this term when he mailed his resignation to Gov. Young Monday night. Hanlon retired with a request that his name no longer be considered for further service. Almgren likewise when his period ran out in December of last year. Charles Traung of San Francisco succeeded Hanlon and James Woods of Los Angeles succeeded Almgren.

The successor of Strelinger probably will be selected from the San Diego territory. The partition of territory between Woods and Strelinger when the former took office never was geographically correct. The logical plan is for Woods to supervise all the Los Angeles district, including Hollywood, Culver City and Wilmington, which is all Strelinger had at the time of his resignation, and let the new commissioner have the southernmost territory including San Diego, Calexico and all points midland from this city to the border. Either that or establish a Central California district.

THE NEW COMMISSIONER

But regardless of the identity of the new commissioner Woods and Traung will be the dominating notes on the commission. Both are wealthy men—Traung a millionaire lithographer of San Francisco and Woods a big gun in the Biltmore Hotel Corporation—and are in complete accord on how boxing should be conducted in this State.

They are close personal friends, and Traung was largely responsible for Woods accepting a boxing commission appointment which he did not desire last January. Traung was disgusted with his post after the Dundee-Hudkins fiasco at Wrigley Field, and only consented to remain on the job after being assured that Woods would accept the appointment.

CREWS HAVE PLENTY TO DO ON A DEW-DEW-DEWY DAY

PHILADELPHIA, July 4. (Exclusive)—Old Jupiter Pluvius raised Cain with the Schuylkill today, by sending an Oregon mist down that would break a tin hat. This was just in time to ruin "the people's regatta," which consisted of everything on water, but rope skipping while stroking a four oar without coxswains. There were so many events that none of the Olympic crews could work out. However, by 6 o'clock when the regatta stopped, the rain slackened up considerably and Princeton, Wyandotte, Yale, Columbia and California went out. Last but not least the boys from, dear old Harvard stuck their oars in the Schuylkill, for the first time.

All of the workouts were short, and for the sole purpose of limbering up, California did three miles of racing starts and high-stroke work, in which a good swing was noticeable and in which the boat checked not at all. Princeton hired a bus in order to follow their tomorrow's rivals and what they saw should not encourage them a bit.

Ed Leader's camp keeps an attitude of careless confidence, and seem to be rather aloof, as though they think they are rather good—well they are. Wyandotte is an unknown quantity along with Leader's boys, and Harvard. However, they are a mature, hardy lot of boys with plenty of soup on the oar. Harvard is smoother than they were at New London. The main thing they lack is a body swing. Yale has plenty of good form, but not much strength. Form goes a long way in a short race, however. None of the last three crews mentioned has gone over the course, so there is not chance to draw a comparison, but California, Princeton and Columbia have all gone over the course, and California looks as good as Columbia, and a shade better than Princeton—the winners in the three heats are all doubtful, but Yale should take Wyandotte, Columbia should barely take Harvard and California should nose Princeton out in their first short race.

The conditions of the race should be favorable, with a strong current, and a cooler day, both due to today's thunderstorm and cloudburst.

MEYERS KNOCKS OUT BERCOT IN SECOND

OAKLAND, July 4. (AP)—Pete Meyers, 147 3-4, San Francisco, knocked out Dode Bercot, 147 3-4, Seattle, in the second round of a scheduled ten-round bout at Oakland Auditorium today. Meyers, practically unknown a year ago, who has punched himself into the position of one of the Coast's leading contenders for welterweight honors, floored the Seattle boy three times in the second round.

Bercot, however, was not out, but Referee William Brackett ruled that he did not rise within the count of ten. The referee's decision evoked a storm of protest as most of those around the ringside figured he was up. The San Francisco welterweight had the better of the first round and battered Bercot around in the second. Bercot went down each time from terrific rights to the jaw.

FORMER SUD ROOKIE STICKS CLUB FOR SEASON'S SALARY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4. (AP)—Ira Robie, former University of California baseball star who was given a tryout by Seattle and released before this season started, said today he had received word that the Coast League club will be required to pay his salary for the entire 1928 season. Robie appealed to J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, who notified the played of his ruling. Robie is said to hold an iron-clad contract with the Seattle club calling for $300 a month salary.

SPENCER, MAXWELL MAKE AMERICAN OLYMPIC SQUAD

Before it started to rain some of the finest performances ever seen on any field were hung up despite an oppressive and sweltering heat. The world's record for the 400-meter hurdles which has been taking an awful beating for the past two or three weeks in the various tryouts finally succumbed completely when the fastest field of obstacle racers in the world chased Morgan Taylor across the line in 52s. flat, which is exactly 1 4-5s. faster than the present accepted world's record and 3-5s. faster than the race has ever been run, officially or unofficially.

WILD 440

Not satisfied with what the hurdlers were doing the quarter-milers went out and put on the wildest exhibition of quarter-mileing this quaint old burg has ever eyed. They announced before the heats of the 440 that the first three men in each heat would qualify for the finals and would be automatically on the Olympic team. The other runners, it was announced, would qualify for a special race in which the first two to finish would also qualify for the Olympic team.

The result was plenty of haste. Both heats were run in forty-eight seconds flat and a blanket would have covered all the runners at the finish. When they came around to the two final heats the boys who were running to catch the boat ran first, just before the downpour, and Bairn of Iowa just nosed out the colored post entry, John Lewis of the Detroit Y.M.C.A., for the two tickets to Amsterdam, the time being 48 4-5s.

The final was a terrible affair. Run within five minutes after the other final, a frightful wind had come up that hit the runners full in the face down the back stretch. It was farcical to run the race under such conditions. Alderman refused point blank to run and Spencer, when permission to withdraw was refused, said that he was just going to jog the distance.

Not so the valiant 190-pound Mr. Barbuti and the fiery gentleman from the south, Mr. Emil Snyder of Alabama Poly who had won one of those 48s. flat heats. They dashed off like mad and while the rest of the boys were cruising around cussing the weather and everything else, they battled into the teeth of the gale and down to the finish. Barbuti winning in 51 2-5s., which was really remarkable under the conditions. Snyder was second; Herman Phillips, third; Joe Tierney, fourth, and Bud Spencer fifth. None of the last three did anything but lope.

DECATHLON HALTED

The decathlon died in the middle of the pole vault with Jim Stewart leading with 5590 points, Kenneth Dougherty second with 5468, West Engleman third with 5372, Barney Berlinger fourth with 5340, Jess Mortenson fifth with 5169, Sexton sixth with 5127 and Al Lefebvre seventh with 5047. Incidentally Sexton hurt his arm and is out and the indications are that Mortenson and Lefebvre will fight it out with Engleman and Berlinger for the other position, Stewart, Berlinger and Dougherty apparently being a cinch for the three leading places.

The quarter-mile hurdle event was a classic. F. Morgan Taylor, the long-legged, lantern-jawed Illinois blond, outfooting a great field of stick jumpers to win. And, in case it hasn't been mentioned, the race was run in a driving rain which started just a minute or two before the race started. The local wiseacres saw the durn thing coming and tried to get the obstacles arranged on the track in time to start ahead of the dew, but they didn't quite make it.

The race for the first three-quarters was strictly between Morgan Taylor, who was on the pole; Bob Maxwell, who was in lane three, and Frank Cuhel of Iowa, who was out in the seventh lane and who led out like a scared rabbit. Cuhel held a strong lead all the way to the stretch, while Maxwell had caught Johnny Gibson, who was in the fourth lane, before the race had gone half way.

As they hit the head of the stretch eighty yards from home, Cuhel and Taylor were right together with Maxwell about a yard back, Grumbles of L.A.A.C. fourth, Gordon Allot of Colorado fifth and Johnny Gibson sixth. The rear rankers all began to close up fast on the leaders with Gibson coming from nowhere like a streak. Maxwell had third place cinched and Grumbles fourth, two yards from the finish, but Gibson with his unbelievable sprint, just nipped them at the tape.

There is no question at all but that Maxwell finishing fourth ran 53s., which is faster than this race has ever been run before. It is equally certain that Grumbles, who was fifth, ran not slower than 53 1-5s., which is faster than the previous world's record. Altogether it was quite an exhibition of hurdling and Bob Maxwell and Grumbles showing vast improvement looked likely to improve faster than any of the boys.

When a man runs the 400 meters in 48 1-5s. and can't get a place it seems to us that there is reason for his feeling annoyed but this happened to Mr. Kenneth Kennedy of the Illinois Athletic Club in the second semi-finals. When you are informed that the race was won in 48s. flat and the fourth man made the time he did it is a simple matter to dope it out that the darn thing was awfully close.

As a matter of fact there was nothing but class to both of the semi-finals. In the first one Barbuti, the 190-pound Syracuse giant, led out from the start and got better as he went along to win by a couple of yards from Joe Tierney who staged a garrison finish on the outside.

Herman Phillips, national champion, was third, and Walter, the tall lad from Northwestern, was timed at 49s. flat for fourth. Barbuti was credited with 48s., though several watches caught him faster.

The second heat was a ripsnorter. Spencer, who was robbed in his heat yesterday and was only allowed to run through the arbitrary action of the referee, staged a game comeback despite a rather bad stomach attack just before the race. He led out fast at the start but bogged down badly on the far turn just where he usually begins his big drive on the Coast.

Entering the stretch Spencer saw that he was stuck with Alderman well out in front and the others coming fast. He put his head down and dug like a hero and chased Snyder, the Alabama dark horse, so fast that after an awful argument the judges untangled themselves to give Snyder first, Alderman second and Spencer third with not a yard between them.

DECATHLON CONFUSED

The decathlon turned out to be a mathematical nightmare in which the leading contenders shifted so often that the accounting department couldn't keep up with them. Jim Stewart of the L.A.A.C., and Barney Berlinger of Pennsylvania had laid themselves down to sleep last night, apparently secure in first and second positions.

Right off the bat Jim tripped off a 16-flat flight of high hurdles and Barney staggered and bounded down the track for a net loss of a fistful of points that dropped him down to third when J. Kenneth Dougherty of the Cadillac A. C. of Detroit, finished a bang-up second to the elongated Trojan all-around star. A bum toss in the discus dropped Berlinger farther down the line, West Engleman of South Dakota pulling up into third place. Lefebvre moved up to fifth on the hurdle but slipped back to seventh in the discus while Mortenson, who started the day seventh, moved up one spot on each of the first two events.

The rainstorm moved in on the field just as the boys were getting going nicely in the pole vault and held up at least an hour. After a few more gallops in the pole vault they saw a huge storm coming up over the city and started to pull off the two final heats of the quarter which they did in spite of the fact that there was a pouring rain and a driving wind for the national championship.

400-meter hurdles (final for championship, first four to make Olympic team,) won by F. Morgan Taylor, Illinois A. C.; second, Frank Cuhel, University of Iowa; third, Johnny Gibson, Bloomfield, N. J. Lyceum; fourth, Bob Maxwell, Los Angeles A. C. Time, 52s. (New world's record.)

400 meter flat (final for championship, first four to make Olympic team in same event and others to make team in 1600-meter relay,) won by Ray J. Barbuti, New York A. C.; second, Emil Snider, Alabama Polytechnic Institute; third, Herman Phillips, Illinois A. C.; fourth, Joe Tierney, New York A. C.; fifth, Emerson Spencer, Stanford University. Time, 51 2-5s. (Fred Alderman, Illinois A. C., did not start.)

400 meters, flat (special heat for those beaten in final heats with first two finishers to make Olympic 1600-meter relay team,) won by George Baird, University of Iowa; second, John Lewis, Detroit Y. M. C. A.; third, Rut Walter, Northwestern University. Time, 48 4-5s.

400 meters flat, first final heat (first three qualify for championship race, others to run in special heat,) won by Ray J. Barbuti, New York A. C.; second, Joe Tierney, New York A. C.; third, Herman Phillips, Illinois A. C. Time, 48s.

400 meters flat, second final heat, won by Emil Snider, Alabama Poly; second, Fred Alderman, Illinois A. C.; third, Emerson Spencer, Stanford University. Time, 48s.

Hornsby Falls

[By the Associated Press]

Paul Waner and Frank Frisch claimed the spotlight in the big six as the major league teams sailed past the Fourth of July and the midway mark of the season yesterday. The elder Waner pinched off two hits while the Reds were slamming the Pirates in morning and afternoon games, and so became the first big six member to own 100 safe drives. Frisch got his full share of the spoils as the Cubs and Cardinals divided two wild hitting games, and nosed ahead of Babe Ruth for fourth honors by one point, .325 to .324. The Fordham flash collected five out of ten, including a homer.

Rogers Hornsby got only one hit in the lone game played at Boston, and fell three points to .391. He lost only one point, however, to Waner, who slipped back two notches while gathering his 100th hit.

FARRELL AND SARAZEN STEAL MARCH ON GOLFING SCOTS BY SPLITTING THEIR WINNIN

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK, July 4. (Exclusive)—Corporation methods, here fined in the sport industry to the baseball and prize-fighting of the trade, have now been applied to the open golf cha the United States.

GENE SARAZEN.

It developed that the new national open golf champion is not Johnny Farrell, of Yonkers, N. Y., under a strict interpretation of corporation principles, but the firm of Farrell and Sarazen.

That is to say, although young Mr. Farrell defeated Mr. Robert Jones in the play-off for the open championship at Olympia Fields, Chicago, one week ago last Sunday, he is not the open champion but only the half of it because under a business arrangement between Farrell and Gene Sarazen, all titles accruing to either of them and all prizes, wages, emoluments and prerequisites received by either one shall be split down the spine term goes, equally between them. Thus it happens that alth Mr. Sarazen finished only sixth in the tournament at Olym is for business purposes, as much a champion as Johnny ters as public receptions, handclasps, etc. Sarazen held the pionship alone long before the present association with Mr. formally consummated by the equal division of their first and he realizes with no faint irony, that if he were to go delicatessen today and attempt to pay off with kind words and enthusiastic cheers he would meet with disillusionment In the second place it is provided that any time young Mr. temporarily admiring friends are so carried away by their to present him with a check or set of cuff links in substantial of the esteem in which they hold him, Mr. Sarazen is to of the amount of the check or one of the cuff links and

Last winter, in Florida, the Messrs. Farrell and Sarazen won the $20,000 which was split, per contract, down the backbone, leaving only trivial money for division among the other golfers, numbering about 100.

The national open champion, both of him, is, or are, now proceeding on a tour of tournaments and exhibitions.

Nationalista Annexes Bout

STOCKTON, July 4. (AP)—Young Nationalista, Los Angeles bantamweight, today won a ten-round decision over Charlie Pinto of New York, in the main event of the first matinee fight card ever held here.

Nationalista, a Filipino, formerly of Manila, was cheered to victory by a crowd of Filipinos who were here for a convention. Pinto was knocked down for a count of six in the first round and for a count of eight in the tenth.

Marcelino Ortega, Los Angeles lightweight, fought a six-round draw with Les Carey of Stockton.

Roy Riley, San Francisco bantamweight, stopped "Kayo" Anim of Los Angeles in two minutes and thirty-five seconds of the first round of a six-round match.

REDS NAB TWO

PITTSBURGH, July 4. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds made it a clean sweep of the Fourth of July games here today with the Pittsburgh Pirates by annexing the afternoon contest in an easy manner, 11 to 3, after blanking the Buccaneers in the morning game, 6 to 0.

Burleigh Grimes pitched out of turn in the second fray but he was unable to stave off the attack of the visitors. He was relieved by Tauscher in the eighth. Kolp started and finished the contest for the Reds.

Rixey was complete master of the Pirates in the morning. Dawson started for the home club but gave way to Miljus in the fifth and Tauscher finished.

Dressen scored five runs and made three hits in the afternoon. Walker hit a homer in the morning. Scores:

SKATERS OUT TO SET NEW MARKS TONIGHT

New Southern California indoor records are expected to be set tonight in a series of roller-skating races at the Shrine Auditorium Skating Pavilion. Among the speed skaters who will participate are Roy Hall, John Hanks, Lester Lehmeyer, Ted Petrovitch and Art Irons.

Three events will be run, two of them mile races and one a half-mile event for novices. The races will be started by Jack Daro, brother of Lou Daro, Los Angeles wrestling promoter. Rodney Peters, retired world's speed skating champion, will referee.

Stribling Now Holds World Kayoe Record

ATLANTA (Ga.) July 4. (AP) William L. (Young) Stribling, long known as "the fighter without a punch," is now holder of the world's record for knockouts, sport writers here announced today following the Georgia pugilist's victory Monday over "Wild Bill" Row who went down for the count in the second round. That made Strib's one hundred and first knockout. The former record was made by George Cheney, featherweight contemporary of Johnny Kilbane, who had an even hundred.

YANKEES AND SOLONS SPLIT HOLIDAY BILL; MACKS GRAB BOTH GAMES FROM RED SOX

WASHINGTON, July 4. (AP)—The Washington Senators and the New York Yankees divided a holiday double-header today, the Senators winning the first game, 5 to 2, and the Yankees the second, 5 to 4.

Barnes, Washington center fielder, hit a home run in the first inning of the first game, driving in two of his team-mates ahead of him.

A combination of extra base hits by Combs, Lazzeri and Paschal netted five runs for the Yankees in the sixth inning of the second game. Washington scored two runs in both the seventh and ninth innings.

YOUNG ED LOSES

CHICAGO, July 4. (AP) — After young Ed Walsh lost the first game of his big-league career in the first game of the holiday double-header, won by the Browns, 11 to 8, the White Sox came back in the second game and took a 1-to-0 pitchers' battle to even the day's effort and take four out of five of the series.

Thomas and Ogden pitched great ball in the second game, Ogden allowing four hits and Thomas 5. The winning run was scored by Cissell after he had walked and gone to third on Crouse's single, scoring when Thomas hit into a double play.

Young big Ed Walsh lasted four innings of the first game, and was taken out after the Browns scored four in the fourth. Scores:

TWO FOR A'S

PHILADELPHIA, July 4. (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics took both games from the Boston Red Sox today, winning the morning game, 5 to 4, and the afternoon game, 11 to 3. Doug Taitt's error on Jimmy Foxx's pinch single in the eighth inning of the first game allowed Joe Boley to score the winning run from first base.

The Athletics knocked Ed Morris, Boston's right-hander, out of the box in five innings in the afternoon. Joe Hauser hit a home run in each game to bring his season's total to twelve. Bing Miller also hit for the circuit in the afternoon. The second game was called on account of darkness in the eighth inning before the Athletics completed their turn at bat. Scores:

ONE AND ONE

DETROIT, July 4. (AP)—Detroit and Cleveland broke even in a Fourth of July double-header today, the Tigers taking the first 10 to 5 and losing the second 4 to 3. Detroit batsmen hammered two Indian hurlers freely to take the first game, featured by a home run by Gehringer in the first inning with two runners on base. In the second game Cleveland rallied in the eighth and ninth innings after Billings had pitched shut-out ball in the first seven frames, scoring the tieing and winnings run in the ninth. Scores:

PHILLIES WIN

BOSTON, July 4. (AP)—The Phillies pounded Cooney and Cantwell hard in the early innings of what was to have been the first game of a double-header today and won by the score of 10 to 6. The second game was postponed when a heavy shower made the field too wet for playing.

Cantwell, who relieved Cooney in the first inning, was touched for six runs, but settled down after the fifth and held the Quakers scoreless. Walsh pitched the first seven innings for the Phillies, retiring in favor of Alex Ferguson, although he had been holding on to a lead his mates piled up for him. Score:

Giants to Go Back to Texas Next Spring

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—The Giants will return to their training camp at San Antonio next spring after a lapse of four years, John G. McGraw announced here today. The Giant manager who always has liked Texas weather for the training season, said he had signed to return to San Antonio for only one season, but it is known that he would not be adverse to renewing the contract.

The New York club made its headquarters in the Alamo City from 1920 through 1923 and for many years prior to that trained at Marlin, Tex., with the exception of 1912 when Gainesville, Fla., was selected for a single camp.

Bells Lose Two to Indian Club

SEATTLE, July 4. (AP)—The Seattle Indians upset the dope bucket here today and took a double header away from the San Francisco Missions, winning the first game 6 to 3 and the second 5 to 2.

Bryan let three runs get by in the first two innings of the first contest, and then held the visitors scoreless for the remainder of the game, while his team-mates were landing on Nevers for hits in almost every inning. The Indians clinched the game in the third frame, when five hits brought in four runs. Jack Sherlock collected four hits out of four times to the plate in the first game, and three hits in four trips up in the second.

Favorites Win Easily in Opening Round of Pacific Coast Doubles Championshi

SEEDED TEAMS ALL VICTORIOUS

Stars Advance Unchecked on First Day

Lines Tighten as Weaker Players Fall

Seller Battles Woodall in Feature Today

The opening round of the Pacific Coast doubles championships was singularly devoid of excitement at the Los Angeles Tennis Club yesterday. Four seeded teams came safely through the day with an ease that marked their matches as little more than preliminary skirmishes. With half the teams eliminated, the lines are drawing tighter and the remaining four days will unquestionably see some great tennis.

Cliff Herd

Bobby Seller and Neil Brown, the San Francisco team seeded number one, won over Edwards and Livingston, 6-0, 6-2, 6-3, yesterday. Neer and Bates, seeded number two, disposed of Kelch and Owen even more easily by scores of 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Ruscher and Woodall, Pasadena team, in number three position, came through without opposition. Dolf Meuhlheisen and Bob Muench of San Diego did not get into action.

The hardest match of the day was played by Joe Bixler and D. Smith, who battled for two hours to win over Junior Parker and Wanee by scores of 6-3, 5-7, 6-6, 6-3, 6-2.

There was a like lack of thrills in the results of the singles matches, men and women favorites coming through with nary an upset.

Several good matches are scheduled for today. Bobby Seller faces Ed Woodall in a singles battle worth seeing. Jack De Lara takes on Phil Neer. The Jones-Issenhuth battle against Wheldon and Stoeffen and Bixler and Smith vs. Muench and Muehlheisen will feature the doubles play.

The draw and results:

10 a.m.—Ruscher and Woodall vs. Hovey and Carlson, Laird and Tidball vs. Hanna and Lusch, De Lara and Duff vs. Gumbiner and De Shields, Seller and Brown vs. Riesenberg and McArthur, H. Marlowe vs. C. Neville, De Lory vs. R. Stanford, Hobson vs. Fernstrom.

11:30 a.m.—Jones and Issenhuth vs. Wheldon and Stoeffen, Bixler and Smith vs. Meuhlheisen and Muench, Vines vs. Meloeny, Gledhill vs. Werner, Gladys Patz vs. Ann Cook.

1 p.m.—Seller vs. Woodall, Brown vs. Tidball, Liebes vs. Werner, Delory vs. Stanford, A. Livingston vs. Marjorie Reed, Jessie Grieve vs. Doris Does, Coppersmith vs. McArthur.

2:30 p.m.—Neer and Bates vs. winners Laird and Tidball vs. Hanna and Lusch, Meuhlheisen vs. Mosier, Muench vs. Lusch, Robbins vs. Parker, Caroline Babcock vs. winner G. Patz vs. Anna Cook.

4 p.m.—Winner Seller and Brown vs. Riesenberg and McArthur vs. Robbins and Paige, Herd and Bundy vs. Barker and Libees, Brasher and Patton vs. Gledhill and Vines, Ruscher vs. Laird, Neer vs. De Lara, Bates vs. winner Hobson vs. Fernstrom.

M'GILL AND BROWNING TO TANGLE UP IN MAT BOUT

Pat McGill, the Irish heavyweight mat champion, agreed to meet Jim Browning, the big Kansan, in the special event of the two-star bout card Promoter Lou Daro has been working on for his mat show at the Olympic Wednesday night.

JOE MALCEWICZ

Sergt. Joe Malcewicz, the "Utica Panther," will clash with "Admiral" Paul Jones of Texas, in the feature event of the evening, and because these two are so evenly matched in height, weight, speed and ability with the many holds known as catch-as-catch-can, a sensational mat battle is being looked for.

This will be Malcewicz's first appearance on the Coast, while Jones is remembered by the fans here for his great bouts with Joe Stecher, Jim Londos, Richard Schikat, Nick Lutze and John Pesek. He defeated the latter last year, causing the biggest mat upset of the season.

The McGill-Browning bout is expected to be as bitterly contested as the feature event. These two 220-pounders will also be meeting each other in the ring for the first time. Each is confident he can beat the other, and each has been known to have made statements to that effect in the last year. Matmen all over the country have discussed the possible outcome of a bout between Browning and McGill, opinion being about equally divided. This match will be of as much interest to the heavyweight wrestlers as the main event.

Al Baffert, a flashy 190-pounder, meets Dr. P. A. Mullikin, wrestling chiropractor of Hollywood, in the opening event.

Hinckley Wins Banning Race

BANNING, July 4.—Speed Hinckley won the twenty-five-lap championship sweepstakes, the feature of the Banning auto races, here this afternoon. Jimmy Sharp and William Heisler finished in the order named. The winner's time was 12m. 14s. The summary follows:

First event, 10 laps, won by Speed Hinckley; second, Al Gordon; third, Art Sparks. Time—4m. 44 3-5s.

Second event, 10 laps, won by Jimmy Sharp; second, William Heisler; third, Francis Quinn. Time—4m. 48 4-5s.

Third event, 10 laps, won by William Stanley; second, Mike Admire; third, Walter Buns. Time—5m. 8s.

Fourth event, 2-lap trophy dash, won by Speed Hinckley; second, Jimmy Sharp; third, Stubby Stubbyfield. Time—57 2-5s.

Fifth event, 15 laps, won by Stubby Stubblefield; second, Jack Schrimper. Time—8m. 2 1-5s.

Sixth event, 25-lap championship sweepstakes, won by Speed Hinckley; second, Jimmy Sharp; third, William Heisler. Time—12m. 14 2-5s. New world's record.

SNODDY CAPTURES LAURELS IN EAST

ST. LOUIS, July 4. (AP)—A holiday crowd of 10,000 lined the river front levees here today to witness the finish of seven races of the Mississippi Valley National Power Boat Association's annual regatta. Watercraft pilots from Florida, California and inland parts of the country were represented in the day's sprints in the Mississippi River.

The 151-class hydroplanes, unlimited, first heat, at ten miles, was won by Miss Rioco, driven by Ralph Snoddy, Los Angeles; Baby Ruth, driven by M. L. Reed, Detroit, second; Mary Jane, driven by Cliff Stepleton, Dayton, O., third. Time 14m. 11 4-5s. (Average miles per hour, 43.273.)

CADENA IN KAYO WIN AT OCEAN PARK RING

Ad Cadena knocked out Jack Andrews in the second round of a scheduled eight-round special event at the Ocean Park fights last night. Cadena was too good for Andrews. Joe Arcinega got the nod over Fernando Mendes in the six-round semi-windup. Harry Johnson copped a six-round decision over Clarence Dunivan in the special event. In the two four-rounders, Orlando Lucio shaded Marion Sousa for a decision and Bobby Hayden scored a technical knockout over Tony Garcia in one round.

BOUT CALLED DRAW

SEASIDE (Or.) July 4. (AP)—Frankie Holland, Spokane featherweight, and Battling Bulahan, San Francisco, fought a draw here this afternoon but the bout ended in the eighth round when Holland fell through the ropes out of a clinch, striking his head against the edge of the arena. He was unable to continue.

Lipton Trophy Carried Away by Windward

SANTA BARBARA, July 4.—With a brisk wind behind him on his final leg, Joe Jessop of the San Diego Yacht Club, sailing his Windward, won the Sir Thomas Lipton trophy for star boats over a twelve-mile course here this afternoon.

The Windward came from behind in the last two miles to win over B. Rey Schauer's Movie Star, a previous two-time winner, piloted by Tommy Lee and Fox Case. The Windward's time was 3h. 43m. 50s., a bare fifty-five seconds ahead of the Movie Star's time.

The Flying Cloud, with Harry Fisher and Dick Loynes at the helm, came under the wire in third place in the time of 3h. 46m. 15s., with Skipper, owned by Robert Doulton and B. Holt Willard of the Santa Barbara Yacht Club, in fourth place, a fraction under eight minutes behind Flying Cloud.

Oriole, owned by Fred Rogers, finished in 3h. 56m. 50s. for fifth place. Nine boats competed.

H. M. Hazard's Felix, carrying a sixteen-horsepower motor, ran away with the Class C and Class D outboard motor races on the water front course, defeating Zalos Scott's Super X in the Class C event and Scott's Babs, a twenty-five-horsepower crat, in the Class D event.

In Class C the Felix clipped a full minute from the course record, covering the two and one-half miles in 4m. 53s., or at an average speed of 32.75 miles per hour.

Racing Fans Travel by Air

TIA JUANA, July 4.—Two ten-passenger Maddux Ford all-metal trimotored planes flew to Agua Caliente this morning from Los Angeles making the international commercial passenger trips between the United States and Mexico. Each plane in addition to the pilot and mate carried eight passengers. One plane flew direct from Los Angeles to Agua Caliente Airport, adjoining the Kennel Club track and within a stone's throw of the hotel and casino. The other plane stopped at San Diego to discharge two passengers and take on two more. United States custom inspector came in Plane No. 1 from Los Angeles. The planes were met by the Mexican custom and immigration officials for inspection at the Agua Caliente Airport. The Maddux Company announced that the service would be continued daily.

ATHLETICS CONTINUE IN SUMMER SESSION

BERKELEY, July 4. (Exclusive) The University of California summer session, now in progress, is by no means without its athletics. C. A. (Cap) Pease, instructor in tennis, has arranged a tournament for both men and women students to include singles and doubles play.

According to Pease's early entry list, entries to date include "Tex" Baker, last year's champion; Henry Schallig, last year's runner-up, and Warren Sisson, varsity tennis player. In the women's division, such well-known players as Betty Fitch, co-holder of the girls' national hard-court doubles title; Margaret Fitch, victor last summer, and Frances Cook, well-known bay region player, have also made known their desire to enter. Even the faculty will be represented in the tourney by Everett Glass, director of the Wheeler Hall plays to be given for the entertainment of students and visiting teachers on the campus this session.

HUDKINS HOME AS KIN SPOUTS

Great Chicago Robbery Sole Topic of Brother

Clyde Eager to Get Return Date With Walker

Says Ace Won't Don Mitts in Illinois Again

"It was the dirtiest, rottenest, most insane decision ever rendered in the ring."

ACE HUDKINS.

It is thus, in one short, pithy sentence, that Clyde Hudkins sums up the recent Walker-Hudkins battle for the middleweight championship in Chicago.

Ace Hudkins, minus the middleweight crown, returned to Los Angeles yesterday afternoon. He arrived from Lincoln, Neb., on the Gold Coast Limited, accompanied by his brother-managers, Clyde and Art Hudkins, and headed directly for his home in Hollywood, where he will remain for a month.

CAMPS DIVIDED

The Ace is taciturn. He hasn't much to say about the famous "Battle of the Stockyards" that has split the boxing world into enemy camps, one rabid faction yelling "robbery" and the other "sour grapes." All he says is that he considers himself the middleweight champion. But Ace is a great fighter and great fighters are never good talkers. He leaves that to Clyde and Art.

And Brother Clyde has much to say. To wit:

(1.) That he will make every effort to get Walker into the ring with Ace again.

(2.) That the fight positively will be staged either here or in New York. Preferably here.

(3.) That Hudkins will never, under any conditions, again lace on a glove in Illinois, although Chicago, since the Walker fight, is a big town for him.

(4.) That he sensed something amiss twenty-four hours before the fight, but that he could learn the names of neither the referee nor the judges from the Illinois State Boxing Commission.

(5.) That Walker fouled Hudkins several times before Ace got mad and retaliated in kind.

(6.) That Hudkins was forced to stay close and whale away at the champion's body, the soggy condition of the ring making it impossible to stay on the toes without slipping.

Those were the main points in Clyde Hudkins's speech. He is still hopping mad over the result of the fight and intends to force Walker into another match by claiming the middleweight title, on the strength of the referee's decision, and relying on the sports writers to jeer Mickey into a return match.

SOMETHING AMISS

His description of the fight and the hours preceding were vivid. "I knew something was wrong on the day of the fight when the gamblers were betting 3 to 1 on Walker. Even though, as the champion, he was entitled to the edge, it shouldn't have been that long. So I haunted the offices of the Boxing Commission, repeatedly asking for full protection and reminding them of the decision Walker got over Flowers in Chicago. They assured me that if Ace won, he'd be the new champion. But they would not tell me who was to referee or who the judges would be. They said Jack Kearns didn't know either, but that isn't so. He did know. They are personal friends of his."

"Ace was as cool as he is now when he went into the ring. He told me he'd knock Walker out, and he wired all his friends to bet on him. The first round was even, Walker had the fourth, with the seventh even and all the rest going to Ace. He beat the champion from here to Chicago; I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw Ed Purdy raise Walker's hand.

"If it hadn't been for the rain, Ace would have laid Walker away. Mickey was backed against the ropes in the tenth round, covering for dear life and not pushing a single punch. Previous to that, he was running and backing round and round the ring. His body was as red as beefsteak by the ninth round and he was half goofy, but that heavy rain kept him going, whereas, under ordinary conditions, he'd have gone down. Added to the fact that it refreshed him, the rain kept Ace from getting on his toes and fighting in his usual style. He had to stay flat-footed or he'd have slipped and broken his neck."

HERE'S THE EVIDENCE

"How about the fouling?" he was asked.

"Fouling? "I'm just waiting for Walker and Kearns to open their heads about fouling. Then I'm going to put the cup Ace wore on exhibition. It has a dent in it with Mickey Walker's name written there.

"When it was over they had to get Walker out of the ring with a cordon of cops. Somebody began shooting and we were all struck by flying glass from the lights that were broken by things they threw. All the way across town to our hotel our car was mobbed by Chicago fans who gave us a tremendous ovation. In the park it was almost a riot.

"How Kline and Carroll ever got the appointment as judges of that fight is a mystery to me. I've been trying to check up on their records and I can't because they don't seem to have any.

"The day after the fight Ace was out playing catch with the boys at the ball yard. He hadn't a mark on him. Walker won't fight again for three months and he left the ring with a broken nose and a stomach pounded to mincemeat. A man could decide that fight just by looking at the two boys after it was over."

Clyde says Bob Cowan, Los Angeles' newest promoter, is now angling for the match to be held at Wrigley Field. Cowan claims he can secure Walker and has asked Hudkins to name his terms. The Wildcat's manager doubts Cowan's ability to bring Walker here for the match, but will give him his figure.

KEARNS OFFERED $75,000

"I've personally offered Kearns a cool $75,000 for a return bout here and he won't say a thing. He's had offers equally large from Gould Dietz, a Nebraska sportsman, and other promoters. But he hasn't opened his head. Our only chance of getting Walker again is when he can't hold out any longer against public opinion."

Hudkins will rest here for a month, during which time his manager's campaign to get Walker will be waged. If Walker isn't available, an attempt to secure a bout with Joe Dundee will be made. Both failing, Hudkins will sail for England, where he has a dazzling offer to meet Tommy Milligan. In the meantime he hopes that Walker will be forced into a match with him.

Ace got a miniature ovation when he arrived yesterday. A host of admirers was on hand, accompanied by a band.

BIG BOY PETERSON BATTLES JACK ROPER AT HOLLYWOOD

The fireworks at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium will be displayed tomorrow night in the form of five bouts, the feature of which is expected to be Big Boy Peterson and Jack Roper. If this heavyweight shenanigan doesn't please the cash customers, then it is going to be hard to get a line on talent that will.

BIG BOY PETERSON

With Mayor Jimmy Walker of New York City an honored guest, the Stadium will probably be packed. The New Yorker has decided to be one of the celebrities present and he has so many friends in Hollywood that it will be a good opportunity for them to see the best dressed Mayor in the world.

The little fellows may steal the show. Freddie Imperial and Tommy Hughes are going to make the going tough for the main event. Hughes has fought main events at Hollywood so the boys have made him a favorite over Imperial.

Another good looking scrap will be the special featuring the popular Dick LePan and Ray McIntyre. The winner of this shot may get a crack at the winner of the semi-wind-up. looking scrap will be the special featuring the popular Dick LePan and Ray McIntyre. DOUGLAS BEST ARCHER

FRESNO, July 4. (AP)—Scoring 545 points, D. W. Douglas of Los Angeles captured the State archery title in a tournament held here today in conjunction with a large Fourth of July sports celebration. Douglas took a large lead of the field when he clicked the bullseye for 232 points out of a possible 270, firing at forty yards. C. Seay and I. P. Huntley, both of Los Angeles, were second and third, respectively.

JOHNNY VACCA RETURNS FOR BOUT WITH TAYL

BY KAY OWE

Johnny Vacca is making his third fight in California next Tuesday night against Bud Taylor.

Bud Taylor

Each time the boy from Boston has been called upon to box a top-liner. He faced Newsboy Brown when many Californians thought that Brown was the best boy in his class—not excepting Fidel La Barba.

His second appearance was with La Barba, himself. Now comes Taylor, who is recognized—at least on the Coast—as the bantamweight titleholder.

The highlights in Vacca's career have been the night in Boston when he had LaBarba out on his feet from punches and the night in Los Angeles when he had Brown on the canvas.

Vacca is now fighting at a new weight. He weighs 120 pounds. He appears to be more rugged than before in his gymnasium workouts.

While Taylor is a tremendous favorite in California many fans lean toward Vacca in the coming battle. The Terre Haute bantam is getting no better, while Vacca is showing new strength in the heavier division.

There may be a switch in the plans to send Fidel La Barba against Taylor in his comeback bout. If the Boston organ grinder whips Taylor he will get the la match.

CALIFORNIA GIRLS ON TOP IN NATIONALS

NEWARK (N. J.) July 4. (AP)—A band of strong-limbed girls from Northern California, led by a mite of a miss, Elta Cartwright of Eureka, and aided and abetted by reinforcements from Pasadena, today dominated the women's national amateur athletic championships and the first tryouts ever held to select an American women's Olympic team.

MISS CARTWRIGHT STARS

Allowed by the regulations on the card to compete in only three events, the 117-pound athlete from the Humboldt Teachers' College topped her field in each and headed a point-winning march that lined up the massive total of fifty-two points for Northern California A. C. The Pasadena Athletic Club took second in the team totals with seventeen points. The Boston Swimming Association was third with Far and away the feature of the day's battling under a feverish sun, were the performances of Miss Cartwright, slender little bantamweight of a girl with the heart of a weight thrower. Slightly peeved that she could not take the measure of her girl pals in more events, Miss Cartwright held herself down to three events, the fifty-yard dash, 100-meter Olympic trial and the broad jump, and won them all.

Although track conditions were perfect, only one American record fell in the running events, and another was equalled. Miss Rayma B. Wilson, announcing as she toed the mark for the 800-meter run—"Boys, here's the winner"—dashed twice around the track in 2m. 32 3-5s., to clip four seconds from the record standard of Marcelle of Northern California. The second and third place winners in this event, run in three heats on a time basis, also eased home under the old standard, which is four seconds slower, however, than the world record of 2m. 26 3-5s., held by Miss Lines of England.

NATIONAL RELAY RECORD

The 440-yard relay team of the Northern California A. C. equalled the national record of 52 1-5s., set by the Pasadena Club, in winning the double furlong from the Illinois A. A. team. In the field, Miss Lillian Copeland of Pasadena, hurling the new discus used in the Olympics, tossed the platter 118ft. 9 1-4in. The old American record of 105ft. 8 1-6in. was made with a discus nine ounces heavier than the weight used today. Miss Copeland also equalled the American eight-pound shot record by winning the event with a heave of 40ft. 4 1-4in.

Out of ten title-holders competing today only three were able to retain their national championships. Miss Cartwright beat all challengers in the fifty-yard dash, Margaret Jenkins of Northern California again took first place in the javelin and for the second year Helen Filkey, Illinois Woman's Athletic Club star, ran away with the sixty-yard hurdles. Miss Filkey lost a chance to repeat in the 100-meter championship when she fell in the final ten yards.

Running under one of the hottest suns of the summer, with 242 feminine stars from eighteen States gathered for the greatest women's track meet ever staged, the games closed in a downpour of rain and terrific wind.

SHOW REAL FORM

The bronzed lassies, chunky weight throwers, lanky distance runners and lithe little sprinters went about their work for all the world like their male contemporaries in the sport world. They shot from their sprinting holes like embryo Charley Paddocks and tore down the stretch to leap in the most approved style for the finishing tape. The distance girls clamped elbows at sides and strode out manfully, jockeying for position, saving strength, and then bursting through the final fifty yards in perfect time, even-striding sprints.

In winning the baseball throw Vivian Hartwick of the Northern California A.C. shot the horsehide into a stiff wind as the festivities were closing for the day, covering over 228 feet. Her form was perfect and Babe Ruth himself never lined a keener throw from the outfield to catch a runner tearing home.

Although the time was slow, Miss Florence Wright of the Headlight A.C., St. Louis, turned in a fine performance in winning the 220-yard dash in 27 2-5s., a stride ahead of Martha Scarlet of the North Cali-Martha Scarlet of the Northern California A.C.

Mildred Wiley, Boston star, broke into the Midwest and Far-West domination of first places long enough to win the high-jump championship, but only after a jump-off with Jean M. Smiley of Haverford, Pa. Both tied at 4ft. 11 3-4in. in the initial test.

The 1928 national amateur athletic champions and winners of the four Olympic try-out events follow:

50-yard dash—Elta Cartwright, Northern California A.C.

*100-meter dash — Elta Cartwright, Northern California A.C.

60-yard hurdles—Helen Filkey, Chicago Women's A.C.

220-yard dash—Florence Wright, Headlight A.C., St. Louis.

*800-meter run—Rayma Wilson, Pasadena, Cal.

440-yard relay—Northern California A.C. (Minnie Meyer, Ruth Stewart, Myra Parsons, Delores Henders.)

Eight-pound shot—Lillian Copeland, Pasadena.

Baseball throw—Vivian Hartwick, Northern California A.C.

*Discus throw—Maybelle Reichardt, Pasadena, Cal.

*Indicates Olympic try-out event.

Gene Tunney Dodges Fans

SPECULATOR (N. Y.) July 4. (AP)—Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion, avoided the holiday crowd today by going through his training exercises early in the morning before the throng began to jam the beach of Mountain Lake. Tunney and his sparring partners were at work almost before sunrise. Immediately after breakfast the champion struck out for the woods. Tunney extended his boxing to eight rounds today, going four each with Harold Mays and Billy Vidabeck. He went only one round with the fast bag as a warming-up exercise.

The champion is in excellent condition. With his fight with Tom Heeney only three weeks away, he is within two and one-half pounds of his fighting weight.

man in one quarter contest, while Dr. George King, New York, faces Dr. Carl Fischer, Philadelphia. Feibleman was forced to three sets by Don Strachan, Princeton freshman, before gaining a victory, 11-9, 3-6, 6-4. King conquered Hal Dickenson of the Nassau Club, 6-1, 6-0. Fischer defeated J. Gilbert Hall, crack ace of New York, 6-3, 6-4.

Early this morning Watson Washburn and Gilbert Hall accounted for two Californians. Washburn came close to defeat at the hands of Alan Herrington, 8-6, 7-5, while Hall was within 1 point of defeat by Ralph McElvenny, who yielded finally, 3-6, 6-0, 8-6.

LA COSTE WINS TILDEN MATCH

Veteran American Ace Loses Five-Set Battle

Helen Wills Victorious Over Elizabeth Ryan

Coste's final-round opponent Saturday will be the 1927 champion, Henri Cochet, who had a somewhat strenuous time himself today before he put out his young compatriot, Christian Boussus, in the other semifinals by 11-9, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Tilden's downfall followed the brilliant advance of his countrywoman, Helen Wills, who swept her old Nemesis, Miss Elizabeth Ryan, 6-1, 6-1, with the most impressive display of tennis the Californian has yet shown here. Miss Wills will have the same final-round opponent she met and defeated last season—Senorita Elia de Alvarez—the Spanish girl, who disposed of Daphne Akhurst, Australian champion, in the other semifinal match today, 6-3, 6-0.

66La Coste's machine-like steadiness, always the salient feature of his game, gained him victory over the superior stroking repertoire and strategy of Tilden. The lithe Frenchman had the stamina and nerve to stick to his veteran rival like a shadow for four sets and then, in an uphill fight, rush through to victory in the final set as the American weakened.

Tilden's defeat was the fifth he has suffered at La Coste's hands within two years in major championship competition. Twice at Germantown, once each at Forest Hills, Paris, and Wimbledon, "Big Bill" has lowered his colors to his French Nemesis. They will meet once again in all likelihood in the Davis Cup challenge round later this month at Paris.

Miss Wills's defeat of Miss Ryan was noteworthy chiefly for its decisiveness. The latter had been playing fine tennis and on the strength of her defeats of Helen two and three years ago in the United States was expected to extend the champion. Miss Ryan's chops and slices, however, held no terrors or deception for Miss Wills, who laced into the ball and pounded her rival's defense to pieces. In yielding only one game in each set Miss Wills scored 30 points each time while Miss Ryan took 17 in the first and 16 in the second set.

Tilden, although out of the singles, remains in the doubles fight with Frank Hunter as his partner. They are the present title-holders and will meet the Australians, Patterson and Hawkes, in the semifinals tomorrow while the other American combination of John Hennessey and George Lott, opposes the French team of Cochet and Brugnon. Patterson and Hawkes were victors today over Robson and Boyd, Argentines, 614,6-4,4-6,6-3. Hennessey and Lott completed their victory over the Australian youngsters, Cummings and Moon, by 6-1, 6-1,1-6,6-3.

Hunter and Miss Wills also survived the mixed doubles, advancing today by defeat of the Argentine, Ronald Boyd, and Miss Hawkes, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3, while the other American team of Lott and Mrs. Mallory lost to the English couple, George Crole-Rees and Mrs. Watson, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

SENATORS CARRY OFF TWIN BILL

Cherubs Look Terrible and Start Second Half With Double Defeat

saw the Seraphs put on their frowsy exhibition and Wrigley Field sounded like a morgue when the customers, cash and otherwise, finally realized just how terrible the Angels were.

"Slug" Tolson didn't get a hit all afternoon and fanned three times. Before the day was over the "wolves" were giving him the well-known razzberry chorus and you couldn't blame them at that.

In the first game both clubs put on six-run rallies in the opening inning, Earl Sheely and Wes Schulmerich each hitting home runs with the bases full to provide one for the book. However, after the Angels had tied the score with their big blast, they weren't able to keep pace with the Solons, who bunched hits in the fourth, fifth and seventh rounds to breeze to victory.

Tex Weathersby and "Pinches" Kunz were the starting hurlers who were clouted out of the picture in the opening round. Pudgy Gould relieved Kunz with the bases full, and was greeted by Schulmerich's home run. Staley's circuit clout in the third accounted for the only other Angel run off Gould. Doc Wright and Lefty Peters followed Weathersby to the mound and the celebrated citizen of Big Stone Gap was charged with the defeat.

Keating had things all his own way in the nightcap. The Seraphs garnered but three hits off Keating's salivated offerings, Schulmerich getting two. Hood and Schulmerich bunched hits in the fifth for the Angels' only chance to score, but Keating retired Sandberg and Bigbee, who batted for Plitt, to kill off the rally.

CUNNINGHAM STARTED

Bruce Cunningham started the second game for the home guards, but had to be derricked after he had walked three of the first four men to face him. "Deacon" Plitt prevented the Sacs from scoring in the first, but Hoffman's triple, which Hood allowed to bounce by him, and an infield out gave the victors one in the second that caused Plitt to be charged with the defeat. The Deacon certainly hasn't had any luck out on the mound this season.

Peters pitched against the Solons in the sixth and yielded the other two runs on a walk to Sheely, Severeid's double, Hoffman's infield hit and a squeeze sacrifice by McLaughlin.

The opener started out in wild-and-woolly fashion and the trouble began for Weathersby after he had retired French. Monroe singled and Osborne doubled. Sheehan drew a walk to fill the bases. Sheely might have been retired a couple of times had Tolson shown a little hustle, but he didn't, and the Sac first-sacker took advantage of the fact by clouting a home run over the left-field wall to score three men ahead of himself. After Severeid and Hoffman had singled and McLaughlin had doubled to score another run, Wright took the mound. Kunz's infield out brought Hoffman in with the sixth run of the inning.

Burkett and Jones opened the Angel first with singles and Berger walked to fill the sacks. Tolson struck out, but Staley's single to right brought in a run. When Kunz walked Hood to force in another tally, Ryan sent in Gould. Schulmerich worked the count to two and two and then punched one into the bleachers to tie the score.

STALEY HITS HOMER

Staley homed in the third to put the Angels ahead for the only time during the afternoon.

A walk to Gould, French's sacrifice and Osborne's double tied the score off Wright in the fourth, while Doc was touched for four more hits and two runs in the fifth to give the Sacs what proved to be their winning runs.

Peters was rapped for the visitors' other two tallies in the seventh.

Another one today, with Clyde Barfoot and Rudy Kallio the probable chuckers.

MOREHOUSE ADVANCES IN WRESTLING TRYOUTS

GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.) July 4. (AP)—Three Pacific Coast entrants in the national Olympic wrestling tryouts, which started here today, moved to the second round in the 123½-pound class while one was eliminated in his first match.

William Moorehouse of the Los Angeles A.C. wasted no time in going through his initial test, pinning James Geraci, Mechanics' Institute of Rochester, N. Y., in 2m. 23s. W. W. Beck, Multnomah A.C., Portland, Or., one of the most popular entrants in the tests, put up a furious battle against Ralph Upton, Northwestern University star and Big Ten champion in the 125-pound division, but lost the decision after nine minutes of grappling.

Beck was tossed into the lap of the judges in the bitter contest. He was unhurt and continued.

Cyril Mitchell, another Multnomah A.C. entrant, advanced by taking a decision from Charles Okun, Syracuse University. Howard Ecklund, Los Angeles A.C., outmaneuvered Simon K. Brown, Thompson Works A.C., of Pittsburgh, to win the judges' decision.

Le Roy E. Gayman of the Olympic Club, San Francisco, took the first match in the 134½-pound division by winning a decision over Neal F. Quimby of Springfield, Mass., Y.M.C.A. College, to advance to the second round.

William Morehouse, of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, was the first entrant to gain two victories today. Morehouse defeated a fellow Californian, Harry Sheffield of San Diego Athletic Club, flopping the latter in 7m. 2s. Morehouse was forced into two matches in the 123½-pound class by the draw for the purpose of reducing tomorrow's field to thirty-two men.

Ten Buttrey, Havre, Mont., unattached, also scored a fall victory, pinning Francis Hauser, University of Miami, in 4m. 49s. in the 145-pound division. Another Californian came through in the 145-pound class. He was James Rivers, Los Angeles Athletic Club, who defeated Achille Pappano, Allentown, Pa., and competing unattached, by decision.

Ben F. Sherman, Multnomah Athletic Club, of Portland, Or., easily disposed of G. W. Brownlee of Atlanta, Ga., in a 145-pound class tussle. Sherman pinned Brownlee in 3m. 12s.

BERKELEY NETTERS WILL INVADE EAST

BERKELEY, July 4. (Exclusive) At least five, and possibly six tennis stars will bear the standard of the University of California and the city in eastern net circles this summer, to comprise one of the largest delegations of local players ever to invade the series of important tournaments held annually in the East.

With Helen Wills and Helen Jacobs, the two women tennis stars now in England, at the head of the list, the delegation also will include the Bear varsity pair of Capt. Dick Hoogs and Martin McKee, Edward (Bud) Chandler, former national intercollegiate singles champion, while at California, and either Bobby Seller or Wallace Bates.

Both Hoogs and McKee already are in the East where they participated in the national intercollegiate championships. Chandler, one of the country's most brilliant young players, now is in Europe. He will return to play in several major tourneys. Bobby Seller may go East with Neil Brown as a doubles team, or Wallace Bates may join with Phil Neer, also a well-known amateur, for the same purpose, it is reported.

Bonnie Lass Sets Record

Two strictly official world's records for outboard type speed boats were established yesterday at Lake Elsinore by Bonnie Lass, piloted by Johnnie Graham over the two and one-half mile course at 35.29 miles per hour, also over the five-mile course at 36.2 miles per hour. This boat belongs to the Aloha Yacht Club of Lake Elsinore and was built by Holt Brothers, and equipped with an Evinrude motor. First prize was secured by Commodore David Makay piloting the Flying Scotchman, covering the ten-mile race in 17m. 56s. These records were certified to and under the supervision of O. K. Hunsaker, acting member of the American Power Boat Association of New York.

TERRIS AND MILLER TO MIX TOMORROW

NEW YORK, July 4.—If Sid Terris, the galloping ghost of the New York Ghetto, who stopped galloping for several months after Jimmy McLarnin spread-eagled him on the floor of the Madison Square Garden ring, can defeat Ray Miller, the shifty Chicago boxer, whom he meets in a ten-round bout Friday night at Coney Island stadium, there should be a big revival of boxing interest on the East Side.

BUXTON WINS AUTO RACE

SAN JOSE, July 4. (AP)—Jack Buxton today won the feature race of the automobile speed program at the San Jose speedway by taking the twenty-lap event over the five-eighth-mile track in 9:49 minutes.

COMPSTON, BOOMER IN GOLF WIN

Foreign Stars Beat Farrell and Sarazen in Exhibition Match at New York

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—A twenty-foot putt by Aubrey Boomer of France on the eighteenth green gave the French star and Archie Compston of England a one-up victory over the national open champion, Johnny Farrell of Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Gene Sarazen in an exhibition match today at Sarazen's home course, the Fresh Meadow Country Club.

The match was closely contested with the best ball scores of both sides tied at 66. Compston had the low individual score with a 71, one under par. At the turn the match was even and both teams had a best ball of 32. Sarazen put the Americans one up by winning the eleventh with a birdie three, but Compston evened the score by scoring a par 3 on the twelfth against a 4 for Farrell and Sarazen, both of whom found traps. The next five holes were halved and the match remained even until Boomer sank his twenty-footer for a birdie three in the final hole.

JIMMY WARE BEATEN IN STIFF NET BATTLE

VENTURA, July 4. (AP)—Jimmy Ware, Pasadena, tennis champion of Southern California for boys under 13 years of age, lost a hard-fought match to Sam Gorham of Ojai, Cal., today, in the finals of the Ventura Breakfast Club's third annual tournament. Gorham took the match, 6-4, 4-6, 13-11.

New Cycol motor oil, with 'endurance beyond belief,' reduces carbon troubles

Stability The new Cycol will stand the hardest kind of usage. It is refined to meet the severer conditions of heat and pressure developed by the modern high compression engines, assuring you an unbroken oil film where heat, pressure and friction are greatest.

No Acids The new Cycol refining process eliminates the use of acids, though most refiners use them. While acids clear the "crude oil" they chemically change its structure and composition, thus seriously cutting its lubricating value.

Such oils break down under engine temperatures. They distill off and escape as vapor through the breather exhaust.

The new refining process of Cycol selects from the "crude" those elements of greatest lubricating value and stability in performance, rejecting those elements which readily break down under engine heat and cause excessive carbon deposits.

So Cycol gives a protective oil film on cylinder walls and moving parts, not vapor at the breather pipe.

Less Carbon As to carbon, Cycol like all oils deposits some carbon. But it deposits less carbon than any other oil. The most exhaustive tests have proven that statement.

Even more important, the carbon that is deposited by Cycol is soft and easily removable. It is not hard or sticky and cannot scratch a cylinder.

Prove it yourself Cycol gives you the finest results you have ever known—more perfect lubrication, "endurance beyond belief" and the elimination of carbon troubles.

So fill your crank case with Cycol. You can identify it by the new transparent green-gold color. Sold wherever the Associated Gasoline and Cycol Motor Oil signs are shown. ASSOCIATED OIL COMPANY, Refiners of

Report Reveals Growth of Local Exchange

Records Marked for Value of Transactions

Monthly Increases Shown Since January

June trading value doubled that of January on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, and for the first six months was four times the same period last year, exchange officials report in releasing a statement for the half-year.

June and the half-year figures, recently published, amounted to $83,514,467 and $419,920,149. January transactions were valued at $40,364,535. The first half of 1927 amounted to $100,062,429.

The percentage gains scored this year are in keeping with large increases in preceding years, and clearly demonstrate the rise of interest in the local market.

The 1927 value of $242,272,278, while only slightly exceeding 1926, is, nevertheless, practically double that of 1925, which aggregated $122,268,836. The 1926 value at $203,120,345, was more than three times that of 1924, which was $65,099,293.

Value of transactions each month of this year has recorded an increase over the month immediately preceding with the exception of June and April. February, at $50,653,206, exceeded January by 20 per cent. March surpassed February by 39 per cent, and aggregated $79,535,123. April slumped to $67,668,081, but May established a record for all time at $98,184,737, nearly 50 per cent ahead of April.

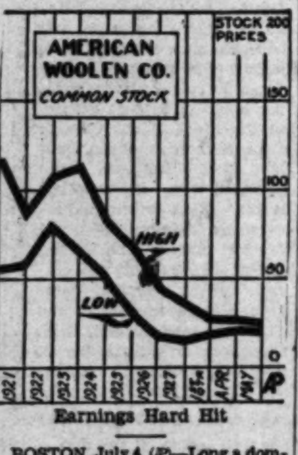
PLIGHT OF WOOLEN INDUSTRY TRACED



Earnings Hard Hit

BOSTON, July 4. (AP)—Long a dominant factor in the woolen manufacturing trade the American Woolen Company has felt keenly the depression of the industry since the war. Its last quarterly dividend on the common stock was declared in July, 1924, and on the preferred, in April, 1927.

The concern controls about 10 per cent of the some 500 woolen mills in this country. It has mills in all of the New England States and in Louisville, Ky. It has $40,000,000 of common stock outstanding and $50,000,000 of 7 per cent cumulative preferred. Its main bonded debt obligation is a guarantee of $11,000,000 in notes of two subsidiaries.

The company's mills increased from thirty-three in 1910 to fifty-five in 1926. In 1927, however, several unproductive mills were closed, and two more have been closed thus far this year. The concern had a net deficit of $422,000 at the close of last year, but had suffered about $500,000 flood damage. Only moderate improvement is indicated for this year.

Rainbow Light to Appeal Suit

In reference to the suit of the Claude Neon Lights, Inc., against E. Machlett & Son, in Court of Appeals, New York, for the second circuit, E. C. Bull, president of the Rainbow Light, Inc., owners of the patent of E. Machlett & Son, received the following statement from Samuel E. Darby, Jr., of Darby & Darby, lawyers for Rainbow Light, Inc.:

"The patent for the product is declared to be infringed by the magnesium carbonate electrode formerly made by Machlett & Son, but which I understand has been obsolete since the time Rainbow Light, Inc., took up the situation and commenced manufacture under its own patent rights. Neither your patents nor your commercial products were at issue in the litigation and this decision does not prevent your sale and manufacture of your commercial product. Although you are no longer using the magnesium carbonate electrodes, in accordance with your instructions, I am beginning at once the preparation of the necessary papers for carrying the case to the Supreme Court of the United States."

Freight Traffic Slumps in Week

WASHINGTON, July 4. (AP)—Revenue freight loadings for the week ending June 23, last, totaled 986,789 cars.

This, the American Railway Association announced today, was a decrease of 16,503 cars, compared with the preceding week and a decrease of 31,271, compared with the corresponding week in 1927.

Miscellaneous freight loading for the week ending June 23, last, totaled 385,344, a decrease of 7164 cars, compared with the corresponding week last year; coal, 144,892, decrease, 11,497; grain and grain products, 33,340, decrease, 7451; live stock, 24,362, decrease, 2721; loading of merchandise in less than carload lots, 256,388, decrease, 1283; forest products, 67,543, decrease, 572; ore, 65,528, decrease, 735, and coke, 9397, decrease, 992.

Northwest Rail Traffic Gains

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—Railroads serving the Northwest territory made the best showing in traffic volume of all carriers reporting earnings thus far this year.

Increases in gross revenues both for May and the first five months of 1928 over the corresponding periods last year, were shown by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, the North Western, the Great Western, Great Northern, Northern Pacific, Union Pacific, the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific, the Omaha and the Soo System.

CEMENT DIVIDEND

Directors of the Monolith Portland Cement Company have declared the regular semiannual dividend at the rate of 8 per cent on the preferred stock, payable this month to stockholders of record June 15, last.

ESPEE REDUCES EXPENSES

Records of Pacific Carrier Attract Increasing Interest of Investors; Price Remains Steady

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Southern Pacific is one of the Pacific Coast investment stocks to perform creditably during the recent reactionary periods in the stock market. After having hit 131¼ on May 9, the highest price since 1912, the stock settled back around 122, and has remained in this immediate neighborhood during and since the drives against the general list of securities.

Large blocks of the stock recently were reported to have passed into the hands of large investors and investment companies, substantially reducing the floating supply. These purchases are attributed to the long-standing supposition that the dividend rate will be raised from $6 to $7 annually. Lately this assumption has been given wider credence in reflection of the satisfactory increases in net profits reported in the monthly statements so far this year.

INVESTORS CONVINCED

Investment interest in Southern Pacific, aside from the speculative possibility of a $7 rate, is predicated on the demonstrated earning capacity of the system over a period of years. Net income for the last five years has averaged about $10.50 a share annually, or a safe margin of $4.50 over the $6 dividend requirements. Last year Southern Pacific earned $9.02 a share against $10.42 in the previous year.

This year's operating results suggest a better twelve months than 1927 demonstrated. Net revenue, after deducting operating expenses, increased 6 per cent for the first five months of the year over the same period of last year, while net railway operating income recorded a gain of 11½ per cent.

First-quarter results show more clearly the progress of the Espee this year. While gross revenues decreased, net operating income registered an increase of nearly 18 per cent over a year ago, largely the result of greater operating efficiency. The improvement of operating efficiency is attributed by the management to the large capital expenditures made in the last few years, which are just beginning to affect earnings.

TRAFFIC HEAVIER

So far this year the Southern Pacific has been favored with a heavier movement of commodities than in the previous year, particularly in the perishable lines. Citrus and vegetable shipments are two of the largest contributors to Espee income, and have not been disappointing. The fall movement of crops in California and the Southwest is expected to show similar improvement.

Unlike the freight business, the passenger traffic on the Southern Pacific is decreasing, and has continued to decrease for some time. The management lays the blame to the private automobiles, and to the increase in the number of bus and stage lines operating in long and short-haul competition. The chances are that the passenger decline is definitely on the downward trend, and Southern Pacific must place greater dependence on freight traffic and improvement in operating efficiency.

Unless adverse circumstances intervene, Southern Pacific is expected to earn around $12 a share this year, or twice annual dividend requirements.

EDISON PAYS REGULAR

Directors of the Southern California Edison Company have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent on the common stock, payable August 15 to stockholders of record the 10th inst.

Business Tone Holds Steady in South Zone

Business conditions in Southern California during the last ten days of the month just passed showed an improvement over the earlier part of the month, according to a survey of this district conducted by Bradstreet's. Sales for the first six months of the year in most lines were below the same period in 1927, but with the reduction in overhead profits were about the same.

Any gains to be made in sales will have to be made from September to December, as the vacation period is now here, with the usual quiet two-month period expected. Chain-store grocers still report small but consistent gains in sales. Mail-order houses report business as satisfactory and encouraging, with novelty lines in demand and staple numbers quieter, with a series of sales in men's clothing helping a quiet month.

Oil production remained fairly steady, although Signal Hill during the past week decreased 4600 barrels a day. This temporary decrease is expected to be overcome during the present week, as fourteen wells are ready to be brought in. Petroleum products shipped from Los Angeles Harbor during the week totaled in excess of 2,000,000 barrels.

Weather conditions have been favorable to crops, which are in good condition, with receipts fairly heavy and prices firmer than a week ago.

Fire Insurance Assets Point Up

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—Assets of leading fire insurance companies have increased more rapidly than the resources of national banks and trust companies, or deposits in savings banks, a statistical study by National Liberty Insurance Company shows. Assets of fifty leading fire insurance companies rose from $947,518,628 at the close of 1924 to $1,264,888,003, or 33.4 per cent to the close of 1927.

Resources of national banks increased from $22,565,919,000 to $26,581,943,000, or 17.8 per cent, and trust companies from $16,025,502,275 to $20,481,182,738, or 27.8 per cent.

Machine Unit Issues Stock

Following the announcement made yesterday of the public financing of the newly formed National Rubber Machinery Company as a consolidation of five concerns, it has been announced by De Fremery & Co., the Pacific Coast member of the underwriting syndicate, that an offering of 35,000 shares of common stock will be made simultaneously with the offering of $1,350,000 first-mortgage convertible 6 per cent bonds.

A conversion privilege will be attached to the bonds, enabling the holder to take common stock in the ratio of four shares for each $1000 bond, at the rate of $25 per share, up to July 1, 1933.

BUILDING-LOAN RESOURCES GAIN

Assets of the Pacific Coast Building Loan Association increased $1,326,197, or 46 per cent, during the six months' period ended June 30, according to an announcement made yesterday by A. A. Anderson, secretary. This is an increase of 89 per cent since July 1, 1927. The association now has assets of $4,190,965. A dividend of 8 per cent was paid on the association's membership shares.

Expects Business to Advance Human Progress

Says Life's Goal Far Away as When He Started

What is success? How do you win it? What do you do with it? There follows one of a series of interviews with eminently successful men, discussing the subject.

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR
[Copyright, 1928, by North American Newspaper Alliance]

It was 8 o'clock. The night air was bracing as I walked briskly across Boston Common, past important business and residential streets and avenues, to where the street lights were not so bright and the houses were less imposing and important.

Up a little side street I went. Could I be mistaken? Had I the wrong address? I rang the bell. It was the correct address, and soon I was in the small, warm, plainly furnished home. Upstairs and back, in the comfortable library, books covering all the walls, logs crackling in the fireplace, I met the merchant prince of Boston.

Edward A. Filene is a small man, weighing possibly 145. His greeting is friendly. His brown eyes are alert and searching. His complexion is clear and ruddy and his features are regular.

As he speaks he chooses and chisels his words. At times he hesitates, seeking the exact word to express his meaning.

"I have always been a shopkeeper," he began. "It has been my principal occupation since I was a boy. I am not a college man, and what I have to say is largely the result of my experiences and study within and without my own line of business.

"I believe the modern business system, despised and derided by innumerable critics, will be both the inspiration and the instrument of the social progress of the future.

"Understand, I am under no delusion about the social efficiency of our industrial civilization. The days of the majority of mankind are still occupied in providing food, clothing and shelter, with little time or training for lifting life to a higher level. This is indefensible.

IMPROVEMENT

"The modern business system is at present more or less lawless, but I believe that we are now in the morning hours of a period in which business men, to survive and succeed, will be compelled to adopt the sort of policies that will give us an

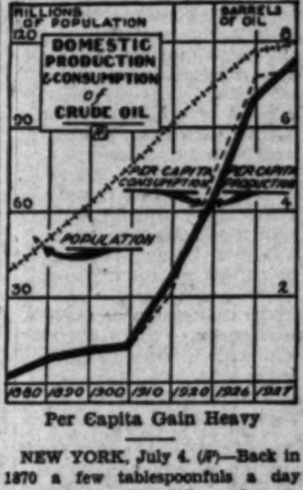
GROWTH OF CRUDE OIL TRADE SHOWN



Per Capita Gain Heavy

NEW YORK, July 4. (AP)—Back in 1870 a few tablespoonfuls a day was enough crude oil for each man, woman and child in the United States, but now the yearly demand is more than seven barrels for each inhabitant.

Back in the '70's the kerosene lamp was coming into vogue, and when per capita consumption reached eight gallons annually statisticians were startled. But today is the day of the automobile and fuel oil, and modern chemistry has discovered innumerable products to be derived from petroleum.

America's consumption of crude oil in 1870 was but 5,261,000 barrels. Since then consumption has increased about 170 times. Last year it was 874,169,000 barrels.

Until the beginning of the century domestic production just kept pace with domestic requirements, but in 1900 America began to export crude oil. For more than a decade American oil fields produced more than America needed.

After the war, however, the automobile became so intensely popular that the crude oil demand surpassed the supply, and foreign fields were called upon to keep our motors humming. Only last year domestic production again exceeded requirements.

REACTION OF STOCK MARKET TO BE BRIEF

Leading bankers and business men throughout the East believe that the reaction in the stock market will be of short duration, William H. Thomas, partner in the local investment house of Drake, Riley & Thomas, said upon his return the other day from an extended business trip to eastern financial centers. Mr. Thomas attended the spring meeting of the board of governors of the Investment Bankers' Association held May 14, last, at White Sulphur Springs, Va.

Recent increases in member bank loans and investments have been accompanied by an expansion in deposits, thus swelling the reserve requirements of the banks. With the growth in reserve requirements of late member banks have been obliged to increase their indebtedness at the reserve banks. deposits in banks of the larger cities. The Federal reserve banks have been selling government securities, have increased the rediscount rate to 4½ per cent, and have suggested to member banks that payment of loans would be a splendid idea.

POLICY RESPONSIBLE

Reduction of bank loans would relieve the situation considerably, but with the heavy demands for funds to finance the movement of crops soon to make their appearance such a desirable change in affairs is not immediately expected. A return of gold to this country and would be a help, but foreign governments have found ample use for their funds in furthering reconstruction and stabilizing programs, and despite the high money rates little has returned to this country.

The underlying cause of the money tightening probably was the Federal reserve action in increasing the rediscount rate to discourage speculation. "Nature taking its course" is accredited with having done the rest. There is some discussion as to whether such efforts have been carried so far as to become detrimental to general business, but no difference of opinion over the success of the move in putting an end to seemingly unlimited market speculation.

National Rubber Machinery Company
(An Ohio Corporation)

First Mortgage Convertible 6% Gold Bonds

To be dated July 1, 1928 To mature July 1, 1943

Coupon Bonds in interchangeable denominations of $1,000 and $500 registerable as to principal only. Interest payable January 1st and July 1st, at the principal office of the National Bank of Commerce in New York without deduction for normal Federal Income Tax not exceeding 2% per annum. The Company will agree to reimburse to any holder of bonds upon proper application any personal property or similar tax not exceeding 5½ mills per annum and any State Income Tax not exceeding 6% per annum, which in any case may be legally assessed under any present or future law of any State of the United States and paid by any such holder by reason of his ownership thereof. Redeemable (otherwise than through the sinking fund) as a whole or in part at the option of the Company at any time upon 30 days' notice at 105% and accrued interest, with right to convert bonds into stock continuing to redemption date.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE IN NEW YORK, TRUSTEE.

CONVERSION PRIVILEGE

The Bonds will be convertible at the option of the holder into shares of Common Stock of the Company at the ratio of 4 shares for each $100 principal amount of Bonds (at the rate of $25 per share), at any time on or before July 1, 1933. On all Bonds presented for conversion, adjustment of interest will be made. The Indenture will provide for equitable adjustment of conversion rates in the event of any change in capitalization, consolidation, etc.

Mr. Stanley W. Harris, President of the Company, summarizes his letter to us as follows:

BUSINESS AND HISTORY: The National Rubber Machinery Company has been incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio to acquire, own and operate the business of 5 concerns (hereinafter called the constituent companies) namely: The Banner Machine Company of Columbiana, Ohio, The Akron Rubber Mold & Machine Company and The Kuhlke Machine Company of Akron, Ohio, De Mattia Brothers, Inc. and De Mattia Foundry & Machine Company of Clifton, New Jersey. All of these companies have been successfully engaged for periods of from 12 to 30 years in manufacturing auto tire molds, cores, tube machines, tire curing presses, watch case heaters, inner tube molds, mechanical goods molds, tire building machines, tire repair equipment, solid tire molds, chucks, power stands, heater presses, etc., and grey iron castings,—in connection with which the constituent companies own 62 valuable patents. The constituent companies are among the most important in the industry and the consolidated company will be the largest of its kind in the world. The constituent companies furnish equipment to approximately 80% of the rubber trade, including practically all the large rubber and tire companies in this country.

Through the consolidation, it is expected that important economies will be effected as a result of reduction of overhead, economy in purchasing equipment and supplies, reallocation of specialized work, elimination of duplication, centralized supervision, joint use of patents, reduction in labor, sales and office personnel and development expense, etc., and decreased costs through volume production.

SECURITY AND PROPERTY: The Bonds, in the opinion of counsel, will be secured by a direct mortgage on substantially all the real estate and fixtures of the Company owned at the date of the execution of the mortgage. The American Appraisal Company, The Lloyd Thomas Company, the Standard Appraisal Company, and the Manufacturers Appraisal Company have appraised the land, buildings, fixtures, machinery and equipment (including the properties to be mortgaged) as of March 31, 1928 (one of the said appraisal companies each appraising one or more of the properties) at an aggregate sound depreciated value of $2,310,488.85. The pro forma balance sheet of the Company as of March 31, 1928, after giving effect to this financing and the transactions incident thereto, shows net assets, exclusive of deferred debit items, of $2,885,404.78,—equivalent to over $2,137.33 for each $1,000 Bond to be presently outstanding, of which over $561,833.44 represents net current assets, the ratio of net current assets to current liabilities being over 3.8 to 1.

EARNINGS: The combined earnings of the constituent companies for the 4 years ended December 31, 1927, averaged $356,454.34 per year, after depreciation, and before charging Federal Income Tax and interest on this issue, as set forth in the report of Messrs. Haskins & Sells, after adjustment of executives' salaries and withdrawals and elimination of certain non-recurring income and charges, all averaging $76,944.31 net during said years. Such earnings for the year 1927 amounted to $426,461.74 and for the first 3 months of 1928 were $139,423.26. The average earnings for the 4 years above stated were equivalent to over 4.40 times the interest requirements on this issue and in 1927 were equivalent to over 5 times such requirements.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: The proceeds of this issue will be used as part of the purchase price for the properties to be acquired by the consolidated company and the balance for working capital and other corporate purposes.

SINKING FUND: The Bonds are to be entitled to a semi-annual sinking fund beginning July 1, 1929, payable in cash or bonds, calculated to be sufficient to retire by maturity 50% of the Bonds at any time issued, the sinking fund to be credited with bonds converted from time to time, but only to an amount not in excess of the sinking fund requirements for the current twelve months period, as more fully specified in the Indenture. The sinking fund, to the extent paid in cash, is to be used for the redemption by lot of bonds at 105%.

MANAGEMENT: The management will include the executive heads who have been responsible for the growth and success of the constituent companies, practically all of whom have been pioneers in the industry.

CONVERSION PRIVILEGE: The Company after giving effect to the financing will have an authorized capitalization of 154,000 shares of no par value Common Stock. Of this amount 54,000 shares are to be reserved for conversion of the Bonds and 17,920 shares will be held unissued in the Company's treasury. The book value of the 82,080 shares of stock to be presently outstanding (without including any value for patents, good-will, trademarks or other intangibles) is $20.50 per share. After deducting depreciation, interest on the Bonds and Federal Income Tax at 12%, the earnings as above in 1927 on the 82,080 shares of Common Stock to be presently outstanding, were at the annual rate of $3.70 per share and for the first three months of 1928 were $104,872.47 or at the annual rate of $5.11 per share.

These Bonds are offered, when, as and if issued and accepted by us, and subject to approval by counsel of all legal matters. It is expected that Interim Receipts or Temporary Bonds will be deliverable on or about July 12th, 1928.

Legal details in connection with this issue (except as to title) will be passed upon by S. Stanwood Menken, Esq., for the Bankers and Messrs. Waters, Andress, Hagelbarger, Wise and Maxon of Akron, Ohio, and Messrs. Bilder & Bilder of Newark, New Jersey, for the Company. Audits by Messrs. Haskins & Sells and appraisals by The Lloyd Thomas Company, American Appraisal Company, Standard Appraisal Company and the Manufacturers Appraisal Company. Real Estate titles by The Bankers Guarantee Title & Trust Company of Akron, Ohio, and Security Mortgage and Title Insurance Company of Passaic, New Jersey.

ORGANIZED INVESTING

CASE 87:

Change of residence prompted this man to Survey his investments

With $265,000 invested, Mr. T—— requested our Organized Investing Council to examine his security list and recommend to him a policy for realignment of holdings. He had been residing in a state imposing excessive taxes on securities of outside corporations. In consequence, his investments had drifted mainly to securities issued within the state. Now he was moving to another state; he wished to construct a strictly investment account.

THE SURVEY

prepared for this investor advised in part:

1. Aside from the fact that his holdings were excessively localized, he had exaggerated an unsound situation by accumulating, chiefly, securities dependent only upon two types of businesses.

2. Specifically, a single type of local industrial, together with non-marketable, local real estate issues, accounted for the greater part of his funds; he held no railroad obligations; his utility holdings were represented entirely by traction bonds. His preferred and common stocks were inconsistent both in proportion to bonds owned and in the selections represented.

3. Some of his foreign government bonds were currently selling several points above their call price.

4. A fundamental policy of sound diversification was recommended. This took into consideration proper geographic distribution, ratio of funded obligations to equity securities, diversification according to industries, and his logical investment unit.

Organized Investing is a constructive, basic, impartial service offered by Blair & Company to individuals and institutions, without cost or obligation. It operates under a Council of trained investment specialists, embodies group judgment and utilizes the broadest investment intelligence. This service makes no recommendations involving the exchange of investment holdings, except when specifically requested. A booklet, describing the service, may be had upon request.

MERCHANT-KING SOCIAL MINDED

increasingly better social order."

"What do you mean by a better social order?" I asked.

"Obviously, a better social order is one where the average man will not be compelled to exhaust himself in merely providing food, clothing and shelter for himself, his wife, and his children, with virtually no energy left for the higher things of life."

"But is not business effort after all primarily a money-making effort?"

Mr. Filene is patient, careful in statement and philosophic. His voice is a rich, well-modulated baritone.

"Yes, business effort is primarily a money-making effort," he replied, "but the successful business of the future will result in some social progress as a by-product. Perhaps I can state why. Mass production and mass distribution, now almost here, will result in undreamed-of economies and efficiency. These economies will be followed by a marked reduction in prices, which in turn will relieve the economic strain in the masses and mitigate the fears of insecurity and unpreparedness against the exigencies of life and labor that today haunt the minds of workmen. The change will make possible a generally higher standard of living, and in every way reduce that class friction which seriously slows down the rate of social advance.

"In this way successful business in the future, under the lash of necessity, will make for social progress. Let me say further that I believe the business of the future cannot be commercially successful unless it is socially sound."

BUSINESS MEN CONTROL

This successful Boston merchant known through the world for his social mindedness, organizer of the European Peace Award Competitions in 1924, co-organizer of the International Chamber of Commerce, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and the Boston Chamber of Commerce, and former vice-president of the International Congress of the Chamber of Commerce, believes that, granted the right leadership, business is a better instrument than politics for the achievement of an increasingly better social order.

"Business determines the career of most of us; politics determines chiefly the career of the office-holders," said Mr. Filene. "Whether they are brilliant or blundering, business men still control the processes of production, distribution and consumption. They control the progress of the nation, simply because this is an industrial nation and their hands happen to be on the levers of power."

"What is your idea of business in the future?" Mr. Filene was asked. The question appealed to this dynamic and far-seeing merchant.

"The successful businesses of the future," he said, "will be those that improve the processes and reduce the cost of production, rid diribution of its present indeensible wastes, bring the price of necessities of life lower and lower, shorten hours of labor and enlarge the margin of leisure, eliminate periodic depression and recurrent unemployment, and limit the area of the industrial battlefield."

A Japanese servant interrupted Mr. Filene to inquire if there was anything more he wished done before retiring. There was nothing. Mr. Filene continued: "Successful business will enlarge the floor space of the council chamber, create better and better working conditions, pay higher real wages, and increase the comfort of both the employees and their customers. These are some of the things that will give us decent social progress."

I had come to ask Mr. Filene about his personal success in life. Here was a man more interested in talking about principles than about personalities.

MOTORLESS MILLIONAIRE

Edward A. Filene, bachelor, unostentatious, quiet, studious, has never owned an automobile. He employs thousands of persons and gives millions of dollars away to those things he considers worth while. But he walks to the store every day, or if the weather is bad, he takes a taxi. His personal ideas of success are interesting.

"Success is not a final word," he said. "It carries with it a challenge. The price of success is straight thinking, hard work, and health. We must pay the price in full in each of these qualifications, and an excess in one part of the price does not make up for a deficiency in another part. Failure to realize this holds more people back than any other thing I know."

"But how does one keep success after getting it?" I asked.

"Any number of so-called successful men are called successful long after they cease to be," Mr. Filene replied. "Before they are considered successful all their mistakes are criticised. After they have arrived, those same mistakes are often thought of as the subtle and shrewd moves of a successful man. I make just as many mistakes now as ever. There is a difference, however. In my youth I fell backward; now I usually fall forward. And that makes just a difference of two full lengths."

"How much part does luck play in success?"

"Luck is chance. Chance comes to everybody. When it comes to the man who is ready, he is lucky.

"Successful men make frequent and often vital mistakes, but they have learned to pick themselves up so fast when they tumble that the average man does not know they have tumbled at all.

"Success, how does one get it, you ask?" The department-store magnate was silent a moment. Then a faint smile came over his face. "It seems like a mockery to ask me. Why, let me tell you. All my life I have been a shopkeeper. Success for a shopkeeper means real service to the public by selling goods at lower and lower prices provided they are made and sold under just conditions. I have spent more than forty years in the retail business. The spread between production cost and consumption cost is greater now than when I entered the business. This is not due to exorbitant profits, because the average store does not make 5 cents in the dollar of sale."

OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

The probability that the production of the Long Beach field at Signal Hill will remain at approximately the 200,000-barrel level for perhaps the balance of the year, with only a minor decline from its peak of a little above 200,000 barrels, is the conclusion which many production experts reach in considering the production possibilities of the Los Angeles basin for the next six months.

It is almost universally admitted that the field reached its top figure, which was about 205,000 barrels a day, about a month ago. The drilling activity there does not indicate that it will exceed that figure. New completions in prospect for the next few months probably will hold the output up to a figure not far below the peak, especially as the settled production of the field appears to be considerably higher than usual in comparison with its flush output.

An interesting development is the fact that while wells in the deep sand at Signal Hill are coming in at rates considerably below the average initial rate established by earlier completions, their proportion of decline is much less than the earlier wells, so when it comes to a matter of settled production the new wells in many cases are as good, and sometimes better, producers than the older wells.

Taking Fresh Start

The General Petroleum Corporation is taking a fresh start in the Ventura-avenue field by setting out to drill up the deep zone of its thirteen-acre Notten lease.

This lease lies farthest south in the proven area on the east side of Ventura avenue. It has been thoroughly drilled in the upper and intermediate zones. Some months ago the General Petroleum drilled one good deep-zone test to 6600 feet, but all of the other production is coming from above 5000 feet.

Now the field department has made the location for its Notten No. 12, and will start it as the first of a series of three wells to be drilled to the gusher sands, which lie between 6000 and 7800 feet. This program is expected to increase General Petroleum daily production by several thousand barrels a day.

Split Seacliff Output

A survey in the production in the Seacliff field reveals the interesting fact that the majority of the production there—a matter of about 4400 barrels—is divided almost equally between two companies, the Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil Company and the Pan American Petroleum Company. A few hundred barrels are produced by the Miley Oil Company and the Standard Oil Company and the General Petroleum Corporation.

Pan American production comes from its Hobson Fee lease, on which there are six producing wells, yielding at rates ranging from 100 to 425 barrels a day, the total being a little more than 1400 barrels.

Chanslor-Canfield has five producing wells on its Hobson lease—two on the Hobson B lease and three on the Hobson C lease—with a total yield of about 1400 barrels.

Well Nears Completion

The Richfield Oil Company expects to have its Augustine No. 1 well in the northwest end of the deep-sand field at Signal Hill on production this morning. The crew was working on the well yesterday, and it made several flows to ten or fifteen feet above the derrick floor, but the yield was principally mud and water, and it was expected that several hours would be required to clean it up.

The Augustine well is in an area where several dry holes were drilled. The Richfield operating department thought it had a dry hole in the Augustine until a few days ago, when the cores suddenly began to improve. Bottom of well is 6876 feet, with about 125 feet of penetration in what appears to be a richly saturated formation.

Shell Completes Well

The Shell company yesterday brought in its Patton & Wilson No. 7 at Signal Hill with an initial output of 1800 barrels, according to official estimates. The well was completed at 6670 feet. It made an actual yield of 610 barrels during the first seven hours, but this is expected to result in a twenty-four-hour gauge of about 1800 barrels.

Shell expects to have another Patton & Wilson well on production today, with the completion of its No. 6, which has been testing for a couple of days at 6590 feet.

Down 2000 Feet

The Langstaff well, which is one of the most interesting tests in the Long Beach area, being situated west of the Pacific Electric tracks in the northwest extension of the Signal Hill deep zone field, is drilling ahead at about 2000 feet, and has had several small but encouraging showings, according to official of the Standard Oil Company.

Standard is not drilling the well, but has taken some acreage from the original syndicate owning the project, and is reported to be contributing to the cost of drilling the test.

Prepares for Test

The Miley Oil Company is preparing to make a test of its No. 1 well on the beach at Seacliff, according to field reports. This well is the deepest hole in the field, bottom being at 5606 feet. It is understood that drilling has been stopped and that the hole is being reamed preparatory to setting a string of casing.

Miley No. 2 is down 5160 feet, but has been idle for a few days, waiting for additional tools.

Hits Light Oil

While drilling for asphalt in Bole Canyon near Fillmore the Ventura Asphalt Company struck a good streak of light oil sand at 315 feet, after having gone through sixty feet of asphalt. The discovery was made on the Arundell property, which the company has under lease. According to field reports, the asphalt showing will be abandoned for the present and the drill will continue to go down for a test of the light-oil possibilities.

More Field Activity

According to the State Mining Bureau report for the week, oil field activity last week was almost double that of the previous week, from the standpoint of new wells started, the comparison being twenty-nine against sixteen.

Tests for water shut-off last week numbered nineteen, as compared with twenty-five during the previous week. Yearly total to date, 577; total to same date last year, 614.

Deepening or redrilling jobs last week numbered fourteen, the same number as during the previous week. Total to date this year, 396; total to same date last year, 441.

Abandonments last week numbered fifteen, as compared with one during the preceding week. Total to date this year, 325; total to same date last year, 261.

Old Bunko Game Swindles Mayor

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.) July 4. (AP)—H. J. Anderson, 30 years of age, Mayor and police judge of Hanley Falls, Minn., today caused warrants to be issued here for two men he alleged swindled him out of $5000 in a "stock exchange" deal.

The men named were J. A. Thompson, alias O. T. Utterback, and H. M. Simmons, alias Elliott Stevenson.

Anderson told police one of the men visited him in Hanley Falls to negotiate for purchase of a restaurant and told him how to "make money fast." Anderson met the man and his partner in St. Joseph by prearrangement and was told that $50,000 had been made in the stock market, but it was necessary to show $60,000 in cash as evidence of good faith before the stock winnings could be collected.

As his share of the good-faith money, Anderson put up $5000. The trio was to meet later in Sioux Falls, S. D., to divide the profits, but Anderson was the only one there, he said.

CRASH KILLS PILOT AND HURTS STUDENT

BEAUMONT (Tex.) July 4. (AP)—Casper Alexander, airplane pilot, was killed, and Fred C. Mitchell, student aviator, seriously injured when their machine crashed at the municipal airport here today. The plane was owned by Alexander, who was giving Mitchell an instruction flight when the machine went into a spin at an altitude of about 100 feet and crashed.

New Treasury Offering Made

WASHINGTON, July 4. (AP)—The Independence Day announcement of the Treasury provides for an offering of long-term bonds to be used primarily for the retirement of outstanding third Liberty loan bonds.

The offering, consisting of Treasury 3 3-8 per cent bonds of 1940-43, will be limited only by the amount of third 4 1-4s tendered and accepted, but the cash offering will be restricted to approximately $250,000,000.

If the exchange subscriptions aggregate $500,000,000, the Treasury said no other long-term bonds will be offered in the retirement program of the third Liberties, which are redeemable next September 15, and cease to bear interest after that date.

Delivery of the new bonds on exchange subscriptions will be made on and after the 16th inst., upon acceptance of the thirds, interest on which will be paid in full up to September 15. Cash subscriptions are invited as of August 1 at par when the new bonds will be delivered. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to withdraw the offering at any time without notice, but the exchange offering probably will be kept open until the 31st inst.

Parts Taken From Bremen

ST. JOHNS (N. F.) July 4. (AP)—The Junkers monoplane Bremen in which Capt. James Fitzmaurice, Capt. Hermann Koehl and Baron Von Huenefeld flew across the Atlantic Ocean, has been stripped of all its moveable fixtures by persons in the vicinity where the plane landed, according to reports received here today.

The Bremen lies in a dilapidated condition midway between Long Point and Blancsablon in Labrador. It has been unguarded.

Tour Planes Go to Texas Today

TULSA (Okla.) July 4. (AP)—The twenty-four planes in the national air tour will take off tomorrow morning for Fort Worth, Tex., to resume the test of endurance and air supremacy which closes twenty-four days hence.

With W. G. Andrus, meteorologist from Hadley Field, New York, accompanying the tour, the pilots will have the advantage of expert first-hand advice regarding flying conditions en route.

STATE FAIR OFFERS FORTUNE IN PRIZES

SACRAMENTO, July 4. (AP)—California is offering $105,000 in premiums, prizes and purses for events and exhibits at its fair September 1 to 8, Charles W. Paine, secretary-manager of the fair board, announced today. Paine drew a comparison with the first fair prizes in 1854, when the awards totaled only $4660.

COAL TIPPLE BURNED

FERNIE (B. C.) July 4. (AP)—Fire yesterday destroyed the tipple of the Corbin Coals, Ltd., at Corbin, B. C., which probably will cause the mine to close down, throwing 200 men out of work. No estimate of the loss has been made.

Bride Seized in Husband's Death

FT. SMITH (Ark.) July 4. (AP)—A bride and her brother are held for investigation in connection with the death of a man identified as her husband whose body was found in Frog Bayou, Sunday. Another brother is sought.

Mrs. Birdie Cooper Adams Clayton was arrested after identification of the body as that of her husband, W. G. Clayton of Tulsa. Her brother, Hugh Cooper of Rudy, Ark., had been arrested and officers said they are seeking Russell Cooper, another brother.

R. S. Wilson, prosecuting attorney, said he will file murder charges in connection with the man's death.

Mrs. Clayton is quoted as denying any knowledge of Clayton's death.

Ocean Plane to Carry Lifeboat

PARIS, July 4. (AP)—The Polish aviators, Capts. Idzigowsky and Kapula, today bought a collapsible rubber boat for use in case the plane in which they will attempt to fly across the Atlantic should be forced down.

Weather reports still are unfavorable tonight and it is unlikely that the start of the east-to-west attempt will be made before Friday morning.

BOY PICNICKER KILLED

LITTLETON (Colo.) July 4. (AP)—Joe Fennell, 15 years of age, was killed, and several youthful picnickers injured today when an automobile truck carrying a score of young people of the University Christian Church holiday outing plunged over an embankment.

TOLL HEAVY IN DROUGHT OF MEXICO

Farmers Face Great Loss as Cattle Die and Crops Burn in Record Dry Spell

MEXICO CITY, July 4. (AP)—Cattle are dying, crops burning up, farmers are facing heavy losses, and some of them ruin, in many parts of Mexico as the result of one of the worst droughts the country has ever known, a survey by the newspaper Excelsior says.

Conditions are worse in the Central States, the granary of Mexico, where Excelsior says the corn crop is almost ruined, and in the cattle and grazing regions to the north, between Mexico City and the border. Some of this territory has had no rain to speak of for a year and none of it much rain. The rainy season is overdue all over the republic, except in the tropics and the Isthmus of Tehauntepec. The Weather Bureau has recorded no such drought in its thirty years of existence.

The authorities have attempted no financial estimate of the crop and cattle losses, but say they are large.

Airplane Drops Drowning Man Life Preserver

LONG BEACH (Wash.) July 4. (AP)—A life preserver dropped by the pilot of an airplane who had seen his plight in the surf today saved the life of Clarence Wheaton of Independence, Mo., when he was caught by treacherous currents quite a distance off shore here.

Friends tried in vain to reach the drowning man from shore, but two aviators, Derock and Monroe, seeing the struggling man, dropped him a life preserver, which Wheaton grasped and held to until reached by a boat. He was exhausted when rescued but was revived by artificial respiration.

Terribles Inundaciones en la República Mejicana

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, 4 de Julio. Enormes cantidades de ganado han perecido; numerosos campos se encuentran arruinados, cuantiosas cosechas han desaparecido y muchos agricultores se encuentran arruinados a consecuencia de las inundaciones que en varias partes de la República Mejicana se han verificado en los últimos días con motivo de las lluvias inusitadas que han caído y que sobrepasan, según los informes del diario "Excelsior," a todos los registros anteriores.

Las condiciones son peores que en ninguna parte en los Estados del Centro del país, donde la cosecha de maíz se considera que se ha perdido totalmente. Iguales condiciones prevalecen en la región ganadera del norte, donde han muerto abundantes rebaños de toda clase. Hay regiones del país donde todo el mund afirma que jamás había llovido lo que ahora. Esto parece ser verdad pues el Observatorio Meteorológico ha dicho que hacía treinta años no se verificaba tan abundante precipitación pluvial en toda la República Mejicana. Las únicas zonas en las que no ha llovido exageradamente son en la región tropical y especialmente en el Istmo de Tehuantepec.

Las autoridades respectivas no han podido valorizar el monto de las pérdidas, que se estiman, sin embargo, en varios millones de pesos.

El Nieto de Rockefeller Trabajará en la Liga

GINEBRA, 4 de Julio.—Los oficiales de la Liga de las Naciones han declarado que desean la venida de John Rockefeller III al seno ésta como empleado, se verifique con toda naturalidad para evitar todo embaraso en la actuación del joven estudiante de la Universidad de Princeton.

Los dichos oficiales pidieron completa cooperación para evitar murmuraciones y comentarios acerca del joven Rockefeller, quien trabajará como cualquier empleado y percibirá su sueldo, que para los asistentes provisionales del verano es generalmente de cuarenta pesos a la semana.

Interesante Estadística Acerca del Automóvil

CHICAGO, 4 de Julio.—La Asociación Americana de Motoristas y Propietarios de Automóviles acaba de dar a conocer datos interesantísimos acerca del costo de sostenimiento de un automóvil en Estados Unidos de Norte América.

Un promedio llevado a cabo minuciosamente da a conocer que el costo de un automóvil es de un dólar por día como promedio, teniendo en cuenta que asciende a $953 el costo promedio de los automóviles que se venden en un año en el mercado y que se tiene en expectativa para cada automóvil siete años de vida.

El sostenimiento y operación de un automóvil cuesta a su dueño $229 anuales; la depreciación se calcula apenas en $136. Combustible y lubricantes representan un 44 por ciento del costo total de sostenimiento. El costo de reparaciones por cuenta del mano de obra es de $47 y el de piezas de refacción $41; por concepto de llantas la cuenta asciende a $40.

Preparando el Campo para las Carreras Aéreas

El Campo de Mines está siendo acondicionado para albergar a cerca de 100,000 personas con motivo del torneo aéreo que tendrá lugar muy en breve en esta ciudad. Se espera que acudan a presenciar las carreras—séase el concurso de vuelos—muchísimas personas de fuera, que permanecerán en esta ciudad los tres días consecutivos que durarán aquellas. Durante la noche el campo va a ser iluminado con grandes reflectores para que los asistentes puedan ver vuelos nocturnos. Durante el día se llevarán a cabo interesantísimas maniobras, de acuerdo con los métodos más perfeccionados de aviación.

Todos los Fiscales Federales Tendrán Más Sueldo

Ayer se hizo público por el Fiscal de la Nación, señor McNabb, que todos sus ayudantes, tanto en los departamentos civil como criminal, van a recibir un sensible aumento en sus sueldos de acuerdo con una disposición recientemente aprobada por las cámaras. Los actuales sueldos, según se manifiesta, fluctúan de $2750 a $5000 al año, respectivamente, según el tiempo de servicio. También se anunció que Emmet E. Doherty, por su propia voluntad, ha sido trasladado del departamento de lo criminal al civil. Su puesto será ocupado por W. R. Gallagher, que es ahora fiscal en el tribunal del Juez Hennings, y en lugar de éste se nombrará a P. V. Davis, que antes estaba en el departamento de lo civil.

Mujer de un Marino Arrepentida de Serlo

Jaimito Anderson es marinero. Sus relatos de aventuras de viaje sedujeron a una romántica muchacha que se quiso casar con él, sin darse cuenta, sino hasta después, de lo aburrida y solitaria que es la vida de una mujer de marino. "Me casé con él un día en que él se hallaba en el puerto; pero al día siguiente se marchó, y sólo regresó dos veces en todo un año," declaró la señora Zoya de Anderson al Juez Rosencranz, que estaba conociendo de su causa de divorcio "Al año siguiente ya no regresó," añadió la pobre mujer. En vista de ésto el citado juez le concedió en el acto el decreto de divorcio que pedía.

Crippled Ship Taken in Tow

NORFOLK (Va.) July 4. (AP)—The Coast Guard cutter Carrabassett early today took in tow the American steamer Governor John Lind, which was drifting helplessly at sea with a broken shaft 160 miles off Cape Hatteras. The Coast Guard craft is expected to make this port with the steamer tomorrow.

The Governor John Lind of the Bull Steamship Line, en route from Porto Rico to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk, was rendered helpless when her shaft was broken last Thursday.

The vessel has a few passengers aboard and a crew of thirty-one.

New York's Greatest Opportunity for Growth

Staten Island (Borough of Richmond, New York City) has 2½ times the area of Manhattan but only 1/14th as much population. It increased 16% from 1920 to 1925, while New York City as a whole increased 6%. It is within thirty minutes of the centre of metropolitan New York (see above).

Three New Bridges

Three new bridges to New Jersey—one to Elizabeth, one to Perth Amboy, both open, and the third to Bayonne, to be opened in the near future—will greatly increase the inflow of population.

A bridge over the Narrows to Brooklyn, and a tunnel underneath, are being proposed. These will still further increase growth.

Staten Island	has	2,600	persons	per	square	mile
Queens	"	6,700	"	"	"	"
Bronx	"	24,000	"	"	"	"
Brooklyn	"	31,000	"	"	"	"
Manhattan	"	88,000	"	"	"	"

Staten Island may expect much industrially and residentially through direct connection with these more densely populated areas. If Staten Island had the density of Brooklyn, its population would be 1,677,000 instead of only 150,000. It would have 500,000 electric customers instead of 36,000 as at present.

Staten Island does not desire a speculative real estate boom. It welcomes, however, actual prospective residents and industries. They will find here an unparalleled opportunity for locating in the New York metropolitan area. Unlimited electric service for industrial and domestic use is made available throughout the Island by the Associated System.

LARGE CUT IN UTILITY COST MADE

Reductions During First Six Months of 1928 Put at $3,293,247

Net reductions of $3,293,247 annually in public utility rates were ordered into effect by the State Railroad Commission during the first six months of 1928, according to a report made public yesterday by W. R. Williams, examiner in charge of the local office.

Gross reductions were $3,392,458. Increases allowed amounted to $99,211. Increases of more than $1,500,000 requested by utility companies were denied.

Although the greatest savings were made in Northern California, reductions in Southern California amounted to more than $1,000,000. These were brought about by a cut in the rates of the Pacific Electric Railway, Huntington Beach Water Company, San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric Company and Southern Counties Gas Company.

More than $250,000 has been cut off the rates of the Pacific Gas and Electric Corporation by a system of rate adjustments recently instituted by the commission. Under this system the price of gas fluctuates automatically with the cost of the materials from which it is manufactured.

First Bell No Open Signal to Pedestrians

A pedestrian who steps into traffic at a crossing after the first bell has rung but before the second bell, does so at his own peril, the custom of pedestrians to the contrary notwithstanding, Judge McComb of the Superior Court, has ruled.

Margart Gibbs sued the Davis Standard Bread Company and others for $10,325 as damages to compensate her for injuries received when a company truck struck her at an intersection. The defendant showed by her own admissions, that the truck had just entered the intersection as the first bell rang and that she was struck before the second bell rang.

Judge McComb instructed the jury to find for the defendant, ruling that entry into an intersection before the ringing of the second bell is plainly contributory negligence on the part of a pedestrian.

Flyer Saves Woman From Ocean Death

Pilot Franklin Young of the plane 35419 on the Los Angeles-to-Avalon run was on his way to Catalina airport yesterday when he saw a woman struggling in the water well out from shore. He landed his plane on the water, taxied over and brought her aboard. She was on the verge of drowning when her rescuer arrived well ahead of shore boats that were putting out to her rescue.

The girl was Miss Jane Cupples of Altoona, Pa., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Dolan of 4101 South Hobart Boulevard. Yesterday she went canoeing with Bob Lamphier and Mitchell Hamilton. The canoe swamped and the girl started to swim ashore with the assistance of a small cushion. The cushion failed as a life preserver and became waterlogged, and Miss Cupplies, not an expert swimmer, was at the point of collapse. Her companions were rescued by launches. Young is pilot for the Pacific Marine Airways division of the Western Air Express.

LOCAL MAN SIDESTEPS GOV. SMITH

NATHAN NEWBY

Declaring it is the patriotic duty of every Democrat to defeat the Presidential aspirations of Gov. Smith of New York because he has repudiated the party platform on the prohibition question, Nathan Newby, local attorney and active leader in Democratic circles, yesterday announced that he will vote for Herbert Hoover and fight against the election of Smith.

During his many years active service in the Democratic party Newby became well known for his support of President Wilson's administration and his efforts four years ago to nominate William G. McAdoo as a candidate for the Presidency. In issuing a statement voicing his opposition to Smith, Newby said it contains his own personal views only that he has not consulted McAdoo with reference to the Democratic nominee.

By way of explanation of the statement Newby said that he has not severed his affiliations with the Democratic party or principles but believes that his loyalty to the Constitution and the nation obligates him to espouse the fight against the party candidate. The statement follows:

"Being unwilling to attempt the domestication of the Tammany Tiger by installation in the White House, or the extension of Tammany influence to the capital of the nation, and also being unwilling to encourage the nullification of the Eighteenth Amendment and the laws enacted for its enforcement, by supporting the nominee of the Democratic party for the Presidency of the United States, I shall vote and work against the election of Gov. Smith to this high office.

"Since he, with characteristic frankness, has repudiated the platform upon which he is supposed to run on the question of prohibition, every Democrat who holds different views from those of Gov. Smith should assert those views in the only effective method left, namely, the election of Mr. Hoover as President of the United States, and I

CITY SPENDS HUGE SUM IN UPBUILDING

Public Improvements of Past Fiscal Year Exceed Previous Record

Public improvements completed and accepted by the city during the fiscal year which closed on June 30 totaled in cost $27,537,920, according to the report by City Engineer Shaw. This is an increase of $4,755,210 over the public improvements accepted during the previous fiscal year which ended June 30, 1927, which was $22,782,710.

The improvements include bridges, storm drains, street paving, sidewalks, curbs and gutters.

The total included the Riverside-Dayton bridge across the Los Angeles River which was completed at a cost of $292,000.

Improvements now nearing completion, the expense of which will show in the public improvement total for the fiscal year which began last Sunday, include the new Spring-street bridge completed last week at a cost of $236,000, and the Glendale-Hyperion bridge to be completed in October at an expense of $1,068,000.

GLORIOUS FOURTH CAUSES DISPLAY OF PATRIOTISM

Los Angeles Observes Day With Picnics, Speeches, Fireworks and Numerous Outings

With flags flying, minor displays of fireworks and orators extolling the day of the nation's birth, Los Angeles celebrated the Fourth of July in a characteristically American manner yesterday. The many patriotic exercises and addresses given at community centers in most instances were followed by games and athletic contests for young and old. In the evening there were numerous programs and community singing.

City park authorities reported the capacity of the parks taxed to handle the throngs that gathered, many families going early with basket lunches and spending the entire day. At a number of the parks there were band concerts, given under the auspices of the park department.

BEACHES POPULAR

Beach resorts, with ideal weather prevailing, proved to be one of the leading attractions for the holiday crowds which were strung out on the seashore all the way from the harbor to San Diego.

The mountain districts were literally overrun with persons who went up by foot trail, automobile and even street cars for the day. Even before daylight the highways were humming with the roar of holiday motorists bound for canyon and mountain-top for the day.

Of the city park celebrations, that at Hollenbeck Park under the auspices of the Hollenbeck Heights Improvement Association was as typically American as any. Along with the great number of native Americans there was a lively sprinkling of other nationalities, most of them represented by large families with fat picnic baskets parked in the shade of the trees.

PROGRAM GIVEN

The program at this park, with President Frank Belcher of the improvement association as chairman, included a number of speakers, a band concert, athletic contests and a feature in the form of a husband-and-wife-calling contest. Louis Brillont, a baker residing at 2126 East Second street, proved to be the most efficient wife caller and won a box of soap for his ability. A woman, whom the judges knew only as Mrs. Brown, won the husband-calling contest against a field of husky-lunged mesdames.

Lincoln Heights Commercial and Industrial Association celebrated the day with a picnic at Lincoln Park, attended by nearly 5000 persons. The Knights of Columbus held their picnic at Luna Park and the 233 Club of Hollywood, a Masonic theatrical organization, had a picnic at Sunland. The Irish of the Southland held their picnic at Rosehill Park, and the Southern California Lutherans held forth at Exposition Park.

AQUATIC EVENTS

Several thousand persons attended the Westlake Park program sponsored by the Los Angeles City Park Board and the Greater Westlake Business Association. Boat races under the auspices of the Elks and other aquatic stunts were features of the morning's entertainment. John Steven McGroarty was the speaker in the afternoon. A musical program followed.

"One hundred and fifty-two years ago hundreds of people waited anxiously outside old Independence Hall in Philadelphia for news of the deliberations of men who were deciding whether to remain under the British flag or secede from Great Britain," said Mr. McGroarty, "when an excited little boy ran up the stairs of the belfry and cried: 'Ring, grandpa, ring!' The old Liberty Bell tolled a message of freedom which rang around the world, not only for this country but also the beginning of freedom and action for the whole world."

Mr. McGroarty outlined the growth of this country and pointed out that although the United States is the greatest country the world has known in power and riches, it never has used its strength to crush weak and dependent nations.

Entrants for free-for-all boat and canoe races ranged in ages from 14 to 42 years, and in every event the younger paddlers crossed the

FOUR DIE FROM AUTO CRASHES

High-Speed Driver Killed in Highway Collision

Policeman and Two Women Traffic Victims

Almost Score of Others Hurt in Mishaps

Four persons paid for their holiday outings with their lives yesterday, and almost a score more suffered injuries as a result of the traffic conditions that prevailed on the highways throughout the country.

Two men, one a police officer, and two women died, the women almost instantly and the men later at hospitals in this city, after emergency treatment had proved futile.

Addes F. Gardner, 56 years of age, residing at 746 Whitley avenue, died at General Hospital of injuries received in an automobile crash at 3:30 p.m. yesterday.

According to Van Nuys police Gardner was traveling at a high rate of speed along Burbank Road and at the intersection of Woodman avenue and Burbank Road his car crashed head-on into the side of a closed car driven by John T. McCarthy of 142 South Doheny Drive.

VICTIM IDENTIFIED

McCarthy received serious injuries, and Gardner's condition was so grave that he was rushed from the Van Nuys Emergency Hospital to General Hospital, where he died at 5 o'clock.

In the McCarthy car also were Mrs. Bess K. McCarthy, the driver's wife, and a friend, Miss Ann Watts of 7522 Hampton avenue. They were cut by flying glass and received severe bruises.

Van Nuys police attach no blame to McCarthy.

A woman believed to be Miss Victoria Archer, 23 years of age, of 553 North Garfield avenue, Pasadena, was killed instantly when the automobile driven by W. V. Kelmus, a Los Angeles police officer on duty at Santa Paula, turned over in a ditch on the Castaic Junction-Santa Paula highway. Kelmus, injured fatally, was taken to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where, before dying, he told officers he did not know the name of his woman companion, but had heard her say she was a linotypist on a Pasadena newspaper. From this clew Miss Archer was traced, and it was learned from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Archer, that she had started out in the morning to drive to Santa Paula with Kelmus.

ORANGE COUNTY FATALITY

Mrs. Dolores Rodriguez, 50 years of age, of Redlands, was killed when an automobile driven by Jose Salazar of Brea, Orange county, was crowded from the highway by the blinding headlights of another car on the Brea Canyon Road one mile south of Valley Boulevard, and overturned in the ditch after striking a telephone pole.

Her body was taken to the Todd & Reeves undertaking parlors in Pomona.

Ralph Rodriguez, husband of the victim, a Miss Lopez, and Mr. and Mrs. Salazar escaped with minor injuries.

Frank E. Simmons, 61, of 409 East Ninety-third street, was injured

WITH a $30,000,000 dairy corporation getting ready to invade Southern California, having outgrown Seattle, it would seem that the problem of the farmer is not unanswerable.

The truth is that neither the Democrats nor the Republicans can do as much for the farmer as he can do for himself.

In the past the farmer has stuck seed in the ground, hoping something would grow; and that somebody would want to buy it. The farmer of the future will shoot directly at a market need.

TOO MANY KISSES

Strange stories come out of Poland, but I confess skepticism as to the bride who kissed 7000 guests at her wedding.

Anna Held once engaged in a kissing marathon, arranged by an enterprising press agent. Science was enriched by the discovery that after about 300 times the human kissing apparatus refuses to work.

FUMES

Incidentally, I wonder what kind of a jag a bride would acquire were she to have kissed 7000 Democratic delegates at Houston. After having kissed her way through the New York delegation, she would have had to shut one eye to see which map she was next to smack.

STEPHEN MATHER

It is the rare good luck of the United States that the needed man is always poked to the front. And in no instance has this country been luckier than in Stephen Mather, now in Los Angeles for the public-parks conference.

GUARDIANS OF CHARM

Through his practical idealism politics has been kept out of the national parks. It is not too much to say that no department of any government in the world maintains finer or higher standards.

Mather's attitude is reflected by the kind of men you find in charge of the parks. I have never met an employee of the national park department who did not seem to regard himself as a host at a party; never one who did not show an anxiety that you should realize all the charm and loveliness of his park.

It would be a delightful experience to go through a national park even if there was nothing there to see.

HIGHBROW

The conference of the little theater societies now in session in Pasadena rather overwhelms me.

It seems that when you go to a little theater you should take special notice of the nuances, rhythm, projection and ensemble.

And here I have been going, from time to time, just to enjoy a good show.

GAMBLING HELL

A floating gambling hell is operating three or four miles off Long Beach. There seems no law that can touch it.

This, together with the notorious operations of the rum fleet, shows a very urgent need for a revision of international treaties.

OUT OF DATE

The rule that the sovereignty of a nation extends only three miles from the shore line is a relic of sailing days. Under modern conditions it is an absurdity. Three miles under present transportation conditions is a matter of fifteen minutes.

The treaties should be revised

BUILDING RESTRICTIONS WIN

Court Holds Clause in Deed Fully Binds Buyer of Real Estate Under 1928 Conditions

A subdivider can enforce by injunction a covenant in a deed whereby grantee undertakes to erect no building upon land conveyed except upon approval of his plans by the subdivider. Judge Gates of the Superior Court has so ruled in a decision on a case typical of hundreds of similar situations in Los Angeles county. The California Trust Company is the plaintiff and Robert P. Biggart is the defendant.

The California Trust Company sold a lot in a subdivision to which it held title. Biggart acquired title from the purchaser. The deed carries rigid restrictions and provides that every building to be erected must be approved as to plan and design by the company or its agent.

Biggart, it is asserted, submitted plans for a building to an agent of the company. The agent disapproved them and Biggart started to build despite the disapproval. The company thereupon sued for an injunction. At the hearing it was argued in behalf of Biggart that no such a covenant could be included in a deed and that, therefore, Biggart could not be enjoined.

The courts must take judicial notice of modern tendencies in community planning, however, Judge Gates declared. Perhaps such a covenant would not have been legal in the past, but the times demand that they be recognized, he pointed out. He, therefore, over-ruled a demurrer to the complaint and issued the injunction.

Red Cross Ends Sawtelle Work

In line with the Red Cross policy governing service in soldiers' homes throughout the country medical social service work of the American Red Cross has been discontinued at the National Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle. All the organization's workers were withdrawn as of June 30 and were replaced by appointees of the board of governors of the homes.

Red Cross workers at Sawtelle who are affected by this ruling include Miss Marjorie Jackson, director of the service for the past four years, and her staff. Red Cross chapters in Southern California will continue to support the work of the medical social workers employed by the government just as they have supported the Red Cross staff in the past.

NO EARLY BIRDS FOR "JIMMIE"

Nor Early Ham an', Either, for That Matter, as Breakfast Club Finds Out to Its Sorrow, But Walker Agrees to Come Next Time

Sunrise breakfasts and dewy dawn talks before a microphone, even on Independence Day, are not a part of the informal program being followed by Mayor Walker of New York, during his rest and vacation visit to Southern California.

This discovery was made yesterday morning when members of the Breakfast Club gathered for "ham and eggs," anticipating a visit of the eastern executive attired in sartorial daylight splendor, and were informed by messenger that Mayor Walker was yet asleep in his room at the Roosevelt in Hollywood, and would be unable to enjoy the morning meal, make a speech and listen to several more.

Mayor Walker's agreeable secretary who directs a portion of the social activities of the New York chieftain says he makes no such "unearthly hour" engagements for "Jimmie," but members of the Breakfast Club stand on the asserted personal agreement of the Mayor.

Receipt of the regrets of Mayor Walker called for a reply from the Ham and Eggers, and they sent him the motto of the club, reading: "Any old bum can stay out all night, but it takes a thoroughbred to get up in the morning."

Evidently "Jimmie" appreciated the message for he immediately replied that he would meet them at dawn at the morning melee next Wednesday.

Mayor Walker and his party spent yesterday afternoon and evening at the beach where they were the guests of more than 100 members of the motion-picture colony of Hollywood.

Today he will make his first public appearance since his arrival Tuesday, as the honored guest at the noon-time meeting of the Democratic Luncheon Club in the ballroom of the Alexandria. Mayor Walker will make a short address and will meet the leaders of the Democratic party in Los Angeles, but will refrain from any discussion of the coming campaign of Gov. Smith. A large attendance is expected today, as more than 1000 reservations have been made.

BIGOTRY ASSAILED AS PERIL

Speakers at Knights of Columbus Outing Call for Adherence to Principle of Religious Liberty

Bigotry was assailed and a nation-wide adherence to the provision of the Constitution guaranteeing religious liberty pleaded for by Rev. Joseph Sullivan and Joseph Scott at the annual Fourth of July outing of the Knights of Columbus yesterday at Luna Park. More than 6000 persons were in attendance.

Mr. Scott's reference to his Republican affiliation, and his appeal to his audience to base their selection of Presidential candidates on political and not religious preference brought forth a storm of applause.

"Liberty to be genuine," he declared, "must recognize and guarantee freedom of conscience—the right of religious worship and that there shall be no religious test for public office. The fathers of our country at the time of the adoption of our Constitution and its first amendments were determined to avoid the danger of sectarian beliefs interfering with the rights of the citizen to his complete political enfranchisement. While it is true that these controversies, for the most part, were among the various Protestant denominations, nevertheless, the principle is just as sound today as it was then—there can be no wholesome political life in this free land where a particular form of religion has to be either a requirement for public office, or a bar sinister.

"It would be highly improper on this, the nation's birthday, for me to discuss partisan politics, for my life-long adherence to the Republican party is well known to you, but wholly outside of partisan politics, I think it well to stress the fact that there are today two candidates for the Presidency representing great political parties—one is a Catholic and the other is a Protestant. Neither should be supported because of his particular religious belief, nor should either be opposed on that account. Anyone who appears to religious passion or prejudice along that line is not a good American. Both platforms are silent upon this question—and properly so if they are to maintain the respect of the American people—and we must recognize the wisdom of the leaders of both national parties.

"It would be a heinous thing if this country should be divided up into religious blocs renewing again the wretched and horrible centuries of religious strife which stained the map of Europe. The fathers of our

Parts Taken From Bremen

ST. JOHNS (N. F.) July 4. (AP)—The Junkers monoplane Bremen in which Capt. James Fitzmaurice, Capt. Hermann Koehl and Baron Von Huenefeld flew across the Atlantic Ocean, has been stripped of all its moveable fixtures by persons in the vicinity where the plane landed, according to reports received here today.

The Bremen lies in a dilapidated condition midway between Long Point and Biancsablon in Labrador. It has been unguarded.

Tour Planes Go to Texas Today

TULSA (Okla.) July 4. (AP)—The twenty-four planes in the national air tour will take off tomorrow morning for Fort Worth, Tex., to resume the test of endurance and air supremacy which closes twenty-four days hence.

With W. G. Andrus, meteorologist from Hadley Field, New York, accompanying the tour, the pilots will have the advantage of expert first-hand advice regarding flying conditions en route.

Bride Seized in Husband's Death

FT. SMITH (Ark.) July 4. (AP)—A bride and her brother are held for investigation in connection with the death of a man identified as her husband whose body was found in Frog Bayou, Sunday. Another brother is sought.

Mrs. Birdie Cooper Adams Clayton was arrested after identification of the body as that of her husband, W. G. Clayton of Tulsa. Her brother, Hugh Cooper of Rudy, Ark., had been arrested and officers said they are seeking Russell Cooper, another brother.

R. S. Wilson, prosecuting attorney, said he will file murder charges in connection with the man's death.

Mrs. Clayton is quoted as denying any knowledge of Clayton's death.

Ocean Plane to Carry Lifeboat

PARIS, July 4. (AP)—The Polish aviators, Capts. Idzigowsky and Kapula, today bought a collapsible rubber boat for use in case the plane in which they will attempt to fly across the Atlantic should be forced down.

Weather reports still are unfavorable tonight and it is unlikely that the start of the east-to-west attempt will be made before Friday morning.

BOY PICNICKER KILLED

LITTLETON (Colo.) July 4. (AP)—Joe Fennell, 15 years of age, was killed, and several youthful picnickers injured today when an automobile truck carrying a score of young people of the University Christian Church holiday outing plunged over an embankment.

TOLL HEAVY IN DROUGHT OF MEXICO

Farmers Face Great Loss as Cattle Die and Crops Burn in Record Dry Spell

MEXICO CITY, July 4. (AP)—Cattle are dying, crops burning up, farmers are facing heavy losses, and some of them ruin, in many parts of Mexico as the result of one of the worst droughts the country has ever known, a survey by the newspaper Excelsior says.

Conditions are worse in the Central States, the granary of Mexico, where Excelsior says the corn crop is almost ruined, and in the cattle and grazing regions to the north, between Mexico City and the border. Some of this territory has had no rain to speak of for a year and none of it much rain. The rainy season is overdue all over the republic, except in the tropics and the Isthmus of Tehauntepec. The Weather Bureau has recorded no such drought in its thirty years of existence.

The authorities have attempted no financial estimate of the crop and cattle losses, but say they are large.

Airplane Drops Drowning Man Life Preserver

LONG BEACH (Wash.) July 4. (AP)—A life preserver dropped by the pilot of an airplane who had seen his plight in the surf today saved the life of Clarence Wheaton of Independence, Mo., when he was caught by treacherous currents quite a distance off shore here.

Friends tried in vain to reach the drowning man from shore, but two aviators, Derock and Monroe, seeing the struggling man, dropped him a life preserver, which Wheaton grasped and held to until reached by a boat. He was exhausted when rescued but was revived by artificial respiration.

Terribles Inundaciones en la República Mejicana

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, 4 de Julio. Enormes cantidades de ganado han perecido; numerosos campos se encuentran arruinados, cuantiosas cosechas han desaparecido y muchos agricultores se encuentran arruinados a consecuencia de las inundaciones que en varias partes de la República Mejicana se han verificado en los últimos días con motivo de las lluvias inusitadas que han caído y que sobrepasan, según los informes del diario "Excelsior," a todos los registros anteriores.

Las condiciones son peores que en ninguna parte en los Estados del Centro del país, donde la cosecha de maíz se considera que se ha perdido totalmente. Iguales condiciones prevalecen en la región ganadera del norte, donde han muerto abundantes rebaños de toda clase. Hay regiones del país donde todo el mund afirma que jamás había llovido lo que ahora. Esto parece ser verdad pues el Observatorio Meteorológico ha dicho que hacía treinta años no se verificaba tan abundante precipitación pluvial en toda la República Mejicana. Las únicas zonas en las que no ha llovido exageradamente son en la región tropical y especialmente en el Istmo de Tehuantepec.

Las autoridades respectivas no han podido valorizar el monto de las pérdidas, que se estiman, sin embargo, en varios millones de pesos.

GINEBRA, 4 de Julio.—Los oficiales de la Liga de las Naciones han declarado que desean la venida de John Rockefeller III al seno ésta como empleado, se verifique con toda naturalidad para evitar todo embarazo en la actuación del joven estudiante de la Universidad de Princeton.

Los dichos oficiales pidieron completa cooperación para evitar murmuraciones y comentarios acerca del joven Rockefeller, quien trabajará como cualquier empleado y percibirá su sueldo, que para los asistentes provisionales del verano es generalmente de cuarenta pesos a la semana.

Interesante Estadística Acerca del Automóvil

CHICAGO, 4 de Julio.—La Asociación Americana de Motoristas y Propietarios de Automóviles acaba de dar a conocer datos interesantísimos acerca del costo de sostenimiento de un automóvil en Estados Unidos de Norte América.

Un promedio llevado a cabo minuciosamente ha dado a conocer que el costo de un automóvil es de un dólar por día como promedio, teniendo en cuenta que asciende a $953 el costo promedio de los automóviles que se venden en un año en el mercado y que se tiene en expectativa para cada automóvil siete años de vida.

El sostenimiento y operación de un automóvil cuesta a su dueño $229 anuales; la depreciación se calcula apenas en $136. Combustible y lubricantes representan un 44 por ciento del costo total de sostenimiento. El costo de reparaciones por cuenta del mano de obra es de $47 y el de piezas de refacción $41; por concepto de llantas la cuenta asciende a $40.

Todos los Fiscales Federales Tendrán Más Sueldo

Ayer se hizo público por el Fiscal de la Nación, señor McNabb, que todos sus ayudantes, tanto en los departamentos civil como criminal, van a recibir un sensible aumento en sus sueldos de acuerdo con una disposición recientemente aprobada por las cámaras. Los actuales sueldos, según se manifiesta, fluctúan de $2750 a $5000 al año, respectivamente, según el tiempo de servicio. También se anunció que Emmet E. Doherty, por su propia voluntad, ha sido trasladado del departamento de lo criminal al civil. Su puesto será ocupado por W. R. Gallagher, que es ahora fiscal en el tribunal del Juez Hennings, y en lugar de éste se nombrará a P. V. Davis, que antes estaba en el departamento de lo civil.

Mujer de un Marino Arrepentida de Serlo

Jaimito Anderson es marinero. Sus relatos de aventuras de viaje sedujeron a una romántica muchacha que se quiso casar con él, sin darse cuenta, sino hasta después, de lo aburrida y solitaria que es la vida de una mujer de marino. "Me casé con él un día en que él se hallaba en el puerto; pero al día siguiente se marchó, y sólo regresó dos veces en todo un año," declaró la señora Zoya de Anderson al Juez Rosencranz, que estaba conociendo de su causa de divorcio. "Al año siguiente ya no regresó," añadió la pobre mujer. En vista de ésto el citado juez le concedió en el acto el decreto de divorcio que pedía.

Crippled Ship Taken in Tow

NORFOLK (Va.) July 4. (AP)—The Coast Guard cutter Carrabassett early today took in tow the American steamer Governor John Lind, which was drifting helplessly at sea with a broken shaft 160 miles off Cape Hatteras. The Coast Guard craft is expected to make this port with the steamer tomorrow.

The Governor John Lind of the Bull Steamship Line, en route from Porto Rico to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk, was rendered helpless when her shaft was broken last Thursday.

The vessel has a few passengers aboard and a crew of thirty-one.

New York's Greatest Opportunity for Growth

Staten Island (Borough of Richmond, New York City) has 2½ times the area of Manhattan but only 1/16th as much population. It increased 16% from 1920 to 1925, while New York City as a whole increased 6%. It is within thirty minutes of the centre of metropolitan New York (see above).

Three New Bridges

Three new bridges to New Jersey—one to Elizabeth, one to Perth Amboy, both open, and the third to Bayonne, to be opened in the near future—will greatly increase the inflow of population.

A bridge over the Narrows to Brooklyn, and a tunnel underneath, are being proposed. These will still further increase growth.

Staten Island	has	2,600	persons	per	square	mile
Queens	"	6,700	"	"	"	"
Bronx	"	24,000	"	"	"	"
Brooklyn	"	31,000	"	"	"	"
Manhattan	"	88,000	"	"	"	"

Staten Island may expect much industrially and residentially through direct connection with these more densely populated areas. If Staten Island had the density of Brooklyn, its population would be 1,677,000 instead of only 150,000. It would have 500,000 electric customers instead of 36,000 as at present.

Staten Island does not desire a speculative real estate boom. It welcomes, however, actual prospective residents and industries. They will find here an unparalleled opportunity for locating in the New York metropolitan area. Unlimited electric service for industrial and domestic use is made available throughout the Island by the Associated System.

LARGE CUT IN UTILITY COST MADE

Reductions During First Six Months of 1928 Put at $3,293,247

Net reductions of $3,293,247 annually in public utility rates were ordered into effect by the State Railroad Commission during the first six months of 1928, according to a report made public yesterday by W. R. Williams, examiner in charge of the local office.

Gross reductions were $3,392,458. Increases allowed amounted to $99,211. Increases of more than $1,500,000 requested by utility companies were denied.

Although the greatest savings were made in Northern California, reductions in Southern California amounted to more than $1,000,000. These were brought about by a cut in the rates of the Pacific Electric Railway, Huntington Beach Water Company, San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric Company and Southern Counties Gas Company.

More than $250,000 has been cut off the rates of the Pacific Gas and Electric Corporation by a system of rate adjustments recently instituted by the commission. Under this system the price of gas fluctuates automatically with the cost of the materials from which it is manufactured.

First Bell No Open Signal to Pedestrians

A pedestrian who steps into traffic at a crossing after the first bell has rung but before the second bell, does so at his own peril, the custom of pedestrians to the contrary notwithstanding, Judge McComb of the Superior Court, has ruled.

Margaret Gibbs sued the Davis Standard Bread Company and others for $10,325 as damages to compensate her for injuries received when a company truck struck her at an intersection. The defendant showed by her own admissions, that the truck had just entered the intersection as the first bell rang and that she was struck before the second bell rang.

Judge McComb instructed the jury to find for the defendant, ruling that entry into an intersection before the ringing of the second bell is plainly contributory negligence on the part of a pedestrian.

Flyer Saves Woman From Ocean Death

Pilot Franklin Young of the plane 35419 on the Los Angeles-to-Avalon run was on his way to Catalina airport yesterday when he saw a woman struggling in the water well out from shore. He landed his plane on the water, taxied over and brought her aboard. She was on the verge of drowning when her rescuer arrived well ahead of shore boats that were putting out to her rescue.

The girl was Miss Jane Cupples of Altoona, Pa., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Dolan of 4101 South Hobart Boulevard. Yesterday she went canoeing with Bob Lamphier and Mitchell Hamilton. The canoe swamped and the girl started to swim ashore with the assistance of a small cushion. The cushion failed as a life preserver and became waterlogged, and Miss Cupplies, not an expert swimmer, was at the point of collapse. Her companions were rescued by launches. Young is pilot for the Pacific Marine Airways division of the Western Air Express.

CITY SPENDS HUGE SUM IN UPBUILDING

Public Improvements of Past Fiscal Year Exceed Previous Record

Public improvements completed and accepted by the city during the fiscal year which closed on June 30 totaled in cost $27,537,920, according to the report by City Engineer Shaw. This is an increase of $4,755,210 over the public improvements accepted during the previous fiscal year which ended June 30, 1927, which was $22,782,710.

The improvements include bridges, storm drains, street paving, sidewalks, curbs and gutters.

The total included the Riverside-Dayton bridge across the Los Angeles River which was completed at a cost of $292,000.

Improvements now nearing completion, the expense of which will show in the public improvement total for the fiscal year which began last Sunday, include the new Spring-street bridge completed last week at a cost of $236,000, and the Glendale-Hyperion bridge to be completed in October at an expense of $1,068,000.

BUILDING RESTRICTIONS WIN

Court Holds Clause in Deed Fully Binds Buyer of Real Estate Under 1928 Conditions

A subdivider can enforce by injunction a covenant in a deed whereby grantee undertakes to erect no building upon land conveyed except upon approval of his plans by the subdivider. Judge Gates of the Superior Court has so ruled in a decision on a case typical of hundreds of similar situations in Los Angeles county. The California Trust Company is the plaintiff and Robert P. Biggart is the defendant.

The California Trust Company sold a lot in a subdivision to which it held title. Biggart acquired title from the purchaser. The deed carries rigid restrictions and provides that every building to be erected must be approved as to plan and design by the company or its agent.

Biggart, it is asserted, submitted plans for a building to an agent of the company. The agent disapproved them and Biggart started to build despite the disapproval. The company thereupon sued for an injunction. At the hearing it was argued in behalf of Biggart that no such a covenant could be included in a deed and that, therefore, Biggart could not be enjoined.

The courts must take judicial notice of modern tendencies in community planning, however, Judge Gates declared. Perhaps such a covenant would not have been legal in the past, but the times demand that they be recognized, he pointed out. He, therefore, over-ruled a demurrer to the complaint and issued the injunction.

Red Cross Ends Sawtelle Work

In line with the Red Cross policy governing service in soldiers' homes throughout the country medical social service work of the American Red Cross has been discontinued at the National Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle. All the organization's workers were withdrawn as of June 30 and were replaced by appointees of the board of governors of the homes.

Red Cross workers at Sawtelle who are affected by this ruling include Miss Marjorie Jackson, director of the service for the past four years, and her staff. Red Cross chapters in Southern California will continue to support the work of the medical social workers employed by the government just as they have supported the Red Cross staff in the past.

LOCAL MAN SIDESTEPS GOV. SMITH

NATHAN NEWBY

Declaring it is the patriotic duty of every Democrat to defeat the Presidential aspirations of Gov. Smith of New York because he has repudiated the party platform on the prohibition question, Nathan Newby, local attorney and active leader in Democratic circles, yesterday announced that he will vote for Herbert Hoover and fight against the election of Smith.

During his many years active service in the Democratic party Newby became well known for his support of President Wilson's administration and his efforts four years ago to nominate William G. McAdoo as a candidate for the Presidency. In issuing a statement voicing his opposition to Smith, Newby said it contains his own personal views only that he has not consulted McAdoo with reference to the Democratic nominee.

By way of explanation of the statement Newby said that he has not severed his affiliations with the Democratic party or principles but believes that his loyalty to the Constitution and the nation obligates him to espouse the fight against the party candidate. The statement follows:

"Being unwilling to attempt the domestication of the Tammany Tiger by installation in the White House, or the extension of Tammany influence to the capital of the nation, and also being unwilling to encourage the nullification of the Eighteenth Amendment and the laws enacted for its enforcement, by supporting the nominee of the Democratic party for the Presidency of the United States, I shall vote and work against the election of Gov. Smith to this high office.

"Since he, with characteristic frankness, has repudiated the platform upon which he is supposed to run on the question of prohibition, every Democrat who holds different views from those of Gov. Smith should assert those views in the only effective method left, namely, the election of Mr. Hoover as President of the United States, and I

Nor Early Ham an', Either, for That Matter, as Breakfast Club Finds Out to Its Sorrow, But Walker Agrees to Come Next Time

Sunrise breakfasts and dewy dawn talks before a microphone, even on Independence Day, are not a part of the informal program being followed by Mayor Walker of New York, during his rest and vacation visit to Southern California.

This discovery was made yesterday morning when members of the Breakfast Club gathered for "ham and eggs," anticipating a visit of the eastern executive attired in sartorial daylight splendor, and were informed by messenger that Mayor Walker was yet asleep in his room at the Roosevelt in Hollywood, and would be unable to enjoy the morning meal, make a speech and listen to several more.

Mayor Walker's agreeable secretary who directs a portion of the social activities of the New York chieftain says he makes no such "unearthly hour" engagements for "Jimmie," but members of the Breakfast Club stand on the asserted personal agreement of the Mayor.

Receipt of the regrets of Mayor Walker called for a reply from the Ham and Eggers, and they sent him the motto of the club, reading: "Any old bum can stay out all night, but it takes a thoroughbred to get up in the morning."

Evidently "Jimmie" appreciated the message for he immediately replied that he would meet them at dawn at the morning melee next Wednesday.

Mayor Walker and his party spent yesterday afternoon and evening at the beach where they were the guests of more than 100 members of the motion-picture colony of Hollywood.

Today he will make his first public appearance since his arrival Tuesday, as the honored guest at the noon-time meeting of the Democratic Luncheon Club in the ballroom of the Alexandria. Mayor Walker will make a short address and will meet the leaders of the Democratic party in Los Angeles, but will refrain from any discussion of the coming campaign of Gov. Smith. A large attendance is expected today, as more than 1000 reservations have been made.

GLORIOUS FOURTH CAUSES DISPLAY OF PATRIOTISM

Los Angeles Observes Day With Picnics, Speeches, Fireworks and Numerous Outings

With flags flying, minor displays of fireworks and orators extolling the day of the nation's birth, Los Angeles celebrated the Fourth of July in a characteristically American manner yesterday. The many patriotic exercises and addresses given at community centers in most instances were followed by games and athletic contests for young and old. In the evening there were numerous programs and community singing.

City park authorities reported the capacity of the parks taxed to handle the throngs that gathered, many families going early with basket lunches and spending the entire day. At a number of the parks there were band concerts, given under the auspices of the park department.

BEACHES POPULAR

Beach resorts, with ideal weather prevailing, proved to be one of the leading attractions for the holiday crowds which were strung out on the seashore all the way from the harbor to San Diego.

The mountain districts were literally overrun with persons who went up by foot trail, automobile and even street cars for the day. Even before daylight the highways were humming with the roar of holiday motorists bound for canyon and mountain-top for the day.

Of the city park celebrations, that at Hollenbeck Park under the auspices of the Hollenbeck Heights Improvement Association was as typically American as any. Along with the great number of native Americans there was a lively sprinkling of other nationalities, most of them represented by large families with fat picnic baskets parked in the shade of the trees.

PROGRAM GIVEN

The program at this park, with President Frank Belcher of the improvement association as chairman, included a number of speakers, a band concert, athletic contests and a feature in the form of a husband-and-wife-calling contest. Louis Brillont, a baker residing at 2126 East Second street, proved to be the most efficient wife caller and won a box of soap for his ability. A woman, whom the judges knew only as Mrs. Brown, won the husband-calling contest against a field of husky-lunged mesdames.

Lincoln Heights Commercial and Industrial Association celebrated the day with a picnic at Lincoln Park, attended by nearly 5000 persons. The Knights of Columbus held their picnic at Luna Park and the 233 Club of Hollywood, a Masonic theatrical organization, had a picnic at Sunland. The Irish of the Southland held their picnic at Rosehill Park, and the Southern California Lutherans held forth at Exposition Park.

AQUATIC EVENTS

Several thousand persons attended the Westlake Park program sponsored by the Los Angeles City Park Board and the Greater Westlake Business Association. Boat races under the auspices of the Elks and other aquatic stunts were features of the morning's entertainment. John Steven McGroarty was the speaker in the afternoon. A musical program followed.

"One hundred and fifty-two years ago hundreds of people waited anxiously outside old Independence Hall in Philadelphia for news of the deliberations of men who were deciding whether to remain under the British flag or secede from Great Britain," said Mr. McGroarty, "when an excited little boy ran up the stairs of the belfry and cried: 'Ring, grandpa, ring!' The old Liberty Bell tolled a message of freedom which rang around the world, not only for this country but also the beginning of freedom and action for the whole world."

Mr. McGroarty outlined the growth of this country and pointed out that although the United States is the greatest country the world has known in power and riches, it never has used its strength to crush weak and dependent nations.

Entrants for free-for-all boat and canoe races ranged in ages from 14 to 42 years, and in every event the younger paddlers crossed the

FOUR DIE FROM AUTO CRASHES

High-Speed Driver Killed in Highway Collision

Policeman and Two Women Traffic Victims

Almost Score of Others Hurt in Mishaps

Four persons paid for their holiday outings with their lives yesterday, and almost a score more suffered injuries as a result of the traffic conditions that prevailed on the highways throughout the country.

Two men, one a police officer, and two women died, the women almost instantly and the men later at hospitals in this city, after emergency treatment had proved futile.

Addes F. Gardner, 56 years of age, residing at 746 Whitley avenue, died at General Hospital of injuries received in an automobile crash at 3:30 p.m. yesterday.

According to Van Nuys police Gardner was traveling at a high rate of speed along Burbank Road and at the intersection of Woodman avenue and Burbank Road his car crashed head-on into the side of a closed car driven by John T. McCarthy of 142 South Doheny Drive.

VICTIM IDENTIFIED

McCarthy received serious injuries, and Gardner's condition was so grave that he was rushed from the Van Nuys Emergency Hospital to General Hospital, where he died at 5 o'clock.

In the McCarthy car also were Mrs. Bess K. McCarthy, the driver's wife, and a friend, Miss Ann Watts of 7522 Hampton avenue. They were cut by flying glass and received severe bruises.

Van Nuys police attach no blame to McCarthy.

A woman believed to be Miss Victoria Archer, 23 years of age, of 553 North Garfield avenue, Pasadena, was killed instantly when the automobile driven by W. V. Kelmus, a Los Angeles police officer on duty at Santa Paula, turned over in a ditch on the Castaic Junction-Santa Paula highway. Kelmus, injured fatally, was taken to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where, before dying, he told officers he did not know the name of his woman companion, but had heard her say she was a linotypist on a Pasadena newspaper. From this clew Miss Archer was traced, and it was learned from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Archer, that she had started out in the morning to drive to Santa Paula with Kelmus.

ORANGE COUNTY FATALITY

Mrs. Dolores Rodriguez, 50 years of age, of Redlands, was killed when an automobile driven by Jose Salazar of Brea, Orange county, was crowded from the highway by the blinding headlights of another car on the Brea Canyon Road one mile south of Valley Boulevard, and overturned in the ditch after striking a telephone pole.

Her body was taken to the Todd & Reeves undertaking parlors in Pomona.

Ralph Rodriguez, husband of the victim, a Miss Lopez, and Mr. and Mrs. Salazar escaped with minor injuries.

BIGOTRY ASSAILED AS PERIL

Speakers at Knights of Columbus Outing Call for Adherence to Principle of Religious Liberty

Bigotry was assailed and a nation-wide adherence to the provision of the Constitution guaranteeing religious liberty pleaded for by Rev. Joseph Sullivan and Joseph Scott at the annual Fourth of July outing of the Knights of Columbus yesterday at Luna Park. More than 6000 persons were in attendance.

Mr. Scott's reference to his Republican affiliation and his appeal to his audience to base their selection of Presidential candidates on political and not religious preference brought forth a storm of applause.

"Liberty to be genuine," he declared, "must recognize and guarantee freedom of conscience—the right of religious worship and that there shall be no religious test for public office. The fathers of our country at the time of the adoption of our Constitution and its first amendments were determined to avoid the danger of sectarian beliefs interfering with the rights of the citizen to his complete political enfranchisement. While it is true that these controversies, for the most part, were among the various Protestant denominations, nevertheless, the principle is just as sound today as it was then—there can be no wholesome political life in this free land where a particular form of religion has to be either a requirement for public office, or a bar sinister.

"It would be highly improper on this, the nation's birthday, for me to discuss partisan politics, for my life-long adherence to the Republican party is well known to you, but wholly outside of partisan politics, I think it well to stress the fact that there are today two candidates for the Presidency representing great political parties—one is a Catholic and the other is a Protestant. Neither should be supported because of his particular religious belief, nor should either be opposed on that account. Anyone who appears to religious passion or prejudice along that line is not a good American. Both platforms are silent upon this question—and properly so if they are to maintain the respect of the American people—and we must recognize the wisdom of the leaders of both national parties.

"It would be a heinous thing if this country should be divided up into religious blocs renewing again the wretched and horrible centuries of religious strife which stained the map of Europe. The fathers of our

WITH a $30,000,000 dairy corporation getting ready to invade Southern California, having outgrown Seattle, it would seem that the problem of the farmer is not unanswerable.

The truth is that neither the Democrats nor the Republicans can do as much for the farmer as he can do for himself.

In the past the farmer has stuck seed in the ground, hoping something would grow; and that somebody would want to buy it. The farmer of the future will shoot directly at a market need.

TOO MANY KISSES

Strange stories come out of Poland, but I confess skepticism as to the bride who kissed 7000 guests at her wedding.

Anna Held once engaged in a kissing marathon, arranged by an enterprising press agent. Science was enriched by the discovery that after about 300 times the human kissing apparatus refuses to work.

FUMES

Incidentally, I wonder what kind of a jag a bride would acquire were she to have kissed 7000 Democratic delegates at Houston. After having kissed her way through the New York delegation, she would have had to shut one eye to see which map she was next to smack.

STEPHEN MATHER

It is the rare good luck of the United States that the needed man is always poked to the front. And in no instance has this country been luckier than in Stephen Mather, now in Los Angeles for the public-parks conference.

GUARDIANS OF CHARM

Through his practical idealism politics has been kept out of the national parks. It is not too much to say that no department of any government in the world maintains finer or higher standards.

Mather's attitude is reflected in the kind of men you find in charge of the parks. I have never met an employee of the national park department who did not seem to regard himself as a host at a party; never one who did not show an anxiety that you should realize all the charm and loveliness of his park.

It would be a delightful experience to go through a national park even if there was nothing there to see.

HIGHBROW

The conference of the little theater societies now in session in Pasadena rather overwhelms me.

It seems that when you go to a little theater you should take special notice of the nuance, rhythm, projection and ensemble.

And here I have been going, from time to time, just to enjoy a good show.

GAMBLING HELL

A floating gambling hell is operating three or four miles off Long Beach. There seems no law that can touch it.

This, together with the notorious operations of the rum fleet, shows a very urgent need for a revision of international treaties.

OUT OF DATE

The rule that the sovereignty of a nation extends only three miles from the shore line is a relic of sailing days. Under modern conditions it is an absurdity. Three miles under present transportation conditions is a matter of fifteen minutes.

The treaties should be revised

Backers Planning to Open Another Ship for Gambling

MORE ARRESTS MADE AT BEACH

Water-Taxi Operators Seized by Police Officers

Two High-Life Barges Will Anchor Off Venice

One Will be Used Only for Dining and Dancing

Undaunted by activities of Long Beach police in arresting operators of water taxis running to the Johanna Smith, the backers of deep-sea gambling ventures are preparing to open up activities off Venice today by anchoring two high-life barges off shore. That was the report current in the underworld yesterday after Long Beach police made two more arrests of water taxi drivers.

The new plan will include one barge used only as a dance and dinner palace. The other will offer all the gambling conveniences of the Johanna Smith, the watery Monte Carlo that now swings at anchor fourteen miles off Long Beach.

Patrons will be solicited ashore only for the first of the two barges on a basis of hot music, fast floors and excellent food. Solicitations for the gambling ship then will be made on the dining barge and patrons ferried over from there. Both will be anchored well outside the statutory limits.

MORE ARRESTS

Late yesterday Long Beach police made two more arrests in the water-taxi ranks. Emmett Garvin, 28 years of age, residing at Lomita, and Chester M. Mills, 29, of 929 West Fourth street, San Pedro, were taken up on a soliciting charge. Their bail was set at $500, a rise in ante by the Long Beach officials over the $200 bail demanded of the six asserted solicitors who were arrested Tuesday night.

Acting Chief of Police Robberson said yesterday that the next persons arrested on the charge will find it necessary to put up $1000 bail.

In the meantime Long Beach police questioned a "mystery man" whose name was not announced, but who is said to be one of the operators of the Johanna Smith. It is asserted that he has been paying off the water-taxi operators for fares brought to the ship. He was released.

Business on board the Johanna was not so brisk yesterday as a result of the police drive.

POLICE ON GUARD

Special details of police guarded every possible point at municipal piers and in the inner harbor where motorboats could load passengers for the ship. Officers were instructed to arrest any person found soliciting customers for the Johanna Smith or any speedboat operator offering to carry passengers out to the ship, either with or without charge.

This action followed the arrest by officers under Lieut. Davison Tuesday night of six asserted solicitors and boat operators, engaged, police said, in hauling and soliciting customers for the gambling ship. Earlier in the evening, police, acting under direction of Dep. Dist.-Atty. Brayton, put a stop to the operation of the ship's two regular speed boats from the Pine-avenue pier, where tickets good for a round trip to the Johanna Smith, had been sold for the previous three days at 50 cents each. The boat operators were notified by Assistant Chief Robberson that no more passengers could be carried or solicited from the pier.

To circumvent police enforcement, operators of the gambling ship chartered five speed boats to haul passengers to the ship without cost.

BOATMEN SEIZED

Selecting docks in the inner harbor, where darkness and lack of other activities would tend to make their operations a success, representatives of the gambling ship brought automobile loads of customers from Los Angeles and other points and loaded them into the chartered boats. Two policemen, among the passengers on the speed boat Eagle, stopped the fast craft and placed the operators under arrest in midstream after the destination of the boat had been announced as it left the P. and O. landing.

Willie E. McCune, 2222½ Pacific avenue, San Pedro, operator of the boat, and Joseph Watson, deckhand, were arrested and booked at the police station on charges of violating section 318 of the State Penal Code, which prohibits anyone from soliciting, inviting or enticing persons to go to a place where gambling or other "immoral acts" are being committed.

Marvin Schuewiler, 1292 Ridgley Drive, Los Angeles, said by police to be a representative of the gambing interests, identified by police officers as one of the men on the docks directing customers how to reach the gambling ship, also was booked on a charge of violating the State Penal Code.

LIST OF SUSPECTS

Others arrested on charges of soliciting trade for the gambling ship are Charles M. Ellis, 2730 South Arlington street, Los Angeles; John F. Sullivan, 741 General street, San Pedro, and Irving C. Meek, 1710 South Redondo avenue, Los Angeles. All were released under $200 bail bonds and were cited to appear in Municipal Court today at 2 p.m.

"While we may be unable for lack of jurisdiction to act directly against the gambling ship, we are going to see that all patronage from Long Beach is absolutely cut off," Assistant Chief Robberson said yesterday. "Section 318 of the State Penal Code gives us ample authority to halt the soliciting of trade and the transportation of passengers by water-taxi companies."

Operators of the ship, however, take a different view of the situation. If it is legal for auto-taxi companies to solicit patronge of persons desiring to go to Tia Juana and to operate their cars in that traffic, it is equally legal for water-taxi companies to solicit trade for the Johanna Smith, since both Tia Juana and the ship are outside of the defined United States borders, the gambling-ship operators contend.

DREAM TACKLE ENDS IN THUD

Student Dislocates Shoulder Playing Football in Sleep

Albert Collister, 18 years of age, a student, dreamed he was playing football just before dawn yesterday morning. He made a flying tackle, so he said later, and the corresponding action in his sleep brought him down with a thud on his right shoulder. The pain awakened him. The shoulder was dislocated.

Friends near his home at 3044 Fairmount avenue helped him into some clothes and took him to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. Surgeons bound him up with a good many yards of adhesive tape and sent him home.

ANCIENT MISSION BELL FOUND

Relic May Date Back to Days of Balboa

Connoisseurs Fix Great Age to New Find

A MISSION bell, hoary with age and which, according to connoisseurs, was brought to America shortly after Balboa's discovery of the Pacific, was recently unearthed during excavation at Perris.

It was when workmen excavated the ground for the Hotel Belvedere, erected by Ralph Goetz, that the relic was found, more than twelve feet in the earth. Goetz consulted various authorities and the bell was adjudged as one of the earliest relics of Southern California.

The bell, in spite of its age is still in good condition. Goetz gave it to Robert E. Callahan, director of the Ramona Village, where it will be suspended in a specially created niche above the entrance to the administration offices of the Ramona Theater and Village, now under construction.

when his car rammed into the side of that driven by Dorothy Thomas, 240 North Almont Drive, Beverly Hills, at West Eighty-first street and South Broadway. Simmons's car turned over. He suffered a broken collar-bone, possible fractured ribs, and internal injuries. His wife, Mrs. Emma Simmons, received minor injuries.

Arthur H. Ward, 16, of 4656 York Boulevard, was treated at the Georgia-street Hospital for head and neck injuries received when a car driven by R. G. Ravenscroft of 1826 Oenryn avenue collided with that of Leland G. Hall, 4109½ Santa Ana street, Huntington Park. Ward was a passenger in Ravenscroft's car.

Iriel Evans, 45, manufacturer, living at 2524 Malabar street, parked his car in front of 231 South Western avenue. As he stepped out of it another machine driven by R. A. Fallis, 62 Painter street, Pasadena, struck him. He received injuries to the head and legs.

Georgia-street Hospital attendants treated Mrs. Sarah Granger, 54, for a wrenched back and bruises about the head, neck and face. She was a passenger in a machine driven by Mrs. Frances Smith, 3937½ Herbert street, when it collided at Whittier Boulevard and Orme street, with an automobile operated by Mrs. Theresa Arnolds, 5451 Fernwood avenue.

Pier Destruction Gets Postponed

Proceedings for the destruction of Sunset Pier at Venice, condemned several weeks ago by the building and safety department as a menace because of a dilapidated condition due to the eating away of a portion of the piling by teredoes, have been held up for two weeks.

Certain interested citizens asked for a stay of action on the condemnation proceedings, pending efforts to reach some decision with the owners, who are not known to city officials, as to repairing the structure and putting it to some use.

Workmen Busy Preparing Field for Air Races

Mines Field was being prepared yesterday to handle 100,000 persons, day and night, during the visit here of the fourth annual National Air Tour, due to reach Los Angeles at 2 p.m. a week from today. Visitors from many cities outside of Los Angeles are expected to view the planes during their three days' stay. Every modern type of commercial aircraft will be represented.

Evening spectators will be afforded a clear sight of the aircraft, which will be illuminated by flood lights. During the daytime aerial maneuvers will be performed.

The air tour today will take off for Ft. Worth, Tex., after a stop at Tulsa, Okla., on its flight to the Coast from Detroit, where it started last Saturday.

country set their faces like flint against a renewal of those hideous controversies, and we must emulate that spirit, particularly during this Presidential campaign. Record your votes as your party affiliation or personal opinion on public questions dictates, but leave sectarian religion out of the question. By so doing, you will be showing a wholesome thoroughgoing brand of Americanism."

Father Sullivan, who is president and founder of Loyola College at Playa Del Rey, emphasized a similar thought in his address. He declared that the religious bigotry manifest in the country today is rooted in ignorance and perpetuated by men who love not their God or their neighbor and who do not respect the Constitution of the United States.

"It is a time for patience," he declared. "It is a time to view broadly the problems confronting us. We must not let this menace of bigotry destroy our country. The right to religious liberty has been guaranteed to us by the immortal Constitution, and the preservation of our country depends on the preservation of the Constitution."

Ben O. Brink, who presided as chairman, declared that it was fitting that the Knights of Columbus should make the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence the day for their annual outing.

Poultry Raisers Use Laboratory

Poultrymen are making good use of the Poultry Pathological Laboratory here, according to the last report of the institution. About 2500 birds have been examined, representing approximately 1200 cases and outbreaks of diseases. Birds were sent in from 148 different localities.

The institution is supported by State and local agencies and makes no charge for its services except in cases of blood testing. It is located at 1451 Mirasol street.

Customer Chastised as Armed Men Steal $150 from Drug Store

Forcing two employees to lie on the floor, and halting their operations long enough to spank a 5-year-old Chinese girl who entered, three armed men yesterday held up the Harris Pharmacy, 2801 Central avenue, and escaped with $150.

Two unidentified business men gave pursuit as the robbers fled north on Central avenue in a gray coupe, but gave up the chase at Twenty-fourth street, when the bandits opened fire.

Tom Reid and Garner Grayson, employees in the store, told police the bandits forced them to lie down while they rifled the register.

When the little girl came into the store to make a purchase, the men said, one of the bandits spanked her and sent her home.

SMITH TO LOSE PARTY MAN HERE

shall adopt this course for the first time since I became a voter.

"It is significant that every Democratic President elected since the Civil War has denounced Tammany Hall and its sinister influence; and that one of its proudest products, who also stands for nullification of the Federal Constitution upon the pretext of asserting the right of the State to control the liquor evil, should have the temerity to aspire to the Presidency upon such a platform and with such baleful influences back of him should arouse to intense opposition every patriotic citizen, regardless of previous political affiliations.

"I prize my loyalty to the Constitution and the nation more than a pseudo loyalty to the nominee of a political party, who has himself repudiated his party platform and is running upon a personal platform of his own making. I regard it as a patriotic duty to vote against Gov. Smith and for Herbert C. Hoover."

Fox to Contest Divorce Case

The suit of Joan Bennett Fox, daughter of Richard Bennett, actor, for a divorce from John Marion Fox, will be contested, it developed yesterday when an answer to her complaint was found in the files of the action.

Mrs. Fox charges cruelty, asserting her husband drinks to excess and that he once struck her. The answer denies these charges.

The couple married in London, September 15, 1926, and, according to the complaint, separate May 28, last. They have one child, Adrienne Ralston Fox, 6 months of age, for whose custody Mrs. Fox has applied.

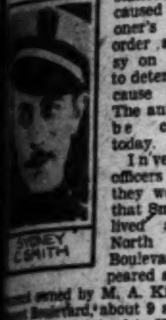
FILM COMEDIAN DIES SUDDENLY

Sydney Smith, Formerly of Hall Room Boys, Expires

Cause of Death to be Set by Coroner's Autopsy

Police Say Actor Had Been Drinking Hard for Days



Sydney C. Smith, motion-picture actor and once a featured comedian, died in Hollywood yesterday under circumstances that caused the Coroner's office to order an autopsy on his body to determine the cause of death. The autopsy will be conducted today.

Investigating officers reported they were told that Smith, who lived at 1309 North Hobart Boulevard, appeared at a restaurant owned by M. A. King, 6085 Sunset Boulevard, about 9 a.m. yesterday and complained to King that he was feeling badly.

King took the actor to a near-by hospital, where his stomach was given treatment, and then accompanied him to the King residence [illegible] North Gower street, where illness became acute and where Smith died suddenly at approximately noon. The pulmotor squad was called from the Hollywood fire station but was unable to resuscitate the stricken man.

Detective Lieutenants Clark, Gil[illegible] and Hack, called out on the case, were told by the physician who attended Smith at the hospital that Smith believed he might have been poisoned, but the doctor said that examination developed none of the symptoms of poison.

Investigating further, the detectives reported that they learned that Smith had been drinking heavily for several days, while neglecting to eat, and their belief was that this proved too much for his heart. The body was removed to the County Morgue, however, to determine the exact cause of death.

Smith was well known in Hollywood where he had been in motion pictures for about thirteen years. Much of his work was done at the [illegible] studios. He appeared as one of "The Hall Room Boys" in a series of comedies under that name. He was [illegible] years of age at the time of his death.

Relatives of the actor, the police were informed, include his father [illegible] Smith, [illegible] Fourth avenue, [illegible], Fairbault, Minn.; and J. [illegible] Smith, a brother, living in Des Moines, Iowa. He was unmarried at the time of his death.

[illegible] Anderson was a sailor. His life of travel and adventure appealed to the romantic mind of the girl he married who little realized at the time what a lonely life it is to be the bride of a seaman.

"I married him one day when he was in port and he left the next and only came back twice that year," Mrs. Zoya Anderson told Superior Judge Rosencrans to whom she had gone for a divorce.

"The next year he didn't come back at all," the wife said.

'DEAD' MAN DISCOVERED IN UNIFORM

Carmen Bright, Supposed to Have Taken His Own Life, Found in Army

Mourned for a year as a suicide by his wife and mother of his only daughter, Carmen Bright, 25 years of age, has been found at Corozal in the Canal Zone, serving an enlistment under an assumed name in the United States Army. Not only is Veronica Bright, 18, the wife, rejoicing with her daughter, but she anxiously is awaiting his return home.

On July 14, 1927, Bright's deserted car was found at Point Fermin with a note attached to the steering wheel. The note bore Bright's signature and said the writer was tired of life, so he was going to swim as far out as possible in the ocean and drown.

Bright was given up by his wife and authorities as dead. The wife took up her residence with her sister at 135 West Thirty-third street.

Bright's whereabouts was revealed when handwriting experts declared letters written to Mrs. Bright from Corozal by a man signing his name as Ernest Dunn, and others signed as Lee A. Borie, were in the same hand as the suicide note.

Detective Lieutenant Allen, in charge of the missing-person detail, wrote Corozal and yesterday received word from there that Dunn, or Borie, has admitted his identity.

Bright will buy his discharge as soon as possible and return to his wife and child.

ENTRY LIST GROWS FOR QUEENSHIP

Eleven Candidates Join in Eucharist Congress Race of Columbus Knights

Eleven candidates are entered in the contest to represent the Southern California Chapter of the Knights of Columbus, as Miss Columbia at the Eucharistic Congress in Sydney, Australia, in September.

Joseph D. Minster is chairman of the contest committee and the first preliminary count of the ballots will be announced within a few days.

Announcement of the winner will be made after the final count during the Industrial Pageant and Mardi Gras of the chapter, on Loyola campus grounds the week of the 23rd inst.

The entrants are Miss Peggy McGuire, 1249 East Wilson street, Glendale; Miss Lucille Bessolo, 5163 Elmwood Drive, Eagle Rock; Miss Alice Gibbons, 1328½ South Catalina street; Miss Marion Moore, 318 West Forty-fifth street; Miss Kathleen O'Gorman, 2033 West Vernon avenue; Miss Susie Nardi, 4003 West Twenty-first street; Flora Marie Bakula, 611 East One Hundred and Fourteenth street; Miss Elizabeth Nash of Ocean Park; Miss Catherine Ruiz, 714 South Herbert street; Miss Anna Mae Ducey, 1450 West Sixty-fifth street; Miss Marie Luciano, 726 Cole avenue, Hollywood.

All funds that are raised through the affair, which has been indorsed by Bishop Cantwell, go toward extending the employment bureau of the Knights of Columbus.

Second-Hand Dealers Lose Business Right

Two second-hand dealers in Los Angeles have had their licenses to do business revoked by the Police Commission, following hearings held at special sessions of that body. One is Audrey L. Riskin of 427 South Main street, and the other is Harry Cohen of 213 East Fifth street. Both were charged with receiving stolen property.

Cohen was convicted of having received forty-five stolen suits in 1926 from Thomas Kelly, an employee of Keller, Heuman & Thompson, clothiers. Judge Edmonds, before whom he was found guilty, ordered him to pay $1200 to the clothing firm.

Riskin was accused by the police department of having bought for $5 a stolen diamond ring valued at $140 from a youngster, now in the Juvenile Court.

Policemen Pass Quiz on Traffic

Out of 1738 Los Angeles policemen who took the recent course in traffic school, only one failed to eventually pass. The average grade was 85, meaning that out of 200 questions asked, 170 were answered correctly.

Two groups took the course. In the first group, twenty-eight failed and took the course over. Failures then dwindled to three, and was further reduced to one when the examination was repeated.

The traffic school was instituted by Chief of Police Davis with the co-operation of the Traffic Commission and the Automobile Club of Southern California. It was in charge of Inspector Jack Finlinson.

ASSESSMENTS DOCKETED

The assessments to pay for the completed improvement of two San Fernando Valley improvements will be considered by the City Council this morning. The jobs are the paving of Owensmouth avenue from Valerio street to Van Owen street and of Roscoe street from Topanga Canyon avenue to Jonathan street.

Appropriation Approved for Lot Cleaning

An appropriation of $22,732 to keep the city's vacant-lot cleaning campaign going at full speed during July and August has been recommended to the City Council by its finance committee. This amount will pay the wages and expenses of the lot-cleaning force of 124 men. More than 90 per cent of the money spent by the city is returned to the city treasury when lot owners whose property is cleaned of weeds by the city pay their tax bills, as the city's expense appears as an item on these bills.

The city is divided into weed districts and the lot-cleaning forces tackle one district at a time and clean all lots that are in need of it. This is the second year of the operation of this plan put into effect last year through the efforts of Councilman Hall.

GIRL SERIOUSLY HURT BY SHOTGUN BLAST

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 4. (Exclusive)—Rose Molloa, 7 years of age, was severely burned about the face and neck this afternoon when a shotgun with which she was playing exploded. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Molloa. Surgeons at the Santa Ana Valley Hospital, where she was taken, say her injuries are serious.

Two Diplomats and Parties Now Visitors in City

European visitors to Los Angeles yesterday included Senor and Senora R. Caimi Garmendia of San Sebastian, Spain, the former being consul to Argentina and his wife a sister of Marquesa de Montesion of Spain.

"I am on a world tour for the purpose of posting myself as consul at Argentina and this, my first visit to America, has strengthened me in many ways. I sense as never before an increasing spirit of international co-operation for world peace and prosperity," said Senor Garmendia at the Biltmore.

Also quartered there are Mr. and Mrs. B. Vrany, the latter being former consul of Czecho-Slovakia to London and Liverpool. He now is district governor of the Rotary clubs of Czecho-Slovakia.

"Rotary now has thirteen clubs in our nation, approximating a total of 600 members," he said. The party includes Joseph Prokop, manufacturer of milling machinery, his daughter and Miss A. Dvorakork.

STREET WORK ASKED

The Automobile Club of Southern California has asked the City Council to order the remodeling of culverts and drainage depressions on Figueroa at Seventh street, Eighth street, Ninth street, Tenth street, Eleventh street and Pico street, so that traffic will move more rapidly at these intersections.

Hotel Man Goes North to Take Portland Bride

Harry C. Wagener and Russell Wagener, brothers and comanagers of the Hayward Hotel, which is owned by their uncle, Harry C. Fryman, left by automobile early yesterday for Portland, where Harry Wagener is to be married Sunday to Miss Marjorie Griff, with his brother serving as best man.

"My nephews are more like sons to me and I am glad to see them settle down. Of course, Harry being the older, should take the step first and show his brother just how it is done," added Uncle Harry Fryman.

"This ordeal of being best man is quite some worry and I shall wait until this test is passed before adding to the story," said Russell Wagener.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagener will make their home in Los Angeles.

ASSESSMENT RALLY TONIGHT

Officers of the Union avenue-Loma Drive Protective League have called a mass meeting for citizens and taxpayers at Union-avenue school tonight at 8 p.m. The topic under discussion will be the matter of assessment of West Third street.

PROJECT ATTACKED

The City Council will hear protests this morning against the proposed permanent improvement of St. Andrews Place from Melrose avenue to Maplewood avenue.

Chinese Youth Will be Sent Back as Leper

Somewhere in China Wong Sing, 20 years of age, heard the strains and words of "America" and the lines, "My country 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty," and he formed a great ambition to learn American ways and ideals, but a grim force stood in his way.

The young man traveled to America as a student and was about to be admitted to this country when it was discovered he had traces of leprosy. He was placed in the General Hospital leper ward, where it was learned his dream of life has passed. He is in an incipient stage of leprosy.

A writ of habeas corpus was sued out in his behalf, but this was denied by United States District Judge James and the youth was ordered deported. He will leave today, under guard, to be placed on the ship that carried him here and returned to China.

PROTESTS TO BE HEARD

Protests will be heard this morning by the City Council against the calling of a special election August 2 in a part of the San Fernando Valley to vote on the question of buying land near Stonehurst and Fernangeles streets for public park purposes. The section for election purposes is known as Municipal Improvement District No. 57.

MAN HOLDS ANTIQUES IN COURT

Absence of Suit Witness Enables Curator to Keep Valuable Collection

When one of the witnesses failed to appear in the lawsuit brought over the $100,000 antique collection owner by Prof. J. T. Armstrong, 84 years of age, curator of the University of Southern California motion-picture museum, it spelled a victory for the plaintiff in the case, for Superior Judge Wilson dismissed the case.

The suit was brought in the name of the Original Productions Company to take the collection from Armstrong on the ground that under an agreement they had with him he was holding it illegally. Armstrong contended the collection is his property because the company failed to produce films promised under their agreement.

Attorney W. Andrews for the defendant informed the court he was unable to locate his witnesses and asked that the case be dismissed.

The collection, which consists of many valuable antiques and old pieces of literature, will be housed in the new museum now being built at the university.

Today's Bible Text

Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth. Prov. v:7.

THREE BIG FAMILIES

Smith is the Democratic nominee. Jones placed the convention and Robinson is the running mate.

HUMAN HEARTS

Do they mean that a man's heart is in the right place when some girl may have it in her possession?

UP IN THE AIR

They are trying to make airplane golf. Do they have to punch holes in the clouds to complete the course?

ANY OLD THING

Looks as if the great issue of the campaign would be whatever the arguer happened to be talking about at the time.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

Some women are more fussy in picking out a new gown than they are in selecting the husband who will pay for it. It's a way they have.

GOING STRONG

An elephant doesn't really get its growth until it is about 25 years old. The Republican elephant should be in the heyday of his vigor at this time.

ON THE DIAMOND

While Secretary Kellogg is fixing up treaties to insure peace the baseball magnates in the big cities are plotting ways and means to head off the Yanks.

FOR MEN ONLY

It is now admitted that hardly 1000 living persons are able to speak the ancient tongue of the Isle of Man. Maybe they mean that the women are doing all the talking.

NOT SO MANY

Englishmen were all wrought up over the capture of a 186-pound fish in their waters. Some of these big fishermen who follow the Catalina waters might call that a sardine.

CLEARING THE DECKS

Chicago is raising a special fund of $150,000 for the prosecution of election and political frauds. That may be enough to uncover the stench, but it won't even sweep off the front porch.

SMITH AND BROWN

While Al Smith was knocking out his opponents in the arena at Houston one Al Brown was knocking out another battler in the prize ring in New York. It seems to be an open season for the Als.

NO SUCH ANIMAL

Nearly 8000 members of the Spanish nobility have formed a union and it is understood that they will demand longer hours and more work. If they are in earnest about it they can get what they want. But they must expect to be boycotted by the unions in this country.

GOING WET

The guy with a yardstick tells us that take the world over enough rain falls each day to fill a reservoir 400 miles square to a depth of ten feet. This drops at the rate of 16,000 tons a second. Come to find out we are mighty glad that it doesn't tumble on our well-known State. If it did we would all be ducks.

USES OF ALIMONY

To what uses may alimony be put? There are a lot of women drawing it who feel that it may be devoted to any purpose they choose. If they wish to support a new husband or buy a string of cars it is supposed to be perfectly all right. But there is a dour judge who holds differently. Finding that a divorced woman had been investing her alimony in real estate he called her into court and reduced the amount of the ex-husband's payment from $120 to $60 a month. To soften the blow he explained to the lady that the word alimony was derived from the Latin alere—meaning to nourish. She was entitled to food and drink, but not much else. If all the courts are to join in this interpretation we will soon notice a bunch of grass widows turning to more costly fodder. If they must spend their alimony on the table they will make it worth while.

CHICAGO GANG MURDERS

The yet unsolved slaying of Timothy D. "Big Tim" Murphy, racketeer, union-labor organizer, train robber and gangster, in Chicago a few days ago, brought the number of such gang killings in that city to 116 for the past three years, according to a probably incomplete list compiled from newspaper files. No murders were included in the list not plainly connected with beer and liquor wars, racketeering, and other gangland activities. That no one was convicted in the Chicago courts for any of these murders emphasizes the seriousness of the situation confronting the new administration of the Cook county State's Attorney's office, soon to take charge of affairs. Two or three persons have been tried, and all acquitted.

This does not mean that all the murders have gone unpunished; but gangland itself has given all the punishment that has been inflicted, and in kind. In the list of the slain are a woman, two policemen, and an assistant State's Attorney. To give any details concerning the individual crimes would take columns of space. Here, however, are the names:

Harry C. Hassmiller, Walter A. O'Donnell, Guardieri Pulgino, Anthony Genna, Anthony Campagna, Joseph Granata, James Vinci, George Karl, Irving Schlig, Harry Berman, William Dickman, Ansello Taddeo, Charles Kelly, Joseph Bonoma, Edward Lattyak, John Russo, Rosario Giordana, Pasquale Polizzotto, Salvatore Amatuna, Edward C. Zine, Michael Vinci, Abraham Goldstein, Mariano Muscarillo, Marshall Custer, James H. Carroll, James A. Henry, Edward A. Harmening, Joseph M. Brooks, Vincente Campanile, James O'Brien, Henry Spingola, Harry Schneider.

Vizerillo Guadagni, Frank Koncil, Charles H. Rubeck, Alphonsi Fiori, Benjamin Zuckerman, Herman Carcelli, Fred A. Drullard, Charles Miller, John Tuohy, Frank D. Carpenter, Isadore Goldberg, Joseph Esposito, John Infantino, Charles Adragna, Thomas A. Johnson, Ben Newmark, John Oliveri, Joseph Salamone and Timothy D. Murphy.

It is notable, however, that only three of these murders have taken place since the May primaries in which State's Attorney Crowe and other supporters of the Thompson regime went down to defeat. Oliveri and Salamone were killed June 20; Murphy, June 26—a long interval, for Chicago—after the pre-election slaying of Ben Newmark on April 23. It apparently took gangland some time to recover after the blows it received at the polls.

The various explanations of Murphy's demise illustrate the difficulty of dealing with this apparently well-organized murder system. So far Chicagoans have ventured the opinions that Murphy was slain because he had tried to force his way into the cleaners' and dyers' racket; because he had held out some of the proceeds of a mail robbery for which he recently served a prison term; because he was a friend of Al Capone; because he was an enemy of Al Capone; because he was mistaken for somebody else; because the machine-gun crews needed practice. Those who know the truth seem to be keeping their own counsel.

That the deaths of a majority of those named in this grewsome tally were no loss to society in general or to Chicago in particular is beside the point, as is the fact that some of them were good and useful citizens, removed because they were in the gangsters' way, and that others were merely innocent bystanders. It is contempt for law and order, the threatened breaking down of a civilization, that is shown impressively by such a state of affairs.

Such slayings are the natural result of corrupt politics, and corrupt politics is the natural result of the failure of good and law-abiding citizens to do their duty, to examine into the real merits of the candidates who offer themselves at the polls and to act accordingly. Sometimes there is no choice in elections, but a choice between evils, but even when this is the case a choice should be made.

Gangland never fails to vote, and in gangland the opinion is never expressed that the casting of a ballot is ineffective.

AN UNNECESSARY DEFENSE

It was quite unnecessary for Lieut. Hynes, commander of the intelligence division of the police department, sometimes known as the Red squad, to defend before a meeting of the so-called Open Forum, as he did recently, the activities of the division against Communists. The members of the Open Forum were not anxious to hear the facts he gave them concerning Communist activities in Los Angeles, and gave them little heed. The mere fact that Los Angeles has been comparatively free for years from disturbances of the once-familiar I.W.W. type is a sufficient defense of the division and plenty of reason for continuing it.

The principal significance of the incident is that the Los Angeles Citizen, official organ of local organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, reprinted with cordial approval a set of inflammatory resolutions adopted by the forum, which demanded that the intelligence division be disbanded. The reprinting goes to show how strong Communist influence has grown in the Central Labor Council under the leadership of J. W. Buzzell, who not long ago was an honored member of the city administration, close adviser of Mayor Cryer, and ally of Kent Parrot. Buzzell, of course, is no Communist; he is a labor politician, and joined hands with the left wing merely to retain his office. That he is permitted to espouse Communism so openly is an index of the sincerity of the anti-Communist resolutions adopted by the American Federation of Labor here last fall.

Just one of the several facts recited by Lieut. Hynes is alone sufficient to justify all the work of the Red squad—that it had succeeded in stopping the collection of funds ostensibly for the purchase of "medical supplies" for the Sandino "army" in Nicaragua. This was a useful piece of work, inasmuch as no medical supplies whatever are being shipped to Sandino, but he is being supplied with arms and ammunition from some outside source, and these weapons are being used to kill American marines.

THE TALKING FILM

British newspapers are heavy with editorials on the future of the talking film. Jesse L. Lasky, interviewed in England, is quoted as predicting the "end of the silent film."

But E. A. Dupont, British producer, believes otherwise. He says the best that can be hoped for is a good imitation of a stage play, "and who wants imitations?"

Several other British producers are quoted as declaring that "a film with dialogue is an unfortunate innovation." But they all agree that the invention will revolutionize the industry, and particularly the world market, since no actors can speak their dialogue in all the languages covered by such an international industry.

However, other producers are to be found who insist that world markets are unnecessary; that infinitely better films can be made for smaller markets, and that a long run in a few cities brings better rewards than short runs in many countries. In this way, too, really fine film actors will be able to exploit their talent in a much wider variety of stories and roles. "World markets," they say, have proved both the strength and the weakness of the cinema in the past, because so few subjects were suitable for so large a market and these have been worn to a frazzle. They predict a longer professional life for really first-class actors, when markets are more limited, and the runs of good pictures thrice as long. At present they wear out their popularity by appearing in too many successively similar roles, with nothing but the title and the costumes changed.

One editorial says that this talking film will be the beginning of the end of the dominance of the United States in this industry, because "The American voice is rarely pleasant, and often offensive" so that British-made films, with British voices will easily win all the trade throughout the British empire—unless the United States hires English talent.

The producer of a film called "Vaudeville" declares that the New York run of this picture alone made far more than all the production costs—proving that world markets are unnecessary. He looks forward to the day when every capital in Europe will have its own licensed cinema companies, where any film can be shown without censorship, and when, therefore, intelligent films can be made at a profit.

All British criticisms of talking films to date are adverse. Most of them affect to believe that it is merely a novelty that will soon pass—and that it is only endurable strictly as a novelty.

JOURNALISTIC GRIEVANCES

Some Italian journalists are airing their grievances in a Turin paper, Il Torcho. It appears that they have been employed on the staff of Il Lavoro d'Italia, a Fascist labor publication, strong on fighting the battles of employees against employers who fail to keep labor contracts.

They all had "contracts" with the labor organ, but were dismissed without indemnity just the same.

The defense is illuminating. The editor takes refuge in the statement that as his paper is an official organ, the writers are government employees "whose position is, therefore, inferior to other professions, and his staff cannot be regarded as journalists."

There would seem to be more than a mere "journalistic grievance" in that. It's a horrid knock at public ownership.

SENDING FLOWERS

The Chicago gunmen shoot with one hand and toss a bouquet with the other. The ethics of the trade demand that the slayer should send a floral pillow for the funeral of the victim. Maybe the sensuous fragrance of the blooms numbs the shock of the act.

THE BARNACLE

By James J. Montague

The barnacle may take a trip
Upon a large and stately ship

And visit China or Japan
Or Africa or Hindustan,

Or bump against a crocodile
Amid the waters of the Nile,

Or tarry where the dolphins play
In some delightful Grecian bay,

And then be further eastward borne
To journey through the Golden Horn.

He well may travel miles and miles
Among the Mediterranean Isles,

And round the Cape to New South Wales
And past the lovely tropic vales,

To where the great Pacific roars
On Polynesia's coral shores,

And on, past mango palm and date
To anchor in the Golden Gate.

Yet his mentality is such
The journey will not help him much.

Which proves, no matter where you fare
By land or sea or through the air,

No great amount of good you'll gain
Unless you chance to have a brain.

The LEE SIDE o' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

THE old-fashioned table d'hote restaurant dinner, once so dear to the—er—heart, etc., of young literary workers, almost has vanished from our midst—almost, but not quite. The table d'hote dinner now follows the plate service idea, and when it's finished one often feels like the hearty Englishman in our favorite story. "Not a bad dinner, eh, for 2 and 6?" said his dyspeptic host. "No," agreed the hearty guest. "Let's have another."

But the old-fashioned table d'hote—ah, them was the days! Then authors could devote themselves more to pure art because they didn't have to think so much about money. We well recall our first freelancing venture. We bought a meal ticket at Louie Schmidt's restaurant—twenty-one meals for five dollars. And we ate four meals a day—only we did it at two sittings, luncheon and dinner. Second and third helpings, not plate-lunch servings, were the rule those days. And we did even better—or should we say worse—when first we invaded Mexico, a freelance without any sure source of income. There were a few weeks of that adventure during which we appeared at Mrs. Hull's American Hotel in Tampico only once a day—but we gained weight steadily. Oh, blessed memories! When we think of angels we do not think of winged harpists. We see Mrs. Hull, a little gray, a little wrinkled, a little deaf, and apparently totally blind to the circle of empty dishes all around our place, dishes cleaned as only we or Brownie, our faithful Neardale, could have cleaned them. We would be sitting there pensively, wondering if we could rise with all that ballast, and she would see that we were not eating and no food was before us. "Here, you girls," she would cry, "get Mr. Shippey some more chicken, and some more macaroni, and a couple more pieces of pie!"

Relic of Dear, Dead Past

But the table d'hote is not wholly extinct, even in cannier America. There is a French restaurant on Commercial street of which we are rather fond, in which seven persons are seated at each table, and food for seven persons is served in each course. That is, eight or nine slices of meat are on the meat platter, one apiece for most folks and a little extra in case anyone is especially hungry or hoggish.

Golden Goose Killers

But we fear it cannot long survive, for the man who killed the goose that laid the golden eggs has discovered it.

Yesterday we got there ahead of the main crowd, and only four were at our table. But food for seven was served our table in every course, as is the custom. Opposite us sat the goose-killer. He took only one bowl of the inevitable soup, but when the meat came he let each of us three take a piece, then swept all the rest off on his plate. A vegetable course followed, and he did the same. And then a salad course. But he didn't care for salad, so he asked the waitress to bring him some more meat instead. She brought a platter and he ate it all. The dessert was apples and bananas, au naturel, and you were supposed to take your choice. He took both. And then he staggered up to the cashier and paid 40 cents for the $2 dinner he had eaten without even blushing.

That's the stuff bank robbers are made of!

"Songs of City and Town"

Came west, and is now a great bercester.
He says: "In the year

Add Useless Inventions

Drifting about town, we note that a fountain pen with a compass in the blunt end is being pushed by several dealers—whether the purchasers can succeed in pushing it or not.

That looks like an inspired idea. But we doubt that it will work. We haven't heard of any pen yet which found its way home after being lent, no matter what it had to steer by.

LETTERS TO The Times

[Name and address of writer must accompany all letters for this column. Letters of a personal nature or involving contentious religious questions are not acceptable.]

No Religious Issue

LOS ANGELES, July 2.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Permit me to express my deep appreciation and unqualified approval of your excellent and timely editorial, "No Religious Issue," in The Times of July 1.

To support or oppose any candidate for public office solely because of that candidate's religious belief is, in my opinion, an evidence of unfitness to exercise the right of suffrage in this great republic. Any man or woman who makes, or tries to make, religion a political issue in this or any other campaign violates the spirit as well as the letter of the Constitution and cannot be classed as the highest and best type of citizen. Every real American should voice at the polls his political preferences, not his religious prejudices.

JASON SCHAEFFER.

The Issue Is Here

LOS ANGELES, July 2.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Your editorial in last Sunday's issue on the subject of religious intolerance with reference to the candidacy of Gov. Smith is much like an echo from the Houston convention, and an attempt to becloud what is likely to be an important issue as the campaign progresses, which is surprising in a journal so fair-minded and courageous as The Times. The writer of the editorial should know that the opposition to Gov. Smith on religious grounds is not due to his faith, adherence to his religious belief or form of worship, all of which is guaranteed by the Federal Constitution, but is based on the fact that he represents the Roman Catholic church as a political entity, which, many Protestants believe, is seeking to gain political control of the United States, and which it has done in some of the larger cities, like New York and Boston. It is because Protestants believe that a Roman Catholic owes and performs his first and paramount allegiance in matters of State, as well as faith, to the supreme head of the church and his counselors, who appear to them to be seeking political control of this country.

If these millions of Protestants are wrong why does not The Times writer disprove these allegations and beliefs, which would completely disarm the opposition to Gov. Smith on religious grounds? Why issue an appeal which reads like Democratic campaign argument, intended to confuse the electorate?

It is true that the injection of a religious feature into the campaign is deplorable. It is likely to set neighbor against neighbor and friend against friend, and become the cause of bitterness and strife for generations. But the issue is here, and it's alive. Let it be stated fairly and without attempt at evasion or deception. If we deplore the raising of the religious issue let us remember who foisted it upon us.

HENRY F. HARRIS.

A Boomerang

GLENDALE, July 1.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Every believer in American ideals of tolerance, good-will, justice and fair treatment to all will praise you on your stand against religious intolerance and bigotry. I am opposed to the Catholic church for its known doctrines and policies—yet I can accept a Catholic as a trusted friend and loyal American patriot, an honest neighbor and fellow-citizen.

My sympathy goes to any under-dog treated unfairly, and when people threaten "never to buy from me again" if I vote for a Catholic, I am tempted to do that very thing, even though I am a registered Republican and like Hoover for his service to his country. If the situation still looks the same to me in November I may voice my protest against religious bigotry by voting Democratic for the first time in my life.

R. PETERMAN.

Profitless and Absurd

SAN BERNARDINO, July 1.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I wish to heartily indorse your very timely and vigorous editorial of Sunday's (July 1) in regard to the insidious activities of religious bigots. That they slink around and whisper this and that is evident. As you say, "there is no controversy so bitter, so profitless," and I might add so absurd, as a religious controversy. Your fairness and broadmindedness is certainly to be highly commended. It proves that you, while being opposed to Gov. Smith, are man enough to deprecate such talk, and refuse to be involved in a matter so foreign to the spirit of our government.

J. THEOPHILUS JENKINS.

If it is true, as a fanciful reviewer assures us, that the heroes and heroines of fiction walk out of their book covers in the wee sma' hours, at the library, and exchange views, just think what a long line must emerge from the shelves whereon the works of Horatio Alger rest, and of what single minds they are! There were 119 of these synthetic heroes, all fearless, brave, tried and true, and the boys of this generation seem to take to them much as their dads and uncles used to.

One of the happy mediums the world needs more of is the poise midway between shyness and brass.

POLITICAL PLOTS

BY EUGENE BROWN

Letters of a Casual Conspirator to a Tammany Chieftain

XXV

Dear Al: Well, maybe by this time you know how we put it over. We didn't use the brass knuckles once—in fact, you couldn't pick a quarrel with one of the boys if you hid his flask. Orders were that we should be always amiable and to insist upon nothing—except the nomination.

When the carpenters got to work on what they call the platform or runway we told the farmers to bring in their own planks. We told the agitators to write their own ticket. We told the drys to put things on a bone basis. We told the Legion to fix up their own slate. We promised liberty to the Filipinos and ham and eggs to the hobos. We kept open house and told everybody to come in and help themselves. Of course we made a show of resistance occasionally, but the idea was to make the other guy think he had won something when we gave it to him.

As a result I think we have the flossiest bargain basement advertisement that we ever put in type. For folks who believe in Santa Claus it must be immense.

It was the first round-up I can remember that didn't have a fight and a few minority reports. Maybe it was because Bryan isn't here any more. I was wondering if we could have fooled him this time. I'll bet not.

The day before the wind-up I met a farmer who asked for relief. I told him to see you about it—that you knew exactly what he wanted and would be mighty glad of the chance to help him. I gave him your address and told him where to get off. When he blows in you will know what to do about it. Maybe you can tell him to go out to the park and look at the monuments. Or give him a cigar and a ride on the Coney Island ferry.

I think you will like this Joe Robinson that they have pinned on your ticket. He comes from a State called Arkansas or Arkansaw. They have a Hot Springs there that you have heard of. Joe is a husky guy and packs quite a punch. You might sign him up with Sharkey as an opener in the big city. I'll bet Tex Rickard would give a panful of dough for the event. You might put it on in the Garden the night before election.

Besides the wallop Robinson is said to have all the things that you haven't. He is from the country, but has been through college. You are from the city and haven't. He is dry and you are thirsty. And so on down the line. You wouldn't think you could speak to him, but you will.

Some of us wanted to nominate this Samson Televox on the ticket with you. Televox is this man of metal you have been hearing about. He was made at the structural steel works. You wind him up and give him a few drops of oil and he does anything you have laid out for him. Just push a button and Televox will pick up a Senator from his seat and slam him against the dome of the Capitol. He would make an ideal understudy. He has neither heart nor conscience. You could stake him out on the White House lawn and use him as a reception committee or you could push a buzzer and use him for a waiter at the lunch hour. As he would never need any sleep he could serve as a traffic cop after hours. It looked as if Televox was just what we wanted, but a delegate from Pittsburgh said that Televox was born and raised as a Republican and wouldn't fit into our picture.

Just before I came away from Houston Mayor Jimmy Walker told me that I was expected to go back to my town and restore the brown derby hat to its pristine glory. But this is no easy job. If I walk down Hollywood Boulevard with a derby on my bean folks merely stare and say something about Lew Cody going to the dogs. Take it from me it isn't going to be easy to run a derby lid campaign in California.

Maybe you noticed that they had two blind orators making star speeches at the Houston rodeo. At least these two admit that they are blind. Some smart Aleck said to me that a raft of the talkers were blind and didn't know it. But we had the right idea anyhow. This same bozo told me that the only way for the Democrats to find harmony was to round them up and then let them make spread-eagle speeches until they fell asleep.

That is what we did. We herded them in a big room; gave them a couple of bands to play with and told them to go to it. They could nominate one another for all the offices there are in the world and they had a lovely time. Before the show was over I bet there were seventy-five guys making speeches about you. They had you in the same exhibit with Jefferson and Lincoln and they placed you all the way from Moses to St. Peter. The only ones they forgot to liken you to were Joan of Arc and St. Vitus, and I am not sure about the last.

I asked Bill McAdoo to send you his regards, but I guess maybe he thought I meant regrets.

But those Tammany boys certainly like you. Honestly, some of them went without a drink for three days just to show Dan Moody how dry you were. They were dry all right. You can bet on that. One Tammany brave was so dry that his tongue looked like a plush lap robe. After it was all over you could hear his gargle for miles.

So no more at present.

TWO END LIVES; ANOTHER DYING

Holiday Marked by Series of Shooting Cases

One Suicide Navy Deserter and Second Woman

Third Victim of Own Bullet Former Editor

Two persons ended their lives by shooting yesterday in Los Angeles. A third probably will die from the effects of a self-inflicted bullet wound. Two of them had delayed the act because, as they said, they had wanted to die on Independence Day.

One of the dead is a boy, a deserter from the Navy, and the other a middle-aged woman. The one now lying close to death is a middle-aged man.

[illegible] J. Stewart, 17 years of age, a deserter from the U.S.S. Mississippi, ended his life by shooting himself in the heart with a shotgun yesterday morning in the home of his mother, Mrs. Marie A. Hardy, [illegible] South Hoover street. A note found in his clothes was headed: "I am going to kill myself on the Fourth."

Mrs. Hardy told investigating officers she had been trying to persuade the boy to rejoin his ship but that he had seemed fearful of doing so.

"The reason I committed suicide," said the note, "was because I have no one to stick with me and need someone. I deserted from the Navy. Rather than go back to the ship that has caused me so much trouble I would rather take my life and be at ease from everything."

A year ago Eugene Anzellotti, 52, former editor of an Italian publication called the Southern California Review, told his family he was going to commit suicide July 4. But his two sons, Amerigo and Pio, and his daughter, Marie, watched him so closely he did not have the opportunity. This year he threatened the same thing and, when left alone for a moment, obtained a revolver, which he had previously concealed, and shot himself through the head.

He was removed from his home, 2926 Seventh avenue, to the psychopathic ward at the General Hospital, where surgeons say he will die.

Mrs. W. H. Eichlitz, 48, said by neighbors to have been despondent for a long time, got a .38 caliber revolver yesterday and shot three times at her head, the first two bullets missing and the third taking effect. Death was instantaneous, surgeons say.

THREE RIDE OFF HIGH CLIFF

An automobile containing a man, his wife and daughter, rolled over the cliff edge above Cabrillo Beach, near Point Firmin, yesterday afternoon and fell 100 feet to the sandy ground beneath. The car was reduced to a mass of wreckage, but miraculously the occupants were not hurt.

Ramon Magdalena, 42 years of age, a newcomer from Mexico, who is living at Belvedere Gardens, told officers that his brakes failed to hold. Horrified witnesses on the beach heard a woman's scream and looking up saw the car turning in midair on its downward descent. As Magdalena emerged from the tangled heap he moved his right shoulder, made a wry face and said, "It hurts a little."

Mrs. Magdalena and the daughter, Ybarra, 17 years of age, could not even find a sore spot.

Cinema 'Heavy' Jailed in Mann Act Accusation

James E. Carpenter, said to be a film "heavy," was arrested by police and Federal agents yesterday for an asserted violation of the Mann Act. It is charged Carpenter brought Lowis Hill, 19 years of age, from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles and that they appeared at various places as Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter.

The young woman is reported to have been a ticket seller in a picture show in Salt Lake City. Carpenter was unable to furnish bail of $2500 and was placed in the County Jail.

SEWER HEARING TODAY

The City Council, sitting as a committee of the whole, will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon to consider the city's contributions toward the cost of sanitary sewer systems in the San Fernando Valley and Harbor sections of the city.

Skooter Car Crash Injures Boy Seriously

The Robert Lowen, six-foot-skooter car, was clipping it down the Copeland Place hill near Navarro street yesterday afternoon with the owner, Robert, at the helm and his friend, Donald Gamble, in the bow, when a rear wheel suddenly fell off. Robert threw himself in the opposite direction in an attempt to hold his place but lost his balance and his back rested against the rapidly revolving rim of the remaining wheel. It cut through his coat, shirt, trousers and into the flesh like a buzz saw.

At Georgia-street Receiving Hospital surgeons who worked over the lad said the wheel rim had just missed cutting through to vital organs. They sewed him up and sent him to a private hospital. They fear that the knife-like rim of the wheel fractured his spine.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lowen of 5360 Navarro street.

COURT HEARS INJURY SUIT

When court convenes today the trial of the case of Lloyd Bohn against Charles Connought who is asking $2500 damages for injuries he asserts he received in an automobile accident will be resumed. The plaintiff contends he suffered a dislocated hip when the defendant's car ran into his machine on August 14, 1927, at Windsor and Chevy Chase Drives.

LAKE HUNT FOR BOY FAILS

Water May be Drained from Big Pine Park Reservoir in Fear Eagle Rock Youth Has Drowned

Jackson Lake, in the Big Pines Park, may be drained today in an attempt to recover the body of Joe Mankewitz, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mankewitz of 1325 Armadale avenue, Eagle Rock, reports at the Sheriff's office revealed yesterday.

Young Mankewitz disappeared early yesterday morning, the reports stated, supposedly for a swim in the lake. When the youth, who had visited Big Pines Park with a group of Boy Scouts, failed to return a few hours later, a searching party was sent out to find him.

They found his clothing piled on the bank of the lake but no sign of the youth.

Deputy Sheriffs Hutchison and Lynch spent all day yesterday dynamiting the lake in an effort to raise the body but without success.

After failure to recover the body, the officers expressed doubt that the youth had been drowned and expressed the opinion that he might have taken this means of disappearing to run away from his home.

ANGELENO DIES IN LAKE ELSINORE

ELSINORE, July 4. (Exclusive)—J. A. Owens, 27 years of age, 952 Kensington Drive, Los Angeles, was drowned this afternoon in Lake Elsinore as he tried to swim to shore while his brother was gone for help.

Owens and his brother, E. R. Owens, swam out to one of the buoys which marked the course of motor-boat races held on the lake today. J. A. Owens became exhausted and his brother told him to hang onto the buoy while he returned for help. During the brother's absence, the man evidently thought he could make it back to shore and started swimming, sinking some distance from the banks.

Firemen worked over his body for two hours without success and the body was removed to undertaking parlors here. The men were members of a party celebrating the Fourth of July here.

Whisky Poisoner Not Identified; Search Goes On

The mysterious poisoner of Hyman Friedman of 222 South Indiana avenue still was at liberty yesterday when Deputy Sheriffs announced that they had discovered no new clews indicating the identity of the criminal.

Friedman died Sunday night after taking one drink from a bottle of whisky left in the automobile of Harry Lipsitz, his son-in-law, the night before. Chemical analysis revealed that the liquor contained a large quantity of cyanide.

It was revealed, however, that several suspects are under surveillance and an arrest is expected soon.

Here's Old Fashioned Thrift

LIKE the thrill of possessing a first pair of long pants, Old Home Bread gladdens the heart of a small boy.

And like the thrift thoughts practiced by mothers of long ago, Old Home breathes long life into every family budget.

It is a matter of record that the rich natural nourishment of Old Home Bread replaces expensive foods . . . foods lacking the health elements you need.

Many women have discovered that Old Home, enjoyed in abundance, saves from ten to twenty cents at dinner and supper, on food costs.

Thus you see Old Home is really worth discovering. Look for this baked-at-home goodness at your grocer's when you call.

"Boys will be boys"—happy boys—only when they're healthy boys. And who wouldn't be both happy and healthy after breakfasts of Heinz Rice Flakes—the crispy, crunchy, new cereal food with a flavor like toasty nutmeats?

Those are breakfasts that start folks off right....And that keep them "right".

For, by a special Heinz process, Heinz Rice Flakes are naturally "laxatized" by the use of the natural roughage of the rice itself. This process was developed by Heinz. It is owned exclusively by Heinz. In no other cereal food can you get the precise laxative qualities of Heinz Rice Flakes. So gentle. So natural!

Grown-ups as well as youngsters like Heinz Rice Flakes for they add to the "Joy of Living" and the fun of good health.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

Social affairs planned for the Hollywood Bowl's distinguished visiting conductors and soloists this season will begin with a number of buffet supper parties to be given the opening night, next Tuesday, by members of the hospitality committee. Hostesses will include Mrs E. Avery McCarthy, Mrs. Erwin Furman, Mrs. Franklin Booth, Mrs Boyce-Smith, Miss Violet Hart, Mr. an . Mrs. W. D. Dyers, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Thompson.

With a thought of considering the particular hobbies of the visiting celebrities rather than entertaining with the usual sort of affairs Mrs. E. Avery McCarthy is planning a tennis party for Albert Coates, the English-Russian conductor who will open the season and who is an enthusiastic tennis devotee. Many of th.. best-known tennis stars are to be guests on this occasion.

For Henri Verbrugghen, the noted Belgian conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony who is a lover of horses, Mrs. McCarthy's sister-in-law, Mrs. Norwood Howard, will give an affair on her delightful estate giving Mr. Verbrugghen an opportunity to meet W. W. Mines and see many of the famous horses owned by him. A number of other noted horsemen will also be present.

Bernardino Molinari, the celebrated Italian conductor who will come here from Rome, and Mrs. Molinari will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Furman at their home in Sycamore avenue.

Pedro Sanjuan, coming as he does from Havana as the guest conductor to the Bowl of the distinguished Spanish residents, will be surfeited with attentions while here from the Spanish-speaking colony. Mrs. Arthur Wright will be his hostess.

Once more the Italian colony will have interesting ecens in honor of Alfredo Casella, who comes here from Milan and Turin, and for Pietro Cimini, Los Angeles' "own" resident Italian conductor.

Miss Violet Hart, Mrs. J. Boyce-Smith and Mrs. Leiland Atherton Irish will join in giving the official Bowl reception in honor of Mr. Casella.

One of the elaborate affairs of the season will be that given by George Birkel at his large estate in Laurel Canyon when Percy Grainger, Austrian conductor, composer, pianist and his fiancee, Miss Viola Strom, whom he is to marry in the Bowl following one of his concerts, will be guests of honor. On this occassion the a cappella choir will also be entertained and will sing some old Swedish and Australian folk songs.

The affair that is to honor Mme. Ernest Schumann-Heink, who is making her final California appearance in Bowl, the 27th inst. will be given by Miss Violet Hart, Pasadena chairman of the Bowl.

Mrs. Franklin Booth and Mrs. Charles Henry Thompson are each entertaining for Eugene Goossens, London and Rochester conductor who will direct the orchestra two weeks. The noted soloists are to be entertained at the same events which honor the conductors under whom they will appear.

Lovely Affair

One of the lovely affairs of recent date was the beautifully appointed tea with which Miss Wesla Gregg entertained at her home in Santa Monica, honoring Miss Beth Forman, who is planning to pass several months at University of California at Berkeley where she was graduated.

The decorations were artistically carried out with a profusion of summer flowers in the pastel shades and ferns and the especial guests of honor included members of the Bachelorae Club.

Announce Betrothal

At a charmingly appointed bridge party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Goedde, the announcement was made of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Violet Goedde, to Cyril H. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Johnson of Detroit.

The table decorations were pink and white, with a centerpiece of pink roses surrounded by four tall white candles each tied with a bow of pink tulle. At each place stood a tiny messenger boy with a heart-shaped telegram bearing the names of the betrothed pair. The wedding will take place in June, 1929. Places were marked for twelve guests including Mmes. Clarence Kibbe, Robert Rutherford, Allen McCloud and Cecil Hearn and Miss Ruth Quackenbush; also Charles Nugent, Clarence Kibbe, Robert Rutherford, Allen McCloud and Cecil Hearn.

Gone East

Mrs. Dean Mason, accompanied by Miss Antoinette Fabel, left Monday morning by motor for an extended tour up the Coast as far as Banff and Lake Louise in the Canadian Rockies, where they will meet Mrs. Mason's niece and her husband, Lieut. and Mrs. Paul Kelly (Georgina Hicks,) who are en route to San Francisco, where Lieut. Kelly will be stationed at the Presidio.

Church Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Margaret Berg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Berg of 850 Beverly Drive, San Gabriel, to John Addington Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bell, 344 North California street San Gabriel, was solemnized Wednesday, June 27, in The Church of our Savior, San Gabriel, Rev. John Atwell, officiating.

The matron of honor was Mrs. P. P. Cortelyou of Mexico and other attendants included Mrs. John Vander Loan, Mrs. Malcolm Meacham and Miss Dorothy Parmenter. Lawrence Everett Berg, brother of the bride was best man, and the ushers were John Vander Loan, Malcolm Meacham and John Paul Jones.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of old ivory satin, which was beautifully draped. She wore an antique Spanish lace mantilla, which was caught-up becomingly with seed pearls and waxed orange blossoms, and carried a boquet of yellow and white calla lilies. The matron of honor wore yellow georgette gown in period style, and carried a shower bouquet of nasturtiums in shades of yellow and orange. The other attendants were charming in cream organdie period gowns over taffetta slips in shades of green, orchid and pink, and carried old-fashioned bouquets.

The bride was graduated from Broadoaks Seminary and is a member of Kappa Theta Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority of the University of California.

After the wedding a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berg.

HEALTH and DIET ADVICE

By Dr Frank McCoy

author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Dr. McCoy will answer personal questions on health and diet, addressed to him, care of The Los Angeles Times. Inclose stamped, addressed envelope for reply.

SOUPS ARE WHOLESOME

Liquid foods with a meal sometimes interfere with digestion. This is particularly true of starchy soups. Starch is the one food that requires a thorough mastication to make it digestible, and it is almost impossible to learn to chew liquids, or to hold them in the mouth for a sufficient period to enable the ptyalin, or digestive element of the saliva, to prepare liquid starches for the digestion of the stomach and intestine.

In preparing soups, one should remember that the most wholesome kinds are made from nonstarchy vegetables, and that food combinations must be observed in soups as well as in the meals. It is curious that sometimes even those who understand food combinations will make a mixture like rice or vermicelli-tomato soup, and then wonder why they are not improving as rapidly as they expect.

Wholesome soups are best served rather thick so that it is possible to chew them. Potatoes, brown rice, barley or peas may be used in combination with such vegetables as string beans, spinach, celery or parsley. It is better to boil the potatoes in their skins to obtain the valuable mineral elements which are near the outside. They can then be mashed and seasoned.

One should never use any acid with a meal in which one of these starchy soups is used. This means that tomatoes, peaches, oranges, berries, etc., are taboo for the time being.

Meat soups are quite wholesome when only one kind of meat is combined with some of the nonstarchy vegetables, as I have suggested with the starchy soups. It is permissible, however, to combine tomatoes with the meat soup, but all starches must positively be excluded if you wish to avoid fermentation.

The meat does not add a large amount of nourishment to the soup, but it does add to the flavor, and is not harmful. A good plan is to use the same kind of meat as that served at the meal. The meat may be ground up and left right in the soup, in which case a soup might serve as a whole meal by itself.

An exclusively nonstarchy soup may be used to advantage with any kind of a meal, even with those who have weak digestive organs. By cooking well and squeezing the vegetables through a colander or sieve and adding warm cream when ready to serve, one can make a most palatable dish from any of these vegetables: spinach, celery, string beans, carrots, parsnips or asparagus. If tomatoes are used for this soup, it is well to remember that no crackers or other starchy food should be added to the same meal.

A wholesome raw soup can be served in hot weather, prepared by grinding tomatoes, parsley, spinach and celery through a meat chopper. A small amount of salt may be added. This is really a liquid salad, and may be served as such. This soup tastes better than it sounds.

If you wish to avoid digestive disturbances, never use flour to thicken soups, and it is also better to avoid garlic and onions because of their gas-forming tendencies. By avoiding the pitfalls of dietetically wrong combinations, you can make soups into very wholesome, appetizing additions to your meals.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question: Reader writes: "Your articles are most interesting and educational—we certainly think them full of good suggestions and common sense. Will you kindly state what is meant by the following: 'A colon bordering on diverticulosis.' (1) What are some of the causes of colitis? (2) Should one suffering from colitis be on a diet? (3) Do you think colonic irrigations are very helpful?"

Answer: This simply means that pockets are forming in the colon in which food lodges, where it decomposes and putrefies more readily. (1) Wrong food, too much food, bad combinations, and everything which can produce constipation. (2) Diet is the only cure, and no special "queer" foods are necessary. Just follow the diet recommended in my weekly menus. (3) The daily enema is perhaps the best single treatment that can be given for colitis. In severe cases, two or three enemas daily should be used, and at least one enema taken daily over a period of several weeks. They are always helpful and can be no more harmful than washing the face, as long as you use only plain water.

Q.: Seventeen writes: "I have had pimples for about a year. My weight is about right, but I drink cream to get a little heavier. Could too much cream, butter, or tomatoes be the cause?"

A.: Certain kinds of pimples are no doubt caused by the use of too much oil and fat. Try a diet free from butter, milk and cream, and the fat of meat, and see if your skin trouble does not clear up.

Q.: W. H. asks: "What causes a child to grind its teeth in its sleep?"

A.: The common cause is from indigestion, but sometimes stomach or intestinal worms are responsible.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

OLDER CHILD IS OFTEN STARVED FOR ATTENTION

Mrs. A. D. writes: "This is the first time I have written to you. I have a little girl who will soon be 8 years of age. She is never happier than when she is on my lap. Do you think it will make life harder for he. when she grows up if I continue to show her all this affection? I have three younger children and no doubt you wonder how I have time to pet this one, but I never have to go to her, she always comes to me.

"What shall I do when the children tell me things which I know are not true? I know this is their imaginations but what shall I do, ignore their stories; and will they later be inclined to tell me lies?"

Answer: You see, I had to shorten your letter considerably to fit this space but you will recognize it. Oftentimes the older child is pushed aside when the younger ones arrive, not because the parent does not love him but because there are other small babies to hold and the older one should be sensible enough to understand that. You are wise not to be too busy, despite your cares, to take time to show this older child your affection. She will be happier, later she will outgrow this tendency naturally, and won't have the feeling that you favored the younger children at her expense.

It doesn't pay, whether the child is younger or older, to show any favoritism. If the youngest wants babying give it to him and remember the older ones, too, and show them some mark of affection which makes them constantly aware that they are as important in your eyes as the baby. Perhaps it is true that some children are over-petted to their own detriment, but matched with these isolated cases are many, many more children who are starved for some open evidence of their parents' affection. Children can't be expected to take too much for granted.

Not only are children's imaginations so fertile that they add to any ordinary story, but they are really incapable of telling a story exactly as it is, or as we might see it. A child's idea of happenings is so colored by his fancy that by the time he tells a story it develops into something quite different from the actual event.

Point out the places which are too extravagant and say, "That is a play story," and persuade the children to tell you all kinds of things that happen to them daily, so they will take pride in remembering all they can and in observing it correctly. Later they will outgrow their fancying which is only remotely related to lying. Lies are told for a purpose, usually a selfish one. Fanciful tales are told because a child sees them that way.

An Unlovely Sight

Cut flowers are beautiful in the home, but they are anything but beautiful if allowed to die in their holders and then not thrown out.

Crosswise

Kimona aprons and dresses should be ironed from side to side instead of lengthwise to prevent that ugly sagging at the side seams.

SOUR MILK SCONES

Sift four cupfuls of flour with a teaspoonful of cream of tartar, and a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, rub into the flour as for biscuits four tablespoonfuls of butter, add one and a third cupfuls of sour milk in which has been dissolved one teaspoonful of baking soda. Mix to a smooth dough with one and one-half cupfuls of chopped seeded raisins, turn out on a well-floured board, knead smooth, roll out and cut in rounds with a large cutter. Bake on a hot, well-greased griddle.

RASPBERRY JAM

Weigh the raspberries and allow one pound of sugar and one-quarter of a pound of peeled diced apples to each pound of berries. Place the apples in a saucepan, add the sugar and boil for twenty minutes, add the raspberries and simmer for twenty minutes, pour into hot jars and seal.

FILLET OF CHICKEN

Remove the breast from young roasting chickens, season with salt and pepper, place in a saute pan, and cook until slightly yellow in hot butter, for the breast of four chickens, add to the pan one cupful of cream and finish cooking. Place the breasts on slices of buttered toast on a serving dish, place a border of mashed potatoes around the edge of the dish. Heat two cupfuls of thick cream in a double boiler, season with salt and cayenne and stir in the beaten yolks of two eggs. Add one tablespoonful of grated cheese, stir and cook two minutes. Then add to the gravy in the pan, allow to heat, pour the sauce over the chicken breast, sprinkle with bread crumbs and grated cheese and brown in the oven. Serve from the same dish.

COLD FISH, LEMON SAUCE

Wash and clean the fore shoulders of a halibut about a four or five-pound piece, cut it into small pieces and place in a saucepan with two cupfuls of water and three sliced onions that have been fried to a light brown in oil. Season with one-quarter of a teaspoonful of cayenne pepper, two teaspoonfuls of salt and one teaspoonful of ginger. Let simmer gently until the fish is cooked. Beat into two eggs two teaspoonfuls of cornstarch, the juice of six small onions, and two tablespoonfuls of chopped parsley; when smooth pour slowly into the egg mixture, one cupful of the fish stock, stir smooth, remove the bones from the fish, combine the two mixtures, stir gently over the fire for two minutes, pour into a mold that has been wet with cold water, cool and place in the ice box until thoroughly chilled. Serve with slices of lemon and cold lemon hollandaise sauce.

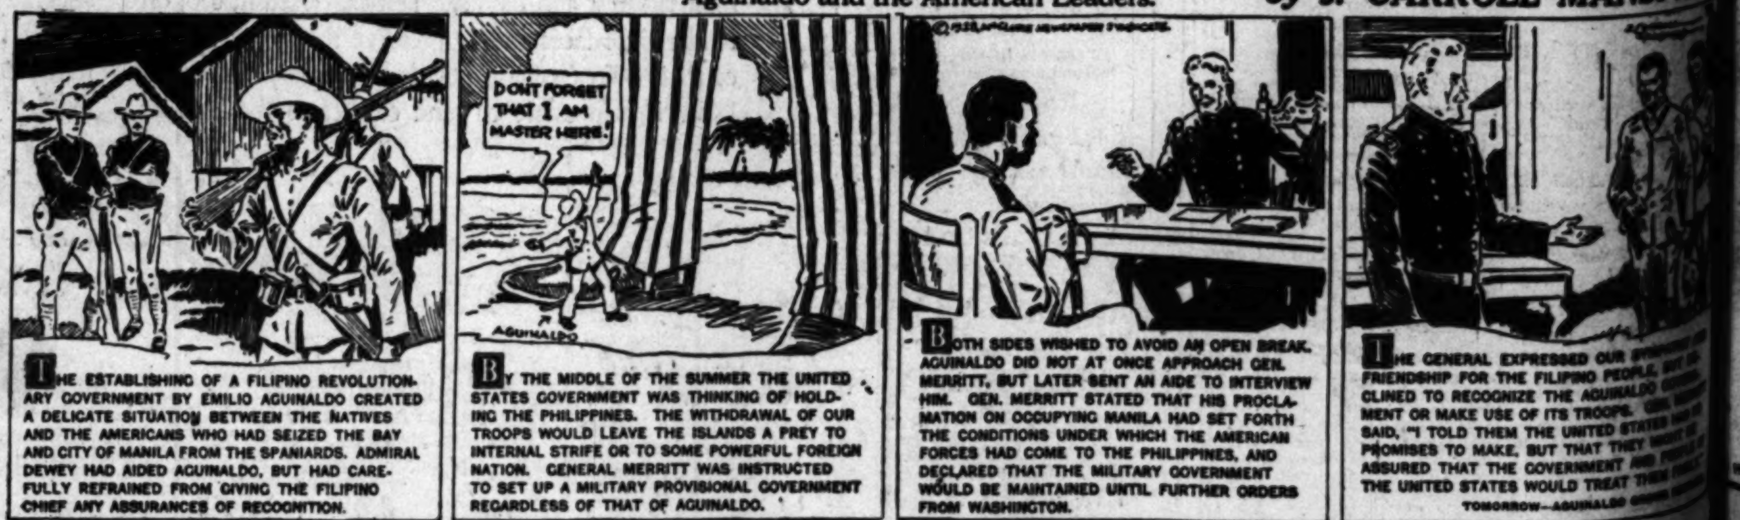
OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 1072 The Philippines as An American Colony. Aguinaldo and the American Leaders.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD



DON'T FORGET THAT I AM MASTER HERE!
AGUINALDO

THE ESTABLISHING OF A FILIPINO REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNMENT BY EMILIO AGUINALDO CREATED A DELICATE SITUATION BETWEEN THE NATIVES AND THE AMERICANS WHO HAD SEIZED THE BAY AND CITY OF MANILA FROM THE SPANIARDS. ADMIRAL DEWEY HAD AIDED AGUINALDO, BUT HAD CAREFULLY REFRAINED FROM GIVING THE FILIPINO CHIEF ANY ASSURANCES OF RECOGNITION.

BY THE MIDDLE OF THE SUMMER THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WAS THINKING OF HOLDING THE PHILIPPINES. THE WITHDRAWAL OF OUR TROOPS WOULD LEAVE THE ISLANDS A PREY TO INTERNAL STRIFE OR TO SOME POWERFUL FOREIGN NATION. GENERAL MERRITT WAS INSTRUCTED TO SET UP A MILITARY PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT REGARDLESS OF THAT OF AGUINALDO.

BOTH SIDES WISHED TO AVOID AN OPEN BREAK. AGUINALDO DID NOT AT ONCE APPROACH GEN. MERRITT, BUT LATER SENT AN AIDE TO INTERVIEW HIM. GEN. MERRITT STATED THAT HIS PROCLAMATION ON OCCUPYING MANILA HAD SET FORTH THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH THE AMERICAN FORCES HAD COME TO THE PHILIPPINES, AND DECLARED THAT THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT WOULD BE MAINTAINED UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS FROM WASHINGTON.

THE GENERAL EXPRESSED OUR FRIENDSHIP FOR THE FILIPINO PEOPLE, BUT CLINED TO RECOGNIZE THE AGUINALDO MENT OR MAKE USE OF ITS TROOPS. SAID, "I TOLD THEM THE UNITED STATES PROMISES TO MAKE, BUT THAT THEY ASSURED THAT THE GOVERNMENT THE UNITED STATES WOULD TREAT

No one ever told her

he didn't know that the mothworms do all the damage and the flying moth eats nothing! She relied on insect-killers, moth-balls, tar-bags and cedar chests. They can't stop mothworms from eating! But Larvex can, because it mothproofs the cloth itself! Guaranteed by Good Housekeeping Magazine. Absolutely odorless. Comes in two forms. SPRAYING LARVEX for clothes, furniture, etc. Costs as little as pressing—enough to thoroughly mothproof two suits, only $1. Simply spray on and it mothproofs for an entire year. RINSING LARVEX for all washable woolens —blankets, sweaters, baby garments, etc. Easy as rinsing! Dissolve in water—soak woolens— and they're mothproofed until washed again. A $1 package mothproofs all the washable woolens of the average family. Sold by drug and department stores. Spraying Larvex; pints, $1—with special atomizer, $1.50. ½ gallons, $3. Gallons, $5. Rinsing Larvex, $1. The Larvex Corporation, 230 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y.

VICTIM IN EXPLOSION ON PLEASURE CRAFT

Mrs. R. C. Locke

HEROISM IN BOAT BLAST SAVES LIFE

Young Wife of Cruiser's Owner, With Worker, Burned in Harbor Mishap

Wilton Martin, youthful operator of the marine filing station at the Municipal Fish Wharf, yesterday saved the life of Mrs. R. C. Locke, 22 years of age, of 746 El Centro street, Tujunga, when he rushed aboard the burning launch El A'la D'Oro and carried her to safety following a gasoline explosion aboard the thirty-three-foot pleasure craft.

Mrs. Locke suffered second-degree burns about the body, and Joseph Rosbrugh, 20, of 615 Redfield avenue, was burned slightly, while Mrs. Locke's husband, owner of the boat, was uninjured. Mrs. Locke was given treatment at the San Pedro General Hospital and later removed to her home. She will recover.

The Lockes had just taken delivery of the small cabin cruiser at a San Pedro boat yard and stopped en route down the channel to have the gasoline supply replenished. A small amount of gasoline was spilled into the bilges and when Locke attempted to start the engine a spark from the starter exploded the gas thus formed. The craft, valued at $10,000, was gutted before the two fireboats and several land companies could extinguish the blaze.

Port police praised the heroic action of young Martin in going aboard the burning boat—with explosion of the gasoline tanks imminent—to rescue Mrs. Locke, who had most of her clothing burned from her body and was in a semiconscious condition.

Children Win in Family Row

It was a case of standing by her babies of her first marriage or giving up their stepfather, and she chose the latter.

This was the testimony of Mrs. Dora Abrams before Superior Judge Blake in her case against Harry Abrams, whom she wanted to divorce on the grounds of cruelty, particularly practiced on her two small children, Sarah, 10 years of age, and Julius, 13.

"He pinched little Sarah until he made her arm black and blue," Mrs. Abrams said. "He wouldn't let Julius have any food. He wanted to see him starved. I couldn't stand it." A decree was granted.

Ex-Banker to Have Trial Set

John E. Murphy, former manager of a branch bank at Second and Fremont streets, is scheduled to appear on Monday in United States District Court to have his case set for trial.

Murphy is accused of a misapplication of funds, amounting to about $30,000, according to Asst. U. S. Atty. Layng. He is accused in one complaint with D'Arcy Parker of twelve counts and in another indictment, naming only Murphy, with four counts. Murphy has furnished bail of $10,000.

Harold Lloyd Suit Deferred

If Harold Lloyd, film comedian, can drive an automobile at a neck-breaking speed in and out of traffic in the pictures without hitting anybody, why can't he do it in real life?

This is what Mrs. Maria Tufts wants to know, asking in a law suit brought against the comedian that he pay her damages of $3105 for personal injuries she asserts she received when the actor's big car ran into the one she was driving September 29, 1926, at Fifth street and Wilshire Boulevard, Santa Monica.

In his answer the comedian places the blame on Mrs. Tufts, asserting she ran into his car while driving with Harry Murch. The case was called for trial in Superior Judge Wilson's court, and was continued until August 27.

EARLY START PLANNED FOR MEMORIAL DAY

The Memorial Day committee of the veteran organizations here has decided that three months is not enough time in which to arrange the many details of the Memorial Day celebration, so a special meeting has been called for the 9th inst. at 7:30 p.m. at Patriotic Hall for election of officers and committees to function until next Memorial Day. Three delegates from each veterans' organization are requested.

Lye Victim Dies of Starvation

Death, sought by Lucretia Hernandez, of Owensmouth one year ago when she drank lye water while despondent over ill-health, came to her yesterday when she died of starvation, according to reports filed at the Coroner's office yesterday.

Miss Hernandez, who was but 17 years of age, suffered such severe burns from the lye water that she had been unable to take nourishment since, according to the report.

The body was taken to the Owensmouth Funeral Parlors.

The girl lived at 7218 Eaton street, Owensmouth, the report states.

SOAP ESSAY PRIZES AWARDED ANGELENOS

Thrift and beauty, as occasioned by the use of Sunset soap dyes and Dytint, are so well exemplified by Southern California women that they received awards in the prize contest recently held by the makers of those commodities. Winners of cash prizes in the recommender division are Mrs. Lillian J. Hartwell, 4129 Clayton avenue; Mrs. Daisy Creb, 315 East Thirty-sixth street, and Anna Stevens of 419 North Broadway, all of this city. Mrs. M. J. Leighten of Long Beach, Mrs. C. L. Mehrten, Madge Sewell, Gilson V. Willets, all of Pasadena, and Florence Weiding of Santa Monica also are among the winners.

A California Acre

A Weekly Serial Story Telling of the Possibilities of the Intensive Little Farm

CHAPTER IV.

Continuing this serial story which is appearing in the Times every Thursday, the subject for today is "Grapes." Not the proverbial "sour grapes," but grapes within the reach of everyone, growing on beautiful arbors over shady walks and drives. In planning and developing his one-acre farm, Charles Weeks had in mind beauty as well as utility. To that end he has used grape vines to make cool, refreshing arbors and shady walks. There are 22 kinds of the choicest table grapes trained artistically on trellises and arbors around the cozy cottage, making a tropical forest effect, even to that delightful, fresh "woodsy" smell. The cottage is nestled in banks of verdure.

Every foot of the one-acre farm of Charles Weeks is made to produce something useful and beautiful. In order not to waste the space occupied by the driveway into the garage, large clusters of delicious grapes hang from the arbor overhead. Even the roof space over the garage and cottage is made into a beautiful summer garden by arbors of grapevines.

One of the most delightful nooks on this intensive little farm is that formed by the expansive grape arbor that encloses the aviary for songbirds. This grape covered aviary is ten feet high, 24 feet wide and 60 feet long and is filled with warblers and rollers. When they flood the morning air with sweetest song, one can imagine that he walks in the leafy forest of the Hartz Mountains. In the center of this vine-covered aviary is a pretty little birdhouse for shelter and feed, in the front of which is a fountain that trickles down into bird baths and into the goldfish pond below. The floor of this fairyland aviary is covered with a soft carpet of bluegrass lawn.

Charles Weeks says that the most delightful moment of the whole day on his one acre farm is that moment at break of day when each little feathered songster bursts simultaneously into thrills, crescendoes and runs of bird music. The songsters in the aviary attract outside songsters from far and near and the mocking bird in the rose bush over the window and the song sparrow in the hedge of fruit trees add their glad refrain to the morning chorus. How much sweeter, more restful, more inspiring the songs of birds than the noise of the street cars, automobiles and newsboys in the irritating city. The pepper drives, dense hedges and fruit trees in the Weeks Community attract thousands of song birds.

After the song of the birds in the morning, in the opinion of Mr. Weeks the next most interesting part of the day's program is to visit the grape vines while the dew is still on the grass in the cool of the morning and sample the many kinds of juicy grapes right off the vine. The Amber Queen, the earliest and sweetest of all grapes, is a special favorite and the first visited. Then comes the good old Concord we used to know back East, full of "slip-skin" sweetness. Then the Thompson seedless, Rose of Peru, White Niagara and the balance of the 22 varieties.

The Concord grape is one of the favorites on the one acre farm of Charles Weeks, not only for its fine table qualities but because it makes the finest, sweet juice for canning, which can be used throughout the year for making refreshing punches along with lemons, oranges and grape fruit. (It may pay you to cultivate the acquaintance of Charles Weeks.) He takes great delight in treating his intimate friends to this Elixir of Life sweet from his own vines. One of the keenest joys of the little farm is to be able to treat choice friends with good things to eat and drink direct from your own trees and vines.

Sweet music for the ear, beautiful flowers for the eye, delicious viands for the palate, fragrance of honeysuckle for the nostrils, noble, productive work for the hand and a world of love for the heart—all on a one acre farm in Weeks City of Garden Homes.

There are no other kinds of trees or vines that make a quicker shade than grape vines. A barren acre can be made into a beautiful green place with an abundance of shade and good things to eat the second summer after planting. Trees and vines grow while you sleep and add more beauty and financial worth to a place than any other work. Inexpensive buildings become artistic when draped in clinging vines and surrounded with bearing trees. In the Weeks Community each little farm adds its quota of beauty to the whole neighborhood and thus units make a perfect whole and form a garden city.

If you are seriously interested in finding a location that has every essential in soil, water, climate, market and good neighbors, it will pay you to investigate the Weeks Poultry Community—a community evolved especially for the family that wishes to retire from the high tension of modern business and live in peace and quiet and abundance in a beautiful environment. This artistic city of garden homes is attracting nature lovers from all over the world, those who love to live the simple life among the flowers, trees and vines. Charles Weeks points the way with his 25 years experience in California and shows how to create this little heaven on earth.

This unique and remarkable city of self-supporting garden homes is located in the west end and the best end of the bountiful San Fernando Valley, 16 miles from theatrical Hollywood and 15 miles from the ocean. Here the main business is the "business of living" —creating an environment for the highest health, harmony and happiness for each and every individual in the community. The commercial business is that of producing eggs for market and doing it in the most scientific and up-to-date manner possible. These eggs are sold by the producers themselves through their own co-operative organization.

Charles Weeks extends to you a cordial invitation to visit his one acre farm and the community around him and see what new and wonderful work is being done along the lines of intensive agriculture. It will be a revelation to you. Every Sunday at 2 p.m. Mr. Weeks lectures on his little farm on "the fine art of earning a comfortable living from one acre of land in California." Literature, including a free copy of LITTLE FARMS magazine will be mailed you if you will address Charles Weeks, Owensmouth, California. A copy of Mr. Weeks' book, ONE ACRE AND INDEPENDENCE, will be sent upon receipt of $1.00. To reach Weeks community, drive west of Van Nuys on Sherman Way, between Reseda and Owensmouth.

RADIO STATIONS OF CITY PRAISED

Eighth District Chief Tells of High Rating

Statement Made Before His Start Eastward

Successful Operation of New Test Car Cited

"Radio in Los Angeles has a high standard rating," said S. W. Edwards, supervisor of the Eighth Radio District, as he left yesterday for New York after a week spent here with the new radio test car that has been assigned to the sixth and seventh districts. "I mean by that statement that the Los Angeles stations are clean cut in their power and frequencies and that splendid co-operation is being shown by the various units in solving the problems of the Radio Commission.

"The test car, which was shipped from Detroit to San Francisco and which we have experimented with down the coast, is virtually a traveling supervisor's office. It is completely equipped for measuring frequencies accurately, checking modulation and can measure the power of any station at a distance.

MATTER OF INTERFERENCE

"It also can trace interference although this power is not within the province of the department except in grave cases, such as malicious sabotage of the air. Trouble from power lines, transformers or other forms of local interference are not a responsibility of the department. The automobile is adaptable to holding examinations for operators' licenses, is equipped with a typewriter and can be plugged in for telephone communication.

"This is known as Test Car No. 3 of the Radio Commission. It is entirely devoid of metal and was built after much experimentation. The city government of Los Angeles has made provision for quarters for a branch office here and it is quite probable that the commission will act on the matter in the near future."

MEMBERS OF PARTY

Accompanying Mr. Edwards on his tour of inspection were his assistant, J. E. Brown of Detroit; B. H. Linden, supervisor of the sixth radio district with headquarters in San Francisco; Edwin W. Lovejoy, senior radio inspector of the district, who probably will be in charge of the Los Angeles branch office, and W. L. Tierney, engineer of the Bell Telephone Company laboratories of New York.

"We have but one serious problem in Los Angeles, a question of the serviceability of one station from which repeated attacks against the city government and public interests have been made," said Supervisor Linden. "We have received an avalanche of disapproval from the radio public and the data are being forwarded to the commission for action."

BENTZ BURIAL TODAY

Pasadenan's Funeral Will Be Conducted in Glendale

Funeral services for John Calvin Bentz, 60 years of age, who died Tuesday in Pasadena following a brief illness, will be conducted today at 11 a.m. from the chapel of Reynolds & Eberle in Pasadena. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale.

Known as an authority on oriental art as well as in business, as founder and president of the California Knitting Mills in Los Angeles, Mr. Bentz led an active life in Southern California for the last thirty-three years. He was a resident of Pasadena.

The California Knitting Mills will be closed today in honor of the memory of its former president.

TWO-YEAR GRUDGE ENDS IN SLASHING

Two years ago yesterday Refugio Banuelos, 123 North Elmer street, got the worst of a fight with Frank Montenegro, 5026 Hooper avenue, so yesterday he decided to call on Montenegro and even up the score. He struck Montenegro on the side of the jaw, so Montenegro told officers, and knocked him down. When Montenegro got to his feet he met with another of Banuelos's fists and fell again. The next time Montenegro rose he did so with a knife in his hand. Banuelos received a four-inch cut across the left cheek. The cut was sewed up at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital and Montenegro was booked on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

FIREWORKS MISHAP BURNS SMALL GIRL

A sparkler that had more sparkle than it should set fire to the clothes of Gertrude Washington, 8 years of age, colored, while she was celebrating the Fourth of July in front of the house at 1189 East Fiftieth street yesterday. She was treated for first and second-degree burns at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. Her parents live at 936 East Thirty-first street.

ARTISTS PROGRAMMED

The luncheon program at the Masonic Club tomorrow noon will be through the courtesy of Ada Morgan O'Brien. She will present the following artists: Chief Red Wing, Cherokee Indian; Rose Marie, Osage Indian; Miss Alice Lohr, contralto; and Miss Irene Miller, pianist.

MARINES SAIL FOR NICARAGUA

New Contingent Leaves to Supervise Elections for Troubled Republic

Approximately 700 marines, carrying with them all field equipment for an extensive campaign, will sail for Nicaragua this morning aboard the U.S.S. Medusa, the main contingent of the 1258 men being sent as reinforcements to the marine expeditionary Force.

The contingent will be in command of Lieut. Col. Gerard M. Kincade, battle fleet marine officer, who has had more Central American and West Indian field service than any other officer in the Marine Corps. Col. Kincade served in Haiti, Santo Domingo and Nicaragua with a total of twenty-one years.

The Navy Department has announced that the 1258 marines and sailors are being sent to Nicaragua chiefly to supervise the Presidential elections there next fall and not in anticipation of any serious disturbance. It is expected that the contingent will remain in Nicaragua until January, 1929.

All Federal Attorneys to Get More Pay

Announcement was made yesterday by United States Attorney McNabb that all his assistants in both criminal and civil departments will receive increases in salary under the provisions of the Welch bill. The increases also apply to clerks in the office. The salaries, it was stated, now range from $2750 for junior assistants to $5000 a year for seniors.

It also was stated that Emmett E. Doherty, at his own request, has been transferred from the criminal to the civil department of the office. His place will be taken in United States District Judge McCormick's court by W. R. Gallagher, now prosecutor in Judge Henning's court, and Gallagher's place will be taken by P. V. Davis, formerly in the civil department.

Homer Chapman Dies in Hospital

Homer Chapman, real-estate operator, died yesterday at the Hollywood Hospital after a week's illness. He was 53 years of age and had resided at 100 North Orange Drive. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 3 p.m. from the W. A. Brown chapel. The Wilshire Masonic lodge will be in charge. The body will be cremated.

Mr. Chapman came to Los Angeles in 1908 from Kansas City, where he had received his education. He was the son of Dr. Andrew Chapman, a pioneer physician of Kansas City. Besides his widow, Mrs. Edna Chapman, he leaves a son, Joseph H. Capman. He was a member of the Los Angeles Country Club and of the Santa Monica Beach Club.

Firecrackers Hurt Two Boys

SANTA MONICA, July 4. — Two boys received dangerous eye injuries today on the ocean front from exploding firecrackers that had been tossed into the air.

One youngster was Badford Garner, 9 years of age, 601 West Wilson avenue, Glendale. He was treated at Martin's Hospital and sent home with his parents. The other was Joseph Schwartz, 9, 944 East Pico street, Los Angeles. He was treated at the Santa Monica Hospital. In each case surgeons said the lads might lose their eyesight.

LIENS WORRY ACTRESS

Barbara Bedford Facing Three Tax Suits Though Bankrupt

Barbara Bedford, motion-picture actress, must find a way to pay three income-tax liens while she has already filed a petition in bankruptcy.

In her voluntary petition she stated she has liabilities of $6485 and assets of $500, the latter being declared exempt.

Collector of Internal Revenue Welch filed three income-tax liens against her for 1923, 1924 and 1925 for additional taxes amounting to $276.28.

SWIM POOL PROPOSITION GOES AHEAD

City Officers Will Sign Construction Agreement for Starting Work

The building of the large swimming pool at Exposition Park, which has been requested by the Chamber of Commerce and many other organizations, has been advanced as a result of the City Council's action in authorizing Mayor Cryer and City Clerk Dominguez to sign the agreement which will enable construction work to start.

The agreement must be signed by the city, county and Sixth District Agricultural Association, all of which have joint interest in Exposition Park. The city's Playground Commission will endeavor to obtain all signatures to the agreement as soon as possible so that work can start. The pool is to be used by the public and for the swimming events at the Olympic Games in 1932.

Boys Inducted Into Office at Juvenile City

Climaxing a July 4 celebration, a 16-year-old Mayor, a 15-year-old judge, and a 17-year-old health commissioner took the oaths of their respective offices yesterday in a republic by, of and for boys—in the heart of Southern California.

These moments of political triumph came to three citizens of the Community Chest's California Junior Republic at Chino, where orphans and other poor boys between 14 and 18 years of age are given free courses in citizenship, vocational training and academic subjects.

The republic, founded by Curtis D. Wilbur twenty years ago when he was a juvenile court judge here, is patterned after a typical American municipality, the boys electing their own officers and conducting their own government. Its population averages around 160.

"Mayor" Warren Barker, "Judge" Kerwin Lee and "Health Commissioner" Ray Zorn were recently elected after waging a fierce campaign against an opposition ticket. Their platform consisted of such planks as "need of a set of Mark Twain for the republic library," more hunting and fishing in the summer vacation, more clean necks and ears, and "bigger and better toothbrushes."

SHELDON'S ESTATE DISCLOSES $200,000

FIRST LIFE A MYSTERY

Day broke over a dead world. For eons lifeless waves had lapped the barren shore lines of the earth. For eons the mois air and the warm sun had quickened not one molecule of mud. But this was the day of days, when at last the restless energy of Nature was destined to take shape. Something stirred in the Pre-Cambrian muck and the first creature was born.

Five hundred million years or more have passed since then, but the great event of that day is still a mystery. Five hundred million years from now, if Fate is kind, idle academicians will still be pondering solutions. But no one can know how life began, nor where, nor exactly when, for time has blotted out the record.

Many have tried, but no one has been able to show that Nature ever repeated the miracle of that day. The clod then kindled into life remains the one known exception to Pasteur's famous dictum, "All life from life." Small and weak and ugly as the first live thing must have been, its significance has never been surpassed. Its descendants have put meaning into the blind struggle of physical forces.—[John H. Bradley, Jr., in the Century Magazine.

FRANCE CUTS TRUFFLE TAX

Truffles, once the luxury of the rich man's table, are becoming more democratic in France.

They are still high in price, as in scent and flavor, but the relatively poor man has moved up his living standards until even he gets a whiff of them once in a while, and the government has just recognized his right to that expensive whiff.

Formerly everything that had even a few ground truffle peelings in it was taxed 12 per cent by the government. Now the Ministry of Finance has changed its tune and the truffle assumes the character of the thing it scents or flavors. On poultry and fine pates there is a de luxe tax whether they are truffled or not. If the humble pigs-feet are truffled they remain pigs-feet and have been dolled up a little.

Truffles themselves, however, are distinctly de luxe, costing about $3 a pound.—[Kansas City Star.

LINEN AIRPLANES

Metallized linen, a new fabric, may bring about a complete change in the construction of aircraft. It has a tensile strength of over 100 pounds per foot width, and is very light.

An airplane half the present weight, yet considerably stronger, could be constructed from such a fabric, while petrol tins for an Atlantic flight could be made of metallized material lighter than the thinnest aluminum.—[London Tit-Bits.

HOME GIVEN TO AID ILL YOUNGSTERS

Children's Hospital to Be Augmented by Thirty-Bed Institution

Because the beds of the Children's Hospital, an agency of the Community Chest at Sunset Boulevard and Vermont avenue, invariably are filled with acutely ill youngsters, and the need of a home for convalescents has been urgent, a group of women yesterday presented the hospital with such a home at Hermosa Beach.

The presentation and groundbreaking ceremony took place simultaneously on the site at Monterey Boulevard near Sixth street in the beach city. Headed by Mrs. Henry Kingsley, the women had organized an Hermosa Beach auxiliary of the hospital and purchased two lots. They also arranged the financing of the construction of the building.

Although the Community Chest granted the Children's Hospital $221,575.41 this year, this fund is for maintenance and not for building or other capital expense. Teas, carnivals, rummage sales and bazaars for the past year have yielded the amount necessary for the purchase of the property and the construction of a modern convalescent home to accommodate thirty children.

Byrd Antarctic Fokker Ship to Be Shown Here

The airplane to be used by Commander Richard Byrd in his Antarctic explorations is due to arrive in Los Angeles about 2 o'clock this afternoon, according to the Western Air Express. The plane, manufactured by the Atlantic Aircraft Corporation at Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., is being flown across the continent by G. E. Haynes, sales manager for the company. He is to remain here two days and demonstrate the plane to all interested. The ship is to be housed at Vail Field.

The plane is a Fokker superuniversal. It has a maximum speed of 140 miles an hour, and a cruising speed of 118 miles per hour. It can climb at the rate of 1000 feet per minute. The motive power is supplied by a single 400-horsepower Pratt & Whitney Wasp engine.

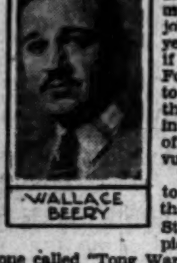
Marguerite De La Motte, that beautiful young actress of whom we have seen all too little of late, but who made such a splendid success in "The Three Musketeers," will have the lead in the sequel.

Von Sternberg's Next Paramount

Having given his desk an extra high polish in honor of sitting in for B. P. Schulberg during the latter official's absence from Paramount studios, B. P. Fineman was on the job long enough yesterday, even if it was the Fourth of July, to let us know that he had an interesting piece of news to divulge.



WALLACE BEERY

This news is to the effect that Josef von Sternberg's next picture will be one called "Tong War," and that it will star Wallace Beery. At present the director is at work making "The Docks of New York," starring George Bancroft.

In "Tong War," Beery will play the ruling power in a Chinese colony, giving the director an unusual opportunity for the realism and startling effects that made "Underworld" and his other pictures box-office winners.

Mary Pickford's Plans

However much we may regret her decision when we remember "Daddy Longlegs" and other stories, Mary Pickford has given up kid roles for good, she let it be known to us recently. And she is looking for a story and for a leading man. She wants another Buddy Rogers, she declares, only one a bit more mature.

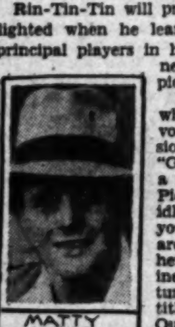
"My next story will be a love story, a romance, but it will be a grown-up romance," declared Mary. "Not a sophisticated story, mind you, nor shall I play the role of a married woman, but I shall be grown up."

Miss Pickford wants an American youth as her leading man, although she admits that the English John Stuart is very nice and a very good actor.

Official word has it that Miss Pickford feels she is really just starting her career and that neither time nor money are to be spared by her in making her best pictures.

Rin-Tin-Tin's Leads

Rin-Tin-Tin will probably be delighted when he learns who his principal players in his next Warner Brothers picture will be.



MATTY KEMP

Matty Kemp, who made a favorable impression in Sennett's "Good-by Kiss," and Evelyn Pierce, a rapidly advancing young actress, are to be the hero and heroine of the picture, which is titled "The Outlaw Dog." Ross Lederer will direct, and the most of the story will be filmed at Lake Arrowhead, where Rin-Tin-Tin, not to mention the human players, can keep in condition by taking a swim every day.

It is said that Rin-Tin-Tin is cultivating his bark with a view to Vitaphone sound effects.

Jack Donovan In It

The athletic and good-looking Jack Donovan is coming right along with his film career. Having completed his series of westerns for Pathe, Donovan has just signed for an important part in F.B.O.'s sea feature, "The Spirit of Youth," starring Robert Steele and being directed by Jerome Storm.

The company has been working on location on a Santa Monica fishing barge.

Yola D'Avril With Sills

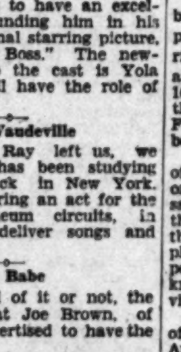
Milton Sills is to have an excellent cast surrounding him in his next First National starring picture, "The Wrecking Boss." The newest addition to the cast is Yola D'Avril, who will have the role of a show girl.

Charles Ray in Vaudeville

Since Charles Ray left us, we learn that he has been studying voice culture back in New York. Now he is preparing an act for the Keith and Orpheum circuits, in which he will deliver songs and monologue.

Joe Brown With Babe

Whether proud of it or not, the fact remains that Joe Brown, of vaudeville, is advertised to have the funnies face in motion pictures.



JOE E. BROWN

That funny face is to appear on the screen in Bebe Daniels's Paramount starring picture, "Take Me Home," when Miss Daniels resumes work which, at her present rate of recovery, will be within a very few weeks. B. P. Schulberg announced before leaving for New York that he had signed Brown.

While nothing definite has been disclosed in regard to the matter, I shouldn't be in the least surprised to learn at any time that the comedian, who is famous in musical comedy and vaudeville, has been signed on a long-term contract with Paramount.

James Gleason Remains

That versatile young man, James Gleason, who wrote and starred in "Is Zat So" and other stage successes, and who was all packed up Tuesday, ready to depart for New York, has unpacked. He will remain another two weeks or so.

No mere whim caused the actor-playwright to change his plans. He is working on a film play. As soon as this is completed, he will go to New York to see to the production of "Bones," the play which Gleason and Irving Berlin have written for Al Jolson.

Lucile Webster Gleason, actress, Gleason's wife, and Russell, his son, were accompanying the playwright east. Both are to appear on Broadway this fall. Mrs. Gleason is to play in a Brady-Wiman piece this fall, and Russell in another, written by his illustrious father, and called "Jonsie."

Hit and Melodies Linger On

Tanzi

Prima donna of "The Desert Song," the favorite Los Angeles operetta, which is playing a return engagement at the Majestic Theater.

HAYAKAWA AT ORPHEUM

The Japanese motion-picture star, Sessue Hayakawa, who has been achieving success before the footlights, as he did on the screen, will headline the new bill which comes to the Orpheum, Sunday. "The Man Who Laughed" is the specially written dramatic playlet in which Hayakawa will appear. It is from the pen of Edgar Allan Wolf and has been specially produced, with an exceptional cast, for this tour.

Another outstanding feature will be Bert Wheeler, the featured comedian of Florenz Ziegfeld's "Rio Rita," who, with Al Clair and Bernice Speer, will offer more fun and nonsense for his second week at the Orpheum.

Eddie Borden, with Art Van and Dot Brown, in his new, "Non Plus Revue;" Ken Howell's Collegians, and Guy and Pearl Magley, with a large company in a new dance production, will be other highlights on the bill.

Completing the program will be Norberto Ardelli, the Italian opera star; Paul Gordon and one other Keith-Orpheum feature attraction.

Shirley Mason and Collier to Fill New Roles

William Collier, Jr., in his latest picture, "So This Is Love?" opens Friday at the Criterion Theater, "The Chorus Kid" closing its engagement tonight.

This will be the premier showing of "So This Is Love?" in which Shirley Mason plays opposite William Collier, Jr. The former delineates a Scandinavian delicatessen store girl, while the latter portrays a male dressmaker in an exclusive Greenwich Village modiste establishment.

The action blends comedy, drama, suspense and spectacular scenes.

The latest issue of the Fox Movietone "talking news," flashed on the big screen, will present the Democratic convention held at Houston, in which Gov. Al Smith received the nomination for the Presidency.

Photophone and Film Dual Event

The Carthay Circle Theater will be the scene of a double world premiere, when "Lilac Time," starring Colleen Moore, has its opening at the house on the evening of the 16th inst., following the closing of the run of "Fazil," with Charles Farrell and Greta Nissen, the night before.

In addition to the first showing of Miss Moore's production, based on Jane Cowl's stage success of the same title, Fred Miller announces the first public demonstration of the new sound invention, Photophone, a product of the Radio Corporation of America and least known to date of the "talkie" devices.

Engineers from the eastern plant of RCA are on their way to Los Angeles to supervise the installation of this new instrument at the Circle.

This new installation in no way will interfere with the present popular Movietone, which will continue to be an attraction at the Circle, and through which many unusual and unique features will be presented with the showing of "Lilac Time."

"Lilac Time" is said to be an extraordinary picture both in romance and thrills. Miss Moore's supporting cast is headed by Gary Cooper, Burr McIntosh, George Cooper, Kathryn McGuire and many others. Carey Wilson, wrote the scenario and George Marion, Jr., provided the titles.

Tabloid Follies Coming Sunday

The Kentucky Jubilee Choir, Pearl Hickman's miniature "Ziegfeld Follies," Zelda Santley, Lydell and Higgins and other Keith-Orpheum attractions comprise the vaudeville program at the Hillstreet Theater for the week starting Sunday.

Ricardo Cortez in "Ladies of the Night Club," a comedy-drama with Lee Moran, Cissy Fitzgerald, Barbara Leonard and Douglas Gerrard, will be the feature photoplay.

GRAUMAN'S PLANS ARE OUTLINED

Special Pictures With Sound and Prologues to be New Policy

All sorts of rumors concerning the future plans of Sid Grauman, as to whether or not Grauman's Chinese Theater would be converted into a musical-comedy producing playhouse, his intentions to become a film producer and his possible retirement as an exhibitor were cleared by a definite announcement from his offices yesterday.

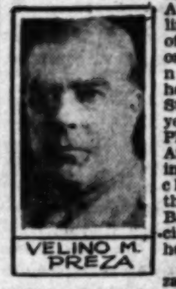
Motion pictures will continue to be shown at Grauman's Chinese; it will offer Movietone and Vitaphone accompaniments with features in the near future; the policy of spectacular prologues will be continued—these were among the points definitely accented in the announcement.

The theater magnate has no intention of retiring as an exhibitor for a long time; he is no longer connected with Grauman's Egyptian Theater, however, having sold that playhouse to United Artists, who, in turn leased it to West Coast-Hollywood Theaters; he plans to become a producer some time this year, but no definite starting time for "The Turn in the Road," to which he holds story rights, is as yet scheduled; his producing activities will in no way interfere with his career as a showman, he stated.

By early next week, definite booking of a production is expected to be consummated, it is stated, and following that, Grauman will immediately begin work on the prologue.

Mexican Band May Play Here at Early Date

Negotiations are reported under way to bring the Banda de Policia, the government band of the City of Mexico, to Los Angeles for a limited number of concerts. This organization has never been heard here. In St. Louis several years ago, John Philip Sousa, America's leader in this field, characterized the music of the Banda de Policia as "made in heaven."



VELINO M. PREZA

Velino M. Preza is the leader, and the personnel consists of ninety-four men, all soloists of distinction. The President of Mexico is said to have consented to a limited leave of absence for the band.

P. Sanchez, a moving spirit in the project, declares that he is actuated by the desire to establish a greater cordiality between the sister republics through the universal language, music. He has been in constant communication with Senor Preza from his headquarters here.

Hill Credited With Direction of "Cossacks"

When "The Cossacks," the John Gilbert vehicle, is flashed on the screen at Loew's State tomorrow, the direction will be credited to George Hill, remembered for his handling of "Tell It to the Marines."

The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio, producers of "The Cossacks," desires to clear up any confusion which may have resulted from various reports that both Hill and Clarence Brown were active in making the picture.

Originally assigned to its production, Hill proceeded with it practically from beginning to end, when a sudden decision on the part of officials made an immediate trip to Africa imperative, and Hill was commissioned to go.

Brown consented to "shoot" the few remaining scenes in order to allow Hill to leave without delay; and it was this action which gave rise to the reports.

On a number of different occasions in the past, the studio relates, similar requests of directors have been made and complied with where the original director's services were required on another picture.

Hill has since returned to the studio, and is now engaged on his next M.-G.-M. film, "Gold Braid," starring Ramon Novarro.

VERA JAMES KNOWN AS CONTRALTO, TOO

Vera James, who essays the role of Neri, an old native woman, in the first act of "The Desert Song" at the Majestic Theater, is not only pleasing to gaze upon, but is possessed of a beautiful contralto voice.

Miss James came to Los Angeles several years ago from Australia, where she had been appearing under the management of Hugh Mackintosh in light-opera repertoire. She has sung the prima-donna roles in many of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas and previous to joining "The Desert Song" has been appearing in pictures.

DOROTHY REVIER, TOM MOORE SEEN IN OPUS

"The Siren," starring Dorothy Revier and Tom Moore, opens at the Boulevard Theater tomorrow night and principals of the cast are scheduled to appear at the opening performance.

"The Siren" is described as the suspenseful story of a girl who played with men and scorned love. With her awakening comes the realization that she has been a dupe for a swindler and cheat.

On the stage Gene Morgan will cavort as usual with the aid of his big cigar, green hat, Boulevard Band and West Coast Variety performers.

OLIVE BORDEN CAST

For the third time within three months, Olive Borden is to be featured in a picture, "Sinners in Love," an F.B.O. production being the vehicle. Since leaving Fox, Miss Borden has received many chances to prove her acting capabilities.

WARNERS' FEATURE SELECTED

'Women They Talk About,' With Irene Rich, Booked for Two Weeks

"Women They Talk About" will be seen and heard at Warner Brothers' Theater in Hollywood for two weeks only, starting the 16th inst. The line does not refer to any particular personages of the screen, nor does it intentionally cast any aspersions—it merely is the title of the Warner Brothers' Vitaphone special which will have a limited engagement at the Hollywood home of the talking-picture.

The cast of this picture includes Irene Rich, Audrey Ferris, Claude Gillingwater, William Collier, Jr., Anders Randolf, Jack Santoro and others. It was taken from the story by Anthony Coldeway and scenarized by Robert Lord. Lloyd Bacon, who directed "The Lion and the Mouse," served here as well.

Together with "Women They Talk About," Larry Ceballos will again present another of his popular singing and dancing revues with headliners and his Forty Hollywood Beauties. Short Vitaphone subjects and newsreel will complete the program.

"Met" Events Include Stars and Preview

Three events are scheduled to take place at the Metropolitan Theater tonight, with the personal appearance of Theodore Roberts and Patsy Ruth Miller topping them.

The "Grand Old Man of the Screen" and the noted little leading lady of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," are appearing in compliment to their friend and fellow-player, Ruth Roland, who is appearing in person at every show at the "Met" this week. They will be introduced, it is announced, to the audience at 9 o'clock.

Tom Mix is scheduled to appear tomorrow night and later accompany Miss Roland to the Montmartre Cafe, where a special night has been arranged in her honor.

Second on the list is a press preview of William Haines's latest picture, "Telling the World," which opens at the Metropolitan Saturday. The film will be shown at 11:30 p.m. to 500 employees of the Los Angeles daily newspapers. The film is wound about the adventures of a correspondent of a prominent news service. Advance reports rate it as absolutely correct, technically. It brings Haines to the screen in a different role from his former "wise-cracking" ones.

The third event is a showing of special films taken at Bixby ranch, Long Beach, of the second annual picnic of "The Daughters of Job," south of Tehachapi. This organization is composed of daughters of Master Masons. Delegations from many Southern California towns are planning to attend tonight in a body.

New Faces in "Mr. Pim" Cast

Miss Margaret Clarke, whose interpretation of the demure crinoline lass of colonial days was a treat in "The Lilies of the Field," will be seen in another equally fascinating character in "Mr. Pim Passes By," by A. A. Milne, to be produced for the usual two weeks, beginning Tuesday, at the Pasadena Community Playhouse. She will play Olivia, the clever wife of George Marden, J. P. Through previous productions of "The Truth About Blayds," in the Playbox, and "The Dover Road" Playhouse patrons are familiar with Milne's fun and satire and they like his style.

Following his custom of giving opportunities to as many new players as possible during the year, Gilmor Brown has cast two new juveniles in this play. One is Alice Briody, who will carry the role of Dinah, a subdeb type, and the other is Sanford Wheeler, who will play Brian Strange, an impecunious artist. Wheeler is a student at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, and recently won commendation for his portrayal of Hippolytus in the Greek play of that name at the university.

Nightly Session Rules at Tait

Tait College is unique among educational institutions. It holds assembly every night including Sunday, plus two afternoons. The enrollment is 1492, and for the eight weeks since the fall semester started no one has been absent.

Tait is the college whose glorious deeds are sung (and danced) in "Good News," perhaps the most popular musical comedy in America today. The campus is the Mayan stage. The college song is "The Varsity Drag."

Vitaphone Hit Again Retained

Although the run of "The Lion and the Mouse" at the Tower Theater has already been extended one week, the special attraction will be held over again next week in order to allow theatergoers to view the film and hear it on the Vitaphone.

HILLSTREET GETS FEATURE

Rudolph Schildkraut's Czecho-Slovakian immigrant picture, "A Ship Comes In," formerly called "His Country," will have its Los Angeles premiere at the Hillstreet Theater the third week of July. This is a Pathe-De Mille production directed by William K. Howard and the story was written in collaboration by Julien Josephson and Sonya Levien.

line first to win the trophies and prizes offered by the Elks. The free-for-all row boat race was won by James Mexheimer, 630 Parkman avenue, while Joe Dobrynin, 5527 Fernwood avenue, won first in the canoe race and canoe tilting.

The celebration was concluded last night by a fireworks display.

LETTER CARRIERS HAVE ALL-DAY PICNIC

Races, games, patriotic addresses, a picnic banquet and dance constituted the program attended by more than 5000 letter carriers and their families yesterday and last night in Echo Park at the annual celebration of the local branch of the North American Letter Carriers' Association.

Superior Judges Bowron and Aggeler were speakers at the picnic lunch at which more than 1000 chicken pies were served. Postmaster O'Brien, C. C. Ashhurst, and William Neumann, president of the local letter-carriers' organization, also participated in the program.

Wives of the letter carriers entered an athletic program made up of twenty-one events: foot races, sack races, nail-driving contests, and board-sawing contests. The letter-carriers' baseball team defeated the Cascade Water Company's eleven in an afternoon game, 11 to 10.

The letter-carriers' band conducted a concert before the athletic contests. Dancing in the Echo Park clubhouse last night completed the twelve-hour celebration. Many visiting letter carriers from Southern California towns were guests of the Los Angeles chapter.

Those acting as committee heads are: H. G. Ziebig, sports; E. A. Murray, prizes; George Garrity, banquet; Adolph Klein, music; C. Hammond, clowns and amusement; Alfred R. Tishler, dance, and William A. Riley, promotion and publicity.

VAST CROWDS GO TO SANTA MONICA

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, July 4.—Police of Santa Monica and Venice estimated that 250,000 merrymakers visited the beaches between Del Rey and Malibu today to celebrate the Fourth of July. Automobile traffic was so dense that it took the combined efforts of the police from Sawtelle, Santa Monica and Venice as well as all available men from the Sheriff's office to keep it straightened out. An unbroken line of automobiles two deep on each side of the roadway, stretched for twenty miles down the Coast highway.

No serious accidents had been reported up until a late hour, despite the fact that thousands came from Los Angeles to shoot firecrackers here. Santa Monica dealers say that they reaped a harvest as a result of the ban on fireworks in Los Angeles and the lack of such a ban here. Their sales were three to four times that of former years, they say.

All of the beach clubs, as well as the piers, put on special fireworks displays at night. These, augmented by demonstrations at private homes, made the night the most spectacular ever seen on the beaches here.

THOUSANDS FLOCK TO SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA, July 4. (Exclusive)—More than 30,000 visitors from the San Joaquin Valley and points up and down the coast flocked into Santa Barbara today to celebrate the 152nd anniversary of the independence of the country, according to a conservative check made by traffic officers and police. From dawn until dusk the new Cabrillo Boulevard, fronting the Pacific Ocean for nearly four miles, was packed from end to end with picnickers and pleasure seekers.

Boats of all descriptions, ranging from the tiny surfboats to schooners, outboard botor boats and other craft held a series of races along the beach during the afternoon. Hundreds of persons took advantage of the presence of the U.S.S. California, flagship of the Pacific Fleet, the destroyers Doyen and Moddy, and the mine sweeper Gannett, to visit the first line of defense of Uncle Sam's Navy.

More than a score of organizations, in addition to a largelanding party of sailors, took part in a parade this morning. Gayly bedecked floats followed the navy contingent and other marchers, with prizes being awarded the floats of the Japanese colony and the Daughters of the American Revolution, in the order named.

PASADENANS VIEW FIREWORKS DISPLAY

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, July 4.—Twenty thousand residents who believe that foothill air is preferable to salt breezes as a stimulant to patriotic fervor, attended the fourth annual firemen's show in the Rose Bowl tonight.

The fireworks display included sixty separate items and culminated with a pyrotechnic naval battle between two "warships." Preceding the fireworks a three-ring circus performance was given under the direction of Poodles Hannaford.

Despite the fact that the sale and use of fireworks were banned here, Pasadena boys refused to allow the celebration of a noiseless Fourth of July and, aided by the new gas cannons, they succeeded in keeping their elders awake until after midnight last night, which was characterized as "one of the noisiest Fourth of July eves in the city's history." Every Pasadena dog joined in the advance celebration last night. The dogs, apparently, did not understand that the garbage collectors wanted a holiday today, and barked savagely when the collectors rattled the cans at the unprecedented hour of midnight.

For the first time in many years speaking was omitted from the formal city observances this afternoon in Memorial Park. In place of the patriotic talks, a concert program was given under the direction of John McDonald, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee on patriotism.

HERMOSA BEACH HAS MANY FEATURES

HERMOSA BEACH, July 4.—More than 10,000 persons attended the Fourth of July celebration sponsored by civic and patriotic organizations here today. The parade headed by the band of the U.S.S. Arizona, anchored in the bay here over the holidays, formed at 9:45 a.m. and was followed by patriotic exercises at the plaza.

Ex-Gov. Stephens and Representative Crail were the principal speakers, with special music furnished by a children's chorus and members of the Sunshine Minglers. Throughout the day visitors were taken to the U.S.S. Arizona and officers were entertained at a luncheon at the Surf and Sand Club.

Principal events of the afternoon were a rough-water swim near the municipal pier, under the auspices of the A.A.U., of which Miss Bobbie Middlemas of the Surf and Sand Club and Ted Coombs of Bimini Baths were directors, and a water carnival put on by members of the crew of the Arizona. An elaborate fireworks display and dancing made up the evening's program.

PATRIOTIC MUSIC HEARD AT MONROVIA

MONROVIA, July 4. (Exclusive)—Library Park was thronged for the annual celebration of the holiday which was sponsored this year by the Spanish War Veterans and the American Legion.

A program of patriotic music was furnished by the Arcadia Municipal Band. Members of the veterans' organizations spoke.

The afternoon's program was climaxed with a basket supper at 6 o'clock.

BARBECUE DRAWS CROWD TO INGLEWOOD

INGLEWOOD, July 4. (Exclusive) A throng estimated at close to 10,000 descended on Inglewood today to participate in the annual Fourth of July barbecue under the auspices of Inglewood American Legion Post 188 and the municipality.

Legion and city officials vied with each other in serving the guests. There was no formal program, the only call being to "eat, drink and be merry," and after this there were the sports, from potato to sack races with prizes donated by local merchants.

In the morning there was a baseball game between the Fats, captained by Clinton H. Spaulding, and the Leans, with Arthur Auger as captain, the latter going down to defeat by a score of 10 to 3. The celebration concluded with a fireworks display in the evening on Badenoch field, near where the barbecue was served in Grevillea Park.

More than 500 pounds of beans were baked in huge pits tended all night by Legionnaires, while nearly half a ton of roast barbecued pork was consumed by the multitude, according to Louis B. Hardin, Jr., chairman of the Legion committee in charge, while Mayor Lawrence and Councilmen Haenggi, Stoops, Chronister and Darby aided in carving and serving.

ALHAMBRA HAS SERIES OF EVENTS

ALHAMBRA, July 4. (Exclusive) Alhambra celebrated the Fourth with a program of music, speeches, athletic events and fireworks at the city park, the large attendance including many persons from other communities in this part of the San Gabriel Valley.

The afternoon's program began at 1 o'clock, with an orchestra number and invocation. An address of welcome was given by Chris Campbell, president of the City Commission, and a patriotic address was delivered by R. D. Wickham, Alhambra attorney. Athletic events for children and adults were given under the direction of David H. Fryer, head of city playground work. Flag-lowering ceremonies at sunset were in charge of the American Legion post. This evening there was a display of fireworks and the tennis courts in the park were given over to dancing.

One of the features of the celebration was the dropping of small parachutes from an airplane which circled the park, each parachute containing a merchandise order given by a local merchant.

The entire program was arranged by the Alhambra Chamber of Commerce and the City Playground Commission.

Five-Cent Bus Line May Serve Three Cities

ALHAMBRA, July 4.—Believing that a plan to operate intercity bus service in Alhambra, Monterey Park and Wilmar for a 5-cent fare may prove feasible, the City Commissioners have called a public meeting to be held at the City Hall Tuesday morning to discuss the transportation problem.

A tentative report of the proposed bus lines was submitted to the commission by D. K. Hutchinson, representing the Interline Transit, which has offered to operate the busses under municipal supervision. Plans call for service covering the three communities for the 5-cent fare and service into the business district of Los Angeles for 10 cents, by transferring to the cars of the Los Angeles Railway. Hutchinson also declared that patrons in this district could ride to Venice for 25 cents under the proposed plan, as connections could be made with the Culver City municipal bus line.

The Interline Transit would enter into a contract with the city to operate the busses and to pay the city 3 per cent of the gross receipts, Huchinson stated.

Officials from all civic organizations of Alhambra, Monterey Park and Wilmar, as well as all citizens, will be invited to attend the meeting Tuesday. The movement to operate busses under city supervision was sponsored by City Attorney Emmett A. Tompkins.

RESULTS SHOWN BY FRESH-AIR CAMP

REDONDO BEACH, July 4.—A resume of the work of the fresh-air camp conducted by the Salvation Army here was one of the important items of the program at the annual dinner of officers of the Redondo corps, held at the headquarters building here last night.

The report showed that the camp accommodated 544 boys last summer, 444 girls and 330 mothers, furnishing 27,600 meals. During the entire summer no case of illness developed at the camp. A medical student was present at all times to look after the welfare of undernourished children at the camp and mothers were given special instruction as to their care.

A quota of $3500 has been assigned this district for the work during the next year and the drive is to be opened next week.

UPLIFTERS' CLUB JOINS IN CELEBRATION

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, July 4. — Athletic events, horseback riding and swimming marked the annual Independence Day celebration at the Uplifters' Club in Santa Monica Canyon today. In the evening there was an extensive display of fireworks. Many of the members and their families were present.

JURORS FAIL TO AGREE

Post Murder Hearing at San Diego is Declared Mistrial After Fourteen-hour Deadlock

SAN DIEGO, July 4.—After having been locked in disagreement for fourteen hours the jury of seven men and five women trying the case of Ralph N. Post, charged with murder in the death of Mrs. Partsena K. Simpson, was discharged by Judge Shelley Higgins of criminal court shortly after midnight and a mistrial declared.

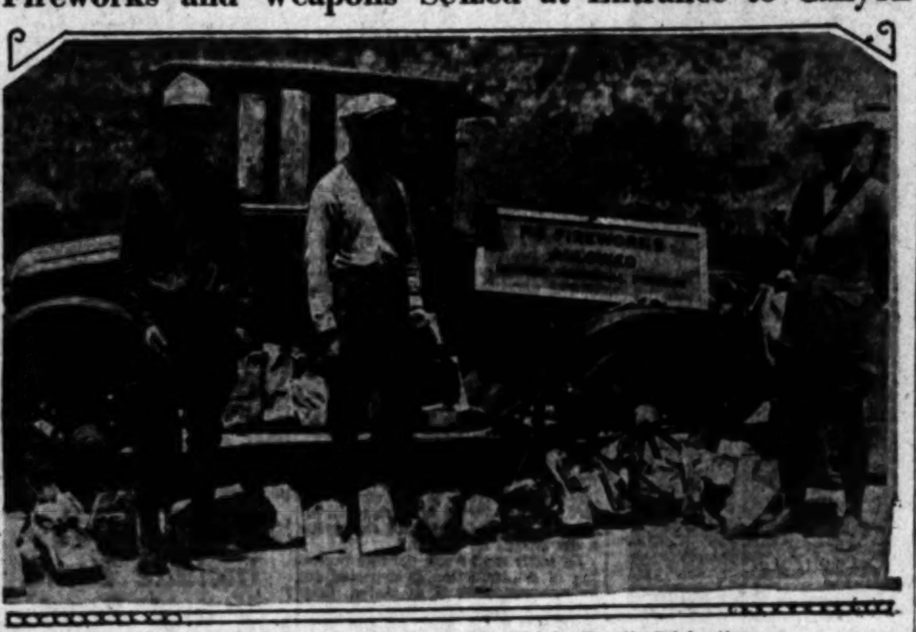
The jury retired at 10:26 a.m. yesterday and was not called back to the courtroom until 10 p.m. At that time, Judge Higgins was informed that the vote stood ten to two, and on suggestion of the court, the jurors retired to resume deliberations. Nearly an hour and a half later, with the approach of a holiday impending, the jury returned to announce a vote of nine to three for conviction.

Post, who is being held without bail, will be tried again during the August term of court, the District Attorney's office announced. His trial began June 25, last.

Post was arrested April 8, last, shortly after his car had plunged from Broadway pier into the bay. Observers attracted to the scene of the plunge found Post swimming erratically while bubbles rose to the surface of the water to indicate the position of the sunken car. A sailor dived in and, after much difficulty, succeeded in extricating the lifeless body of Mrs. Simpson from the car.

MOTORISTS DO NOT BELIEVE IN SIGNS

Fireworks and Weapons Seized at Entrance to Canyon



Here's What Didn't Get Into the San Gabriel for Fourth Celebration

Despite wide publicity on the fireworks menace to forest areas, the collection of fireworks and guns shown above was removed from more than 3500 automobiles at the entrance of San Gabriel Canyon yesterday. The men who guarded the entrance are, left to right—Deputy County Fire Warden Joe Trout, Herbert C. Daffum, State Forest registrar, and Tom Dingman, United States Forest Service.

AZUSA, July 4.—With fireworks and firearms prohibited in the national forests, all canyons leading into the forest area were strictly guarded today and registrars were placed at canyon entranceways to search cars for explosives. County, State and Federal forest officials were on duty and men deputized by district forest officials formed the large staff of registrars.

According to Deputy County Fire Warden Joe Trout, stationed in the San Gabriel Canyon, 3500 cars had entered the canyon at noon today, averaging six persons to the car, making a total of 21,000 people. It was believed by the forest executives that the total number of cars entering the canyon would exceed 6000 before night.

Registrars removed all fireworks from the cars and searched individuals for firearms, which were held for the respective owners until they made their exit from the canyon. Few had left their firecrackers behind and hundreds had firearms, the officials declared.

Registrars in the San Gabriel Canyon included, in addition to Trout, Herbert C. Daffum, State forest registrar; Tom Dingman of the United States Forest Service, G. D. Clay, Cornelius Smith and Irving Hopper. The latter three worked under the supervision of Arthur Shay, district ranger at Glendora.

CHILD DIES IN ACCIDENT AT BANNING

Wheel Thrown from Car Strikes Girl in Head; Jumper Lands in Rocks

BANNING, July 4.—Little Mary Owens of Beaumont, 7 years of age, is dead. She was hit by a wheel and died two hours later in the Banning Hospital. A spinning wheel off of Carl Rider's racing car here today in the fourth race of the day spelled tragedy for the Owens family.

Rider's wheel came off and went sailing through the air. When it came down it crashed through the windshield of Mrs. Dettie Owens's automobile. Mary was sitting on her mother's lap, and it hit her square on the forehead. Glass splattered all over her brother Tom and he has a badly cut leg. The mother was cut on the face and hands.

Thrills were dished up plenty during the races in the afternoon when Al Gordon's steering wheel broke and he went through the fence, rolling over several times, but the loose dirt in the pits saved him from serious injury.

Speed Hinckley was the whole show in the fifth annual July 4 racing program of the American Legion post. He broke the world's record in the twenty-five-lap championship sweepstakes when he circled the bowl in 12m. 14 2-5s. The old mark was 12m. 15 3-5s., made by Lou Moore two years ago. The largest crowd of racing fans, which was officially numbered as 15,000 by the Legion post, saw one of the greatest speed duels in the history of the sport here.

Glenn Harvey of Long Beach, parachute jumper, competing in the spot-landing contest, missed his landing completely and descended in a pile of rocks some distance from the field. He received two broken feet, a sprained arm, and three broken ribs. He was taken to the hospital.

In the air races from Clover Field to Banning Airport, three Los Angeles flyers took the first three places. Charles Dycer was first in 51m.; Burrell Smith, second with 53m., and Ralph Monte, third in 60m. Prizes totaling $2000 were awarded the event.

EVIDENCE IN LETTER LOST BY OFFICER

Plumbing Inspector Asks Police Protection After Receipt of Note

SAN DIEGO, July 4.—Following announcement that Federal officers would try to determine the authorship of a letter carrying threats against the life of William Lawson, plumbing inspector, it was learned today that the letter had been misplaced by police.

The letter was received by Judge Claude Chambers and was turned over to Paul Hayes, captain of detectives, for investigation. Hayes today admitted that he did not know what had happened to the letter. Upon learning of the threat, Lawson asked for a police guard at his home to prevent the death plot from being carried out. This request was denied, but the police promised to start an investigation of the affair.

Lawson connects the letter with two incidents which he thinks may have been attempts on his life. He told the police that some one tried to enter his home early yesterday morning but was scared away when one of his children screamed. About 1 a.m., he received a telephone call asking him to make some repairs two blocks distant. When he asked the name, he said, the caller hung up.

The letter, received by Judge Chambers, read: "We will take care of Lawson. He will be found with his old body full of holes. He was in the way but soon out. Sorry for his kids. Signed by the gang."

Lawson lives at 3829 Alabama street.

Foreign Consuls at Mines Field

INGLEWOOD, July 4.—Representatives from the consulates of Canada and Mexico, from which international air derbies will terminate here in September, and presidents of the State societies from the commonwealths through which the transcontinental nonstop and controlled air races are to be run in the fall, will be among the guests of honor at the ground breaking for the National Air Races and Aeronautical Exposition, at Mines Field, just west of here, Sunday at 2 p.m., according to Thedore T. Hull, president of the California Air Race Association, sponsors of the September events.

Great Britain's Consul here, Hon. G. A. Fisher, has been invited to represent the Maple Leaf flyers, while Hon. S. A. Pesqueira, Mexican Consul here, will represent the Pan-American group.

The ceremonies are a forerunner to active construction on the exposition building, the grand stand and the three runways on which the competing planes will land and from which they will take off in September.

ELDERLY MONROVIA WOMAN HIT BY CAR

MONROVIA, July 4.—Blinded by lights of an approaching car on Foothill Boulevard, E. R. Williams, 237 Norumbega Drive, struck Mrs. Mattie Cook, 70 years of age, as she was crossing the boulevard at Encinitas avenue last night, according to police reports.

Mrs. Cook was taken to the Monrovia Hospital, where it was said she sustained a dislocated shoulder and bruises about the body.

ALTADENA TO HAVE FIRST PLAYHOUSE

PASADENA, July 4.—Plans for the erection of Altadena's first theater are expected to be perfected tomorrow afternoon when the sponsors of the project will meet at N. J. V. V. Green's office, Mariposa street at Lake avenue.

The Altadena Auditorium Association, which was incorporated to further the theater project, has decided to name the amusement house after Zane Grey. The upper floor will be used as a lodge room, according to William Haas, Altadena financier.

CITY VALUES INCREASE

SANTA BARBARA, July 4.—An increase in the assessment valuation of $1,500,000 on city property is shown in the new assessment roll in the hands of the City Council now sitting as a board of equalization. The total assessed valuation of the city this year is approximately $43,500,000, compared with $42,000,000 last year, according to City Assessor W. W. Smith.

DEMOCRATS TO SPEAK

ARCADIA, July 4.—Democratic Committeemen who attended the recent national convention will be guests of the Foothill Breakfast Club at the Santa Anita Riding and Hunt Club, here, tomorrow morning. Bill Hatch will entertain.

ADAMLESS EDEN IN HILLS

Writer Sees Huntington Lodge as Wonder Spot of Great Outdoors on Edge of Civilization

BY FRED HOGUE

HUNTINGTON LODGE, July 4.—I have ridden in an auto today through what was thirty years ago the most romantic, richest in scenic beauty, but the wildest, most inaccessible part of California—the forests, gulches and crags adjacent to the headwaters of the San Joaquin River. The scenic beauty has been enhanced by the addition of three mountain lakes, two of which are the largest fresh water lakes on the western slopes of the Sierras. The pine woods where Evans and Sontag then lived, like Robin Hood and Little John in Nottingham forest, are freed of the bandits, but peopled by nymphs as lovely as ever assembled on the slopes of Mount Ida—300 women and girls gliding about among the towering pines and not a single skirt among them.

Will the women of the next generation wear pants? I do not think so. They will have discarded them, as those of the present generation have discarded skirts. I saw hundreds of girls this afternoon, away up here in the mountains on the shores of Huntington Lake, wearing pants with the legs cut off about a foot above the knee.

SLEEP UNDER STARS

The northern shore of the lake has been converted into an Adamless Eden. The W.C.T.U. maintains a summer school here; but the pupils dress as though they belonged to the Follies. There is an exclusive summer school for girls here—girls with female apparel excluded. They not only roam about in the open air under the pines by day, but they sleep in the open air at night—even tents are excluded.

Several hundred girls are attending a branch summer school of the Fresno State College. They study, recite, eat and sleep in the open air; but their skirts are never torn or bedraggled from running through the bushes—they do not have any. There were some boys among them—they could be distinguished by their modest manly dress, not following the style of the girls of cutting off the legs of their pants above their knees.

I saw only two girls wearing skirts; they were young Indian squaws.

In viewing this sylvan scene in the high mountains, higher than the Mrs. Grundy standards of morals, I was angry and indignant—at my fifty-odd years. I tried to look at these modern maids through the spectacles of Anthony Cumstock, and failed miserably.

ELEVATION 7000 FEET

Huntington Lake is 7000 feet above sea level; and 15,000 feet above narrow and intolerent prejudice. I'm for it. A pretty girl is never so pretty as in one of those outing costumes under the giant pines that droop their branches to caress her as she passes. I used to think the limbs drooped from the weight of snow they carried in winter. Now I know it comes from reaching down to caress bobbed heads.

Huntington Lake has a winter population of two—forest rangers—and a summer population of about 2000. I would rather hold a government concession for a summer lodge here than be a casting director in Hollywood.

On the eastern slopes of the Sierras I grew indignant at the power companies because they imprisoned the singing waterfalls; but on the western slopes I am grateful to them for the mountin lakes and the unsurpassed mountain roads. Their object was to create hydro-power, but the by-product, mountain resorts, is even more valuable.

The San Joaquin Valley is fairly blistered by the summer sun; but that hot sun is necessary to ripen the fruit, grapes and cotton. The heat is a necessary evil. But high on the slopes of the mountains is the land of eternal springtime. It offers a vacation and week-end escape from the heat of the valley.

LOG FIRE IN EVENING

Here the summer climate is almost incomparable. The days are just warm enough to be thoroughly enjoyable, and the evenings are cool enough to make sleep a pleasure. A fire of pine logs burns every night in the spacious guest room of Huntington Lodge, as well as in Edwards and Lake Shore lodges.

Flowers and shrubs that bloom in April in the valleys bloom here in July; and to them are added tiger lilies, Mariposa lilies, azelea, the wonderful lilac and lavender penstemon and mountain pond lilies that never venture forth from the mountains.

Huntington Lake is about six miles long and one mile wide. It is the home of sky-blue water. About the shores, hidden away among the wonderful white and yellow pines, are about 300 summer cottages, builded on ground leased from the Federal government, for the lake and the mountain forests adjacent are a part of a Federal forest reserve. The Forest Service regulates the kind of cottages that may be erected, and condemns relentlessly the unsightly ones.

SWITZERLAND OUTDONE

Nowhere in Europe is such a charming summer vacation land possible. The crowded condition of Switzerland—4,000,000 population in a territory no larger than Inyo and Mono counties—and four days of rain in each seven, do not permit living in the open, with hikes into an unpopulated and only partly explored wilderness.

For those who desire more solitude than is to be found about Huntington Lake there is another ideal vacation land on the eastern side of Kaiser Mountain, in vermilion meadows on the banks of Florence Lake. A good automobile road, builded by the Edison company, leads twenty-five miles over the pass from one lake to the other. It is to be open to the public this summer.

On the way one passes Ward Lake, sheltered by cliffs of granite the color of Swedish marble, the rarest-colored granite I have ever seen. It is larger and more lustrous than Mirror Lake in Yosemite. Here grow, in lavish profusion, the wonderful white and yellow mountain pond lilies. In a dark nook on its banks Mrs. Redinger, wife of the resident engineer of the Edison company, found Sunday the finest specimens I have ever seen of the mountain tiger lily. She is the best-informed as to the varieties and habits of the mountain wild flowers of all the women I have met in the Sierras. She has a garden of them about her residence in Big Creek.

TROUT FOR ANGLERS

Shaver Lake is at a lower elevation than Huntington—about 2000 feet lower. It is nearer the valley and is likely to rival Huntington Lake in popularity. On both Huntington and Shaver lakes boating is a fascinating sport. There are motor launches to rent and there is the limit in trout to be caught if you possess the secret of angling.

These lakes are artificial, but there is nothing artificial about life under the pines on their banks. At Huntington Lodge one is always in telegraph and telephone communication with the outside world. The comforts and necessities of metropolitan life are about you, and a mountain lake and mountain wilderness are at the door.

CHAMBER AT REDONDO PICKS NEW DIRECTORS

REDONDO BEACH, July 4.—Directors of the chamber of commerce elected here last night to serve for the coming year are Dr. F. W. Huff, O. N. Tomlinson, C. W. Koiner, M. H. Moore, J. J. Gourley, H. G. Cooper, Oscar Markowitz and George Anderson. Directors who are held over from last year are E. E. Ladue, Thomas Blair, W. C. Bonser, V. H. Burnham, W. E. Crowder, C. J. Funk, T. A. Gould and W. T. Thompson. The chamber is considering a proposition placed before it by Capt. J. M. Anderson of the Olympic Barge in which a fishing and boat-landing pier would be built without cost to the city. The proposition involves the selection of a suitable site for the pier, probably near the foot of Ainsworth Court on the portion of the beach once occupied by the Pacific Electric wharf.

THIS IS TOO MUCH FOR POLICE CHIEF

SANTA BARBARA, July 4.—When thieves steal the spare tire, rim, lock and chain from the automobile of the Chief of Police, it's going just a little too far, in the opinion of George Sloan, head of the police department here. He plans to avenge this combined insult and injury if it is humanly possible to do so. The theft occurred last night while Chief Sloan and his wife were attending a theater.

CLUB MAKES GIFT TO CITY

Covina Receives $1000 Worth of Apparatus for Playground from Lions During Carnival

COVINA, July 4.—Five thousand participants at the Lions' Club Carnival held today at the city park witnessed the presentation of $1000 worth of new playground equipment to the city by the club. The carnival marked the sixth annual Fourth of July celebration sponsored here by the Lions' Club who were assisted this year by the Junior Lions.

Mayor George H. Maxfield received the gift in behalf of the city and responded with an address of appreciation to the carnival hosts. Edwin Joeb, newly elected president of the Lions, presented the playground equipment which was recently installed. The carnival began this morning with swimming and tennis contests, while the afternoon program consisted of vaudeville, music and field events, during which $800 worth of prizes were awarded.

GEORGE H. MAXFIELD

The Rotary Club was in charge of the popularity contest, which climaxed the day. Contestants were Evelyn Burrall, Dorothy Estep and Margaret Schultes of the Masonic Orphans' Home.

EDWIN JOEB

The celebration today was one of the gayest and most successful ever sponsored by the club with Will Evans, past president, as general chairman. Others active on committees were Anthony Scharnagle, Tom Foster, Hal Cook, Gilbert Nigg and Joeb.

The new swings and other equipment installed at the park make the city playground one of the most complete in the Southland, city officials said.

LONE BANDIT ROBS THEATER

South Pasadena Playhouse Loses $1000

Employees Forced to Lie Down on Floor

Raid Timed as Manager Counts Up Cash

Timing his entrance as the receipts of the Rialto Theater at Fair Oaks and Oxford streets, South Pasadena, were being tabulated at closing time last night, a lone bandit held up the manager, Bob Beretta, and two employees and escaped with more than $1000.

Beretta said that the bandit pushed Nunan Kneeland, assistant manager, into the theater office, ordered the cashier, Virginia Norwine, to open the safe and placed the money in a bag. He acted in a cool manner, according to Beretta, from the time he entered the office just after the theater lights had been dimmed, until he vanished down a side-street near the theater.

The theater manager thought that the affair was a joke, when Kneeland was pushed into his office. A few words with the bandit, according to Beretta, convinced him that it was not. While the robber gathered up the money, the three theater employees were forced to lie on the floor.

A description of the bandit was given to South Pasadena police by Beretta. According to this he is an American, about 28 years of age, and 5ft. 8in. in height. The loss is covered by insurance.

MARKETING QUESTIONS TO BE TOPIC

Experts on Co-operative Plan Gather Here Next Week for Sessions

Scores of problems associated with the field of co-operative marketing will be discussed here next week when the American Institute of Co-operation brings it fourth annual session to Los Angeles, beginning next Monday. Experts from all parts of the United States will be here to lend their advice and opinion on questions concerned with the marketing of citrus products, cotton, tobacco and a dozen other commodities.

This will be the first time that the institute has brought its sessions to the Pacific Coast and it was done this year in recognition of the fact that Southern California is the birthplace of the modern idea of co-operative marketing. Government specialists, growers and officers of marketing associations from all parts of the United States will participate in the meetings.

Following a week's sessions here the institute will adjourn to the University of California in Berkeley for two weeks and will then go to the Pacific Northwest for a field survey of conditions in that region.

Engagement Ring Lost to Highwaymen

Richard Jones, 427 South Union Drive, was hurrying east in Adams street near Grand avenue last night with a $600-diamond engagement ring in his pocket and $105 in currency when two men in a touring car, festooned with two red spotlights, drove up beside him and motioned him to the curb. He followed directions and as he stopped one of the men jumped to the street and pointing a revolver at him told him to hold up his hands. He did.

They took the diamond engagement ring and the currency and told Jones to remain at the curb until they were out of sight. Later he reported the hold-up to officers at the University Police Station.

Reward Out for Runaway Canine Resembling Lion

With a $100 reward placed with Wilshire police for its safe return, a fifty-pound French poodle dog was wandering the streets of Los Angeles late last night.

Firecrackers caused the dog to jump from the automobile of Mrs. H. H. Nelson of Hollywood Hotel while her car was parked in front of the Lafayette Cafe on West Seventh street. Witnesses said the dog raced off through Westlake Park.

Mrs. Nelson's husband told police that the dog looks like a small lion, having a clipped body with flowing mane and bushy tail.

Garage Man Held Up by Bandit Pair

When George L. Lenhardt, attendant at a garage at 226 South Western avenue, went to the cash register to get change for two men motorists late last night, one of them followed him and took all the change in the drawer, totaling $14.50.

Lenhardt reported to police that one of the men started the motor in the old coupe which the two were driving, while his companion robbed the cash drawer. They escaped.

GOODRICH CHIEF ARRIVES HERE

Sales Manager to Live in Southland

They're All Happy to Come to California

(Left to right) S. B. Robertson, vice-president and general manager of the Goodrich organization; Miss Jane Robertson, who also has just returned from a graduation visit in Cleveland; Mrs. Robertson, Woodruff Titus, Miss Elizabeth Wright, F. E. Titus and Mrs. Titus greeting Mr. Titus on his arrival here to take important post in Goodrich Rubber Company.

ONE of the latest additions to the Los Angeles industrial roll yesterday brought additional residents to this city in the persons of F. E. Titus, his wife and son. Mr. Titus is the general sales manager of the Pacific Goodrich Rubber Company and brought his family to Los Angeles yesterday on the Union Pacific Los Angeles Limited. Temporarily the family will occupy an apartment in Pasadena pending the completion of a home they will occupy permanently here.

Their son, Woodruff Titus, has just completed his studies at New Rochelle and this fall expects to enter Stanford University.

Accompanying the Titus family was Miss Jane Robertson, daughter of S. B. Robertson, vice-president and general manager of the Goodrich organization. Miss Robertson several weeks ago made a trip to Cleveland, to attend the graduation exercises of her class of Laurel School for Girls. Her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Wright, accompanied her to the Coast to be a summer guest at the Robertson home.

Clearinghouse Seeks Bids on Grape Hauling

BAKERSFIELD, July 4.—Kern county grapes, marketed under direction of the Kern county growers' clearinghouse will be insured against loss in transit and against late delivery in the Los Angeles market, according to trucking contract requirements set forth in a legal notice calling for bids on a contract for transporting all clearinghouse grapes to Southern California markets. Sealed bids will be received until 6 p.m. Saturday at the office of the clearinghouse in the Agricultural Building at the high school here.

Following are some of the requirements which competitors for the contract must meet:

All trucks and trailers used must be in good serviceable condition and must be equipped with pneumatic tires. Trucks must be in charge of careful and experienced drivers. The successful contract bidder must be prepared to move at least 8000 lugs daily. Empty lugs must be delivered to growers as required before and during shipping season. Fruit must be delivered to Los Angeles when and where directed and loads must be assembled and loaded at roadside early enough for delivery at the opening of the Los Angeles market. Truckers must make collections and disbursements for sale of fruit boxes, commissions, charges and hauling.

LARGE TONNAGE NEEDED TO CONTROL MARKETS

BAKERSFIELD, July 4.—Marketing of 4000 tons of high-grade grapes under direction of the Kern county growers' clearinghouse will be sufficient to control the Los Angeles market and keep it from breaking throughout the shipping season, it was announced today by K. C. West, field representative of the local grape association.

"Through organization of local growers, we can keep the market in good condition all season and allow every grower to dispose of his entire tonnage at a profitable price," Mr. West declared. "If we go before the Los Angeles commission men at our meeting in Los Angeles next Tuesday and show them that we have at least 4000 tons of the finest grapes in Kern county for placement in Southern California, we can be assured of a favorable reception and a favorable market throughout the season. It is all-important that we have that tonnage signed."

Flyer's Widow Says Children Unprovided For

LONDON, July 4. (AP)—The Daily Mail today published a complaint from the widow of Capt. Walter G. R. Hinchliffe, pilot for Miss Elsie Mackay on her ill-fated trans-Atlantic flight, saying her two children are unprovided for. The establishment of a trust fund to reduce the British national debt in memory of Miss Mackay by her parents, Lord and Lady Inchcape, called forth the letter.

Mrs. Hinchliffe argued that although there is no legal obligation on Lord Inchcape there is a moral one, because the whole scheme of the flight came from Miss Mackay, who hired Hinchliffe. She said she has written four times to Lord Inchcape telling him of her position and need. He replied noncommittally to the first letter, but she received no response to the others.

The government already has accepted the trust fund of $2,500,000, which will be left to accumulate for fifty years, and then be applied to the debt.

CRASH FATAL TO SALESMAN

SAN JOSE, July 4. (AP)—Fred W. Miller, salesman, formerly of San Francisco, died at a hospital here today as a result of an automobile accident. Police found Miller's car overturned at 4 a.m., with Miller pinned underneath.

CARRY-OVER PROBLEM TO RAISIN MEN

Complete Pool Urged to Permit Control During Coming Season

FRESNO, July 4.—Facing the prospect of a 300,000-ton raisin crop this year, to which will be added a carry-over of approximately 131,000 tons from 1927, raisin growers of the San Joaquin Valley are looking forward with much interest to the meeting to be held here Friday night at which an effort will be made to launch a program which would result in the pooling of all raisins not under contract to the Sun-Maid Raison Growers.

It is generally accepted that the growers and packers will be confronted this year with the problem of marketing more than 425,000 tons of raisins.

NEW WATER BATTLE

VISALIA, July 4. (AP)—The Watchman Water Company was made defendant yesterday for the second time in two weeks in a suit for the use of St. Johns River water when six ditch companies filed complaint. The complaining companies are the Jennings, Matthews, Modoc, Uphill, Lakeside and Tulare irrigation districts, all having rights to St. Johns water going back as far as 1854.

WOMAN PAYS FINE

HANFORD, July 4.—Mrs. C. M. Acton, taken into custody near Corcoran on a charge of possession of liquor, upon a plea of guilty, was assessed a fine of $300 or 300 days in jail by Justice H. H. Warnock. She elected to pay the fine.

TINY BEAR MAKES ECONOMICAL PET

Louise Brooks and Archie

Archie, the world's most economical pet, is an Australian teddy bear. He is visiting Hollywood and yesterday at the Paramount studio met Louise Brooks.

He diets exclusively on eucalyptus leaves and drinks one teaspoonful of water a month. With a loving disposition he will make friends with anyone who holds a spray of eucalyptus leaves.

He is a native of the desert interior of Australia and, according to zoologists, is the forerunner of the entire bear family.

GOLD NO LURE TO SCIENTIST

Chance to Acquire Millions in Alaska Passed By

Discovery of Vast Treasure Part of Day's Work

Sense of Honor Cause of His Refusal to Reap Gain

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

WASHINGTON, July 4. (Exclusive)—When a man deliberately passes up an opportunity to claim gold fields worth millions of dollars, literally lying at his feet, because the act would prove offensive to his sense of honor and devotion to duty, the story is worth telling, even though its climax took place more than a quarter of a century ago.

The amazing story, set forth in simple manner in the form of a routine report to the Geological Survey, turns back the pages of time to the hectic days of the gold rush to the Klondike fields of Alaska. The hero of the tale is Frank C. Schrader, veteran explorer of the Geological Survey.

In 1897-1898 Geologist Schrader and several companions were exploring the little-known trails of Alaska and making geologic surveys as they mushed through its rugged regions. Finally Schrader and his party reached the banks of the Yukon River, where they found evidence of gold. Instead of secretly advising friends of their discovery, or resigning their positions so that they might take title to some of the gold claims, the party under Schrader's orders merely filled out an official report to the Geological Survey and continued their explorations. Even then no publicity was given the gold-discovery report, but soon after the initial rush to the famous Klondike fields began.

DEVOTED TO DUTY

Meanwhile, Schrader and his fellow geologists had returned to the United States for temporary duty in domestic regions. They had every opportunity to connive for the exploitation of gold claims in the Klondike region and to bring the matter to the attention of American capitalists, but they declined and devoted themselves to the work of their office.

In 1899 Schrader found himself back in Alaska. Renewed explorations took him to the mouth of the Yukon River, near Nome, where on a near-by beach he observed miners washing gold from the sand that had been washed up on the shore.

It seems never to have occurred to this government geologist that he might make a fortune for himself by joining the beachcombers. Instead, he bethought himself of the fact that a geological report on the region might be of value to the survey which employed him. So he hiked to Nome, whose realty development rivaled the mushroom's speedy growth. Here he found waves beating gently on a sloping beach and back of it a gravel bank ten to twenty feet high.

GOLD SOURCE TRACED

Schrader learned that it was popularly believed by the miners that the gold they were picking up had been washed up by the waves. He determined to investigate and render a scientific report to Washington. He soon ascertained that the waves had a part in bringing the gold to the miners, but instead of washing it up from the ocean, the rivers had eaten through the gravel banks, carrying off the sand and gravel, but leaving the heavier material—gold—lying exposed.

Further investigation convinced him that the upper bench of gravel once had been a beach. The waves had beaten there for millions of years, according to his geologic calculations, and then some gigantic upheaval of nature had thrown the sea outward and elevated the former beach to the prominence of a bench.

FINDS BURIED IN REPORTS

Finally, Schrader returned to Washington and wrote a complete summary of his investigations. Later, he compiled his "Report on the Cape Nome Gold Fields," which appeared in 1900. At that time he was asked why he had taken no steps to capitalize his discoveries. In response, he declared that he was a salaried employee of the United States government, employed to ascertain geological facts of interest to the people. To use such facts in his own interest, he pointed out, would have been quite out of the question, unethical, and offensive to his honor.

BOOTLEGGERS HARD HIT BY PENALTIES

BAKERSFIELD, July 4.—War on liquor traffic in the city of Bakersfield resulted in the arrest of 104 persons and enriched the city treasury to the extent of $6810 during the last six months, according to semiannual report compiled today at police headquarters. Indicative that bootlegging here is unprofitable, the police report shows that more than 46 per cent of the money collected in fines levied by Police Judge John Frye was paid by men and women charged with illegal possession or transportation of intoxicating liquor. During the half-year just ended, Chief of Police Phil Fickert and his force of forty-two officers, arrested a total of 1422 asserted violators of the law and cited 3786 persons to appear in court for traffic law violations.

DRY RAIDERS MET BY VICIOUS DOGS

FRESNO, July 4.—Two members of Fresno's liquor and vice squad were called upon to play a new role last night. While they were engaged in a raid on the home of John Elizondo, they were attacked by his three dogs, and had to act as dog catchers before they could turn their attention to the owner.

AIRPORT BODY URGED

HANFORD, July 4. (AP)—The Hanford Board of Trade airport committee has adopted resolutions for presentation to the City Council in which an airport commission of five members, one to be a City Councilman, is urged to handle the operation of the new Hanford airport.

CHUCKLES from LIFE

Gosh, What a Difference Just Ten Years Make!

Ten years ago when you went into a barber shop you were assured of getting the real low-down on why:

Wilson would be elected again.

The Giants would win the pennant.

The country never would go dry.

Willard would remain champion until he retired.

Bill didn't hook that big one.

Charley's stenographer quit the week before.

But when you stagger in now for a shave you get the real low-down on why:

Ensemble suits never will be popular again.

It's all right to go to teas every day, if you care for that sort of thing, my dear.

You simply can't get large headsizes any more.

Her husband is so anxious to work evenings at the office.

They ought to fire that girl at the cigar stand.

She can wear them above her knees, but everybody'll still know she's fifty, if she's a day.

If she was my daughter I'd turn her over my knee and spank her.

CHET JOHNSON.

The Man Who Writes the French Composition Books Becomes a Dramatic Critic

(1.) The play which I visited last night was not good. (2.) The book which I have read was better than the play which I have seen. (3.) Although the tall man who had killed his uncle was handsome he was not an actor. (4.) The large blonde lady was as good an actress as the wife of my gardener. (5.) The acting of the pretty female cousin was adequate. (6.) She was both small and agile. (7.) The stout gentleman who was sitting behind me was coughing loudly. (8.) If he had died I should not have been sorry. (9.) I have left in the theater my greatcoat and umbrella. (10.) Have you pens, ink and paper? (11.) Write in French concerning a play which you have seen.

MEN AND WOMEN

Do You Want Work?

WILL YOU WORK EVEN 1 HOUR DURING THE EVENING OR DURING THE DAY? If so, you should read every word of this "ad" and investigate. This work is PART TIME if EMPLOYED and can be made permanent. Positions are made possible because of expansion of our Los Angeles offices. You have the opportunity of earning $30 to $60 in this spare-time work during the day or evening. WE DO NOT DESIRE REAL ESTATE SALESPEOPLE NOR DOOR-TO-DOOR CANVASSERS. NO RED TAPE. NO SCHOOLS OF INSTRUCTIONS. YOU DO NOT NEED EXPERIENCE AND YOU DO NO SELLING. If you are white and over 25 years of age, whether employed at present or not, you will be given every consideration and an opportunity to earn an EXTRA WEEKLY CHECK while still retaining your present position.

Some of the work may be done at home and will not interfere with your present occupation. NO BUSINESS EXPERIENCE REQUIRED and persons in all lines of employment can do this SIMPLE ROUTINE WORK.

You will not be asked to buy anything. YOU WILL NOT BE ASKED TO SELL ANYTHING. WE pay weekly.

ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL HOMES IN WESTWOOD HILLS

This magnificent two-story Spanish house is located on a high level lot, north of Wilshire Blvd. and within a five minutes' walk of the new University. An unusually attractive large living room with studio window, giving an unbroken view of the city, mountains & ocean. 4 bedrooms, 3 baths, cedar closets, electric refrigeration. Everything you can think of. If you like real Spanish architecture be sure to see this house. Drive out Wilshire Blvd. to Selby avenue, in Westwood hills, turn north two blocks to 1010 Selby avenue. The house is open, or phone OXford 1307.

IS IT A HOME OR A HOUSE
You are looking for? Often suppose homes become just houses because they lack the home features necessary to contentment and happiness. You will be charmed with the home I have built, wonderfully designed for comfort, gorgeously decorated, scenic splendor surrounding it, situated in an environment of wealth and culture. Priced low. Owner on premises daily from 10 to 5. (Mauldin home) 945 Corsica Drive, California Riviera, one block south Beverly Blvd.

UNDERGROUND WATERS

The quantity of water underground beneath the crust of the earth's surface is nearly one-third the total volume of the oceanic waters, according to estimates of Dr. Chester A. Reeds of the American Museum of Natural History, New York, who has just completed investigations of buried rivers and caves. The earth's ground water extends to great depths, perhaps six miles, and has been accumulating for countless ages. This great mass of water percolates slowly through the porous and jointed rocks to form great systems of underground drainage, creating such beauty spots as Mammoth Cave in Kentucky and the Endless Caverns in Virginia. In the limestones regions, where so many of these unfamiliar streams are found, the formations of huge stalactites, stalagmites, columns, and stony curtains in the cavernous depths remind one of the artistic handiwork of ancient artisans on the Renaissance palaces.

LEAD TO VOLCANOES

tnoial Park has just been completed at an expense of $150,000, making accessible a chain of eight extinct volcanic craters. Though these are smaller than the huge fire-mountains which give Hawaii its chief fame, they are of great interest both as natural spectacles and as scientific "specimens" demonstrating certain phases in volcanology. The craters all lie along a great fissure in the earth, which was formerly a source of great lava flows, and from which a small flow issued as recently as 1923.

HE LOST THE CASE

A young lawyer, pleading his first case, had been retained by a farmer to prosecute a railway company for killing twenty-four hogs. He wanted to impress the jury with the magnitude of the injury.

"Twenty-four hogs, gentlemen. Twenty-four; twice the number there in the jury box."—[Forbes Magazine.

Nippon Yusen Kaisha Said to be Considering Move

Shift of Coast Headquarters from Bay City Looms

Recent Events Held Omen of Favorable Decision

Possibility that the Nippon Yusen Kaisha may move its coast headquarters from San Francisco to Los Angeles was indicated by Takeo Yamamoto, coast manager of the line, on his return from New York two days ago.

Yamamoto reported the matter had been discussed at the Gotham conference of managers of American offices, presided over by Moboru Ohtani, managing director of the line.

The idea is declared an outgrowth of Ohtani's recent visit to Los Angeles. The managing director and his staff were here several days inspecting facilities and trade and passenger opportunities and resumed their tour of the world laden with information on the Southland.

Increasing friendliness toward Los Angeles is seen in the line's gradual augmentation of its services here. Its passenger ships from Japan to Chile via California ports have been making Los Angeles the only return port of call for several months. Its freighters to New York now are beginning to touch only here en route home.

Its big trans-Pacific liners also are increasing their calls here. For several years its Siberia Maru and Korea Maru have made Los Angeles regularly, but this spring the Tenyo Maru, Haiyo Maru and Shinyo Maru, largest of the fleet, have been continuing down here from San Francisco at irregular intervals.

Trade has grown accordingly. It is not unusual for the vessels to carry 200 to 300 passengers and 2000 to 3000 tons of freight from here, while the Tenyo Maru is due next week to disembark 243 passengers from Japan.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha is the largest steamship line in Japan with 150 bottoms, and is building three fast new motor liners for the trans-Pacific run, as well as a new liner for the Chile service.

HOLIDAY TRAVEL TO WRIGLEY RESORT HEAVY

More than 10,000 persons were transported either to or from Catalina Island yesterday by Wrigley liners of the Wilmington Transportation Company, according to L. R. Connor, chief clerk of the company. The Catalina, carrying 2000 a trip, made two sailings each way, while the Avalon made one round voyage with almost as many, and the Cabrillo was pressed into last night's service to bring the overflow back from the island resort. Incidentally, the Cabrillo yesterday inaugurated the daily excursions around the island with stops at the isthmus.

Los Angeles Harbor, conspicuous with dressed ships, was, however, more nearly idle than for a year. Only passenger carriers and express freighters worked, paying time and a half for the handling.

The absence of the battle fleet also contributed to the quiet of the port, usually visited by many thousands during the holiday. Hundreds of yachts, however, dotted the sky line, while scores of fishing boats were impressed as pleasure craft for the day.

Arrivals and departures of merchantmen were down to a dozen each, accountable by the clearing of thirty-four the day before, and the delay in arrival till today of almost that number. Twelve passenger carriers are scheduled to put into port today, including the Venezuela from New York, West Carmona from South America and the Los Angeles, bound for Germany.

Lassco liner, City of Los Angeles, is due tomorrow morning with 329 passengers from the Hawaiian Islands. Passenger carriers of that line are reported booked heavily outbound from here, as well as inbound, until the conclusion of the island's sesquicentennial, August 13 to 20, marking the discovery of the islands by Cap. James Cook in 1778.

Oranges lead fresh fruit exports to the Orient, according to the most recent issue of Commerce Reports. The shipments, while still small, have increased from $800,000 in 1923 to $2,000,000 in 1927. The Philippine Islands constitute the largest Far Eastern market, purchasing slightly more than China, although the latter consumes more oranges and lemons. Most of the increase has followed the entry of Dollar globe-girdling and trans-Pacific vessels with their refrigeration facilities, every ship going out of here with thousands of boxes of fresh fruit.

Dr. George Sidney Webster, secretary of the American Seamen's Friend Society, at New York, is due on the Dollar globe-circling liner President Harrison the 8th inst. on a tour of inspection of the Pacific Coast. The society this year is celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of its founding. The liner will disembark forty of her 100 passengers here.

The Panama Mail liner Venezuela is due at sunrise today with 100 passengers and freight from New York and Central America. Amelia Squires, researcher, is returning from Guatemala, where she participated in archeological excavations which almost caused her death.

Eastbound offices of the Luckenbach Line yesterday were moved from Berth 232-B to 230-D, in accordance with several recent shifts of lines on Terminal Island. The line's westbound offices at 232-D are undisturbed. Dollar Line will get the vacated berth, giving them entire frontage on one side of the 232 slip, Williams, Dimond Company having been removed to a berth farther north.
